

alert. But you run across that.

(Inaudible.)

(Inaudible) school just across the road from right over here.

(Well. Well my goodness.)

Old Arcadia.

OLD ARCADIA AND AREA - RED CLOUD DUNCAN

(Old Arcadia.)

It was right along when you go back north here. It was just right over in that corner. It was a long building. You know (inaudible).

(Yes ma'am.)

Well, it was right north of there, and it was (inaudible).

(Old Arcadia School.)

And--

(Well, it's been gone a long time.)

Oh, it's been gone since--oh, I can't say-- Now Mrs. Johnson wouldn't be alert enough, I don't believe, to remember.

(Where was Red Cloud Duncan's home?)

Right across the road.

(Right across the road from you here.)

Their home was on down the road. That's their land. They were old settlers.

(Yes ma'am. Red Cloud was quite a prominent figure, wasn't he?)

Oh, he was quite a prominent man. We used to laugh and talk about how he and his wife (inaudible). She was Carsolowry, from the other side of Adair.

(Yes ma'am.)

And let's see, I guess they come to name that Rowe Prairie was so much of that land was Rowe's.
