

picture in there.

(Oh.)

All tribes. Maybe you've seen that book? I'll get it. He's got it in his room. I think I've seen. Here's old man.

(Yeah, yeah, that's the encyclopedia, yeah, they--that's pretty good.)

All tribes look like.

(Uh-huh. You know, they have these--just like in that--well, this--they study these, you know and--)

WENT WITH INDIAN DELEGATION TO WASHINGTON IN 1924 - LITTLE GIRL AT THE TIME

(Did you--have you ever been to--you been to Washington, haven't you?)

Long time ago, back in '24. But that's been long time ago, you know.

(Who did you go up there with then, your father?)

No, my mother went that time with a bunch that they were going. Like when there were quite a few of them old people that was living at the time and we went along. Maybe you seen that long picture, you know. I see it up there to Pawhuska.

(Was it--Calvin Coolidge, was he the President?)

Yeah, Coolidge was President at that time, I think. And then, Abbot and Look-outs, and Rangos, all them was, at that time in 1924. That's been long time ago. But--

(Go on the train?)

Train. Uh-huh.

(Oh.)

Everybody went on the train.

(Must--that was quite a delegation from the looks of that picture, you know.)

Uh-huh. Big Chief was on there, you know. Lot of them went. And even your aunt went, and Florence, Eva. And Florence went that time--that same time.

JOHN WILSON PROVIDES THE FIRST CHURCH HOUSE

(Do you remember your father ever saying anything about a--or about your church house down here?)
