

Yeah. She told me this old organ man's name. How she was related to them, this Miss Phillips was, best I can remember she told me, but you know how it is, I forget. I did of course. She said they're buried up here somewhere on the prairie on his place.

(Well.)

His place they (not clear). But that school was named after him, what she told me.

(Yes.)

This used to be an old post office here.

(Right here?)

Uh-huh.

(Well.)

That's what they said.

(Well that must have been a--)

Course they (not clear) down.

(Yes. Well, did they call it Lowrey then?)

Yes. Lowrey. Lowrey.

(Well.)

I think they got the mail from Lowrey (rest of sentence not clear).

(Well.)

I used to have an old map. I suppose still have it somewhere. Had Lowrey on there and I believe it was on the map.

VERY FEW INDIANS LIVE IN THE AREA TODAY

Course they don't put it on there anymore.

(Yes ma'am. Well, there's been a lot of changes here in this country, I guess that we never saw. And course most of the older folks that are gone now they couldn't tell us about these things.)

No, that's right.

(But there's a lot of folks that lived up in this country at one time. I have heard.)
