

When he started to get me to ride with him. Why after that. Wanted to go on up on the hill. I wouldn't do it. So he come back over the hill. Bunch of telephone lines running along the road there. North of that hill.

(Yeah)

He come over that hill. Over there. And he met that line. He couldn't dodge. He got hit. Turned him about half around.

(I bet it would turn him over.)

Broke the line though. That scared John. That boy he was ready to come home.

(Yeah it was time to quit then.)

But (not clear). I guess his wife told him to quit. He quit. Got rid of his dogs. Somebody else got 'em now. He sold 'em.

(Yeah)

They are in Kansas now.

TRUE STORY ABOUT AN EAGLE CATCHING A WILD GOOSE IN MID AIR

One time way out in western Oklahoma a big eagle was flying after a big old goose--flying along there and couldn't get him down.

(Well)

He just kept going on till couldn't go no further. Then on south, down to Battenberg's farm, I imagine, he saw that pond there.

(And that old eagle whipping that too.)

Yeah he was whipping him with his wings, but never did get him.

(Trying to get him down.)

Just kept a going. Yeah, it's against the law now.

AGAINST THE LAW TO KILL EAGLES AND DEER OUT OF SEASON

(Yeah I know it's against the law now. To kill eagles.)

Not allowed to kill them hawks either.

(No)
