

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

(March 18, 1969.. Today, I'm visiting with Ezekiel Postoak, 62 year old full blood Cherokee of Kansas, Delaware County, Oklahoma. Mr. Postoak is a minister among the Indians, and tells of some of his observations, and experiences.)

(Mrs. Postoak comments from time to time.)

OLD PHOTOGRAPHS AND IDENTIFICATION

(And (not clear) too.)

Mrs. Postoak: I remember that too.

(Yeah. And that's the school building.)

Sure was. Uh-huh.

(Not clear. I wonder how it looks now, up there.)

Mrs. Postoak: I don't know.

(We've not been back--)

They say it's all different.

(Pastor Postoak, have you lived there?)

I haven't seen it. There was only one then. Boys and girls. That's the big boys. Well the first year I went there, I stayed here.

(Uh-huh.)

Two years.

(Oh these are boys.) (Displaying photographs.)

Uh-huh. Yeah.

Mrs. Postoak: (Not clear) This--this is the girls..

(Yeah that was on the north side of the campus.)

Mrs. Postoak: Yeah, that's where I stayed at.

(Yeah and then the boys on the south side.)

Uh-huh.
