

RADIO STATION PROGRAM - SPEAKS IN CHEROKEE

And (name not clear) do you remember him? He lives around Stilwell. He's in that Indian Art Association they have that goes on around here. I can't think of the heading of it right now. But they have a program on Thursday afternoon at 12:30 on the Tahlequah station.

(Yeah.)

Ruth Ford talks in Indian. The first time I heard that program they had just started it. He gave the names that were going to be sponsoring that. But so far hadn't heard most from their talk or anything, but he lives at Stilwell. He works for the Indian News, you know.

LIVED MANY YEARS WITH FATHER IN BRAGG

(Yeah. Katie where was your original home?)

Braggs.

(At Braggs.)

That's where I stayed. Dad's place was over there and when that Greenleaf Lake went in everybody, the place around there were condemned.

(Well.)

His land was condemned, my dad's. So he sold it and course they had to sell it.

(Yes.)

And he got him a place over close to Cookson then. It wasn't much acres as it was back home, but that's what he got--

(Yes.)

HOUSEWORK - CARED FOR AN AUNT MANY YEARS

Place over there. Then my aunt got her a place over here. I was with her when she died.

(Yes.)

Still here.

(Well. (not clear) --been up here now?)
