

Well that Grove had first man that settled Grove his name was Remson.

(Remson)

Yeah. He owned a store there. And he was (words not clear).

(Yeah)

And Remson's store, well now I forget now, it's been way back there. Now I remember Remson's store.

(Yeah)

He was there. And then finally Bill Daugherty come in there and put up a little store and he had Bill Daughterty ran the bank there at one time. National bank.

And Grove just growed pretty well (words not clear). Course this water, this dam stopped up in there you know.

(Oh yeah)

And it's helped you know.

(It has.)

Grove has expanded a way out there. You know it has built houses and now they build a (word not clear) build these ships you know.

(Yes)

(Words not clear) boats. Got a big boat factory now. Started here the other day.

(Yeah)

And there's so many Indians employed there now. Government give some eight hundred and seventy thousand dollars to build this if they'd hire so many Indians (words not clear) and they did.

CEMETERIES - MANY PEOPLE BURIED THERE.

(Yes. Yeah I know where it is.)

Poston is big, it is a nice cemetery. Real nice. I noticed that when I was up there. Got lot more land around it then fenced it over for (words not clear).

(Yes.)
