

of 'em. Oh, it's right on there.

(Yeah, it's just there.)

One of 'em Maggie Lawrence down here.

(Yeah.)

Oh I forgot who the other one's name. She didn't know Maggie.

(Yeah.)

(Boy that was a long time ago.)

Oh yeah, quite a time ago. May, what were these two men's names?

May: Gordon

Frank: Gordon, I couldn't think of the name.

(Gordon.. (Words not clear) Cherokee Revenue Inspection, Cherokee Nation.

Well, that's wonderful.)

It might be on there. That's his name right there.

(Yeah, here it is. Here are their names right here. In the picture are Maggie Lawrence, Jenny Corntassel, John Corntassel, and Gordon Lawrence, and Bill Golden.)

May: Gordon.

(Gordon, well. Well, isn't that wonderful. You could keep that this long. Here's an old picture of strip coal digging. Right when they dug that out.)

Frank: That's Shawnee boy, Shawnee (words not clear). This one in me here. And this is the fella running the outfit. This is Jimmie Brown. He's still alive. And these fellars are all dead except me, and Jimmie Brown.

HAY BALING IN EARLY DAYS - LEAFHORSE RANCH

(And this haying operations back in 1910. That was out here by (not clear) .

Yeah, that was out where these coal banks are -- .

(Well, let's see, you just attacked hay in those days. You didn't bale
