

(Back when he--I heard too, I don't know, that's just what I hear, that these Osages kind of made--requested--said before we take this we want to know that you're really what you claim you are.)

Uh-huh,

(They want to have proof. You ever hear that?)

No.

(They--they don't take him just at his own word.)

Uh-huh.

(They say we want--if you are what you say you are, well let me see your proof.

You see, he proved it.)

Uh-huh:

(Then that's how come.)

Uh-huh.

(Did you hear that?)

No, I didn't. But, I just know that folks said it was something good.

(Yeah.)

Or something good to rely on in anything, you see, sickness or--

(Well, that's just what I hear this Old Man Blackbelder he had some followers.

But they believed in God too, before that, you know. But they wanted to see if he's everything they say he is, you know. He says, you know--did you hear that--that he said that he went into a trance down there?)

No, he's his home:

JOHN WILSON WOULD GO INTO A TRANCE AND HAVE VISIONS OF CHRIST

(Yeah, went into a trance and in this--in this trance he was instructed by the Great Spirit, or whoever, to come up this way. Did you hear that?)

No, I heard that he was in that place and that I heard that he--he talked to Almighty Jesus, but he didn't see him behind the curtain, just a curtain, he was on the other side and he was on this side and then said that this moon--here, that shines, that was the one that took him up there and then Almighty asked, how come he brought him up there and said that--this moon said, that
