

Lot of women crying and men work around there, cut wood and they cook over there. Then the next day, the girl, get her ready, they all bring her over here. They get on the finest horses they can get, put her on that or where they have to come in buggy, they put her in that with her aunt. I don't know what the men did, look funny. (laugh). Sometimes catch him by night time bring him back. Make him sit with her. When he sit with her, feed 'em by themselves, supper. Then take him back in the morning. He's there for good then. That's one way. If they quarrel and fighting, separate, well, boy go home, well they, over here, the folks say maybe his wife get lonesome. They take somebody over here and they want him back. That cost you more again. Got to take something else over there. Take that boy back. That's the way they do. Well, the other way, second way, if you want a woman, want a woman yourself, for yourself, why you talk to her and marry her, without asking your folks, well you get married to somebody, they won't pay no attention to you. They just, if they see you fighting, they're not going to say nothing except maybe that's what they want. That's the way they want it. If they raise children, it's alright. But this other way if they raise children, their children is something. They think lots of it, both kinds of people around. They kind of worship their baby. They respect it, but this other one they don't pay no attention to them. That's the difference, 2 different things altogether then. The third one, maybe there's ole man and ole lady, maybe they want to get married. Maybe sometimes their relatives get 'em together, you know. Sometimes they don't do it. They get married if they want to. That's all there is to them. That's the way they get married. But you know to get married when they get ready to bring that girl over there usually get a blanket put it in there, 'bout 4 or 5 of 'em
