

I've been up here since 1948.

(Yes.)

Course she got aged you know and needed help.

(Yes.)

I hadn't been out of the hospital too long. And I wasn't strong enough to work out, you know, in public.

(Yes.)

And I was afraid I'd break down again. All I did was housework.

(Yes.)

When I was working.

(Yes. And where did you go to when you left Chilocco?)

I went to work in Kansas City.

(My goodness!).

And I stayed there until I broke down.

(Yes.)

And sanitarium.

LOWREY PRAIRIE - NED LOWREY

(Yes. Now this is what they call Lowrey Prairie or Johnson Prairie?)

This is Lowrey Prairie.

(Lowrey Prairie.)

In about three miles from here it is where they call Johnson Prairie.

(Yes.)

Over at Liberty Community.

(Yes.)

Used to be a school over there but they have it all combined over here at Lowrey now and Mozie and Coleman across the river.

(Yeah. Now this was probably named after some of the--)

It was named after that man you were talking about.

(After Ned Lowrey's folks then.)
