

Then he went to preaching. And he was a wonderful preacher. Preached in his language. In that day and time. That's about all you heard.

(I guess so.)

Speak the Indian language.

(Yes)

I know when I used to, when I was going to church. I went to church over there called Sycamore. Full Indian, full blood, lot of them lives around there where I stayed. And I got to going to that church. And I couldn't understand everything they said in Cherokee you know. Couldn't talk it, you know. And they preached in that language. And so they just kind of, well their prayers would be funny of course we know nothing about it. Christ understood that and who their friends were probably he gave them what they asked for. He give it to them. I kinda believe that.

(I do)

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE IN RELIGION

And since I got to going to one of them churches I've learned a lot. And I couldn't understand a thing that they said.

(Well)

Given to them through their prayers, I suppose.

(Yeah)

I've thought about it since I've got to be a man, grown. I want to tell you one occasion that's happened to me and how come me to be into the church. Now I had by my first wife, I had three little children. And when she died she left me with three. The youngest boy was eighteen months old another little girl and this oldest boy. Three, two boys and a girl. I tell you what happened to me. Well I was saddled with that many children. I stayed with them, kept them ten years.
