

And I made this for Carl, since--

(Carl Kemohah)

Uh-huh. Oh, I made this board for Carl Kemohah at the time.

(Did you have a reason-- a custom for making it for this certain person?)

It was you know, traditions way back there. The--according to relationship on the father's side. It happened that Mr. Kemohah was our close relative.

(What--how did--could you explain that relationship before we go on.)

I should have done that first. Well, how come this happen like it was, this Mr. Kemohah my father and Mr. Kemohah were relatives.

(What was their name--their Indian name?)

Kemohah? This Carl's father. His name is--

(And your father. What's his Indian name?)

(That was these two young--these two men's name at that time huh? I mean that was their name.)

Oh and my dad had another name too. He had that name and had that name, _____

Well, a long time ago they used to--Mr. Kemohah came and he was single at that time and he stayed with my father, that was his close relative. He come, he stayed with them. I don't know how long a period of time he stayed, but at that time, why my father and mother talked things over and talked about him. He was single and he needed to be married and get settled. So they married him off to Mrs. Kemohah.

(Mrs. Jodisaph what they call her in Indian?)

Her Indian name --his wife, was _____

(That's Carl's mother?)

Carl's mother. Later, it come on and that's what I was told--that part cause I thought maybe I was too young or wasn't there or what. But that's what I was