

Now there's a little bit, yes there's some similarity, that's right.

Now I heard a fella, one time, that went to, now some of these. Now the Shawnees, they have feasts ever so often.

(Yes sir.)

Some of their people, now we were invited, you got to be invited to one to go.

(Yes, sir.)

When you get an invitation why you are supposed to go when you get one.

Well, they invited wife and I and another couple, we went two different times, down there. That one fella, of course, he had talk before, eat there in Shawnee. And you know, when he got through he and I were talking, of course, I knew him pretty well. I said, "You know," I said, "Bill, I believe," his name is Bill Panther, "Bill," I said, "I believe if I was around Shawnee, I could get where I could talk it." Well, he said, I know you could I used to talk Delaware, but I kind of forgot it.

(Well,)

"But," he said, now he said, "I know you could." 'cause he said there's lot of that Shawnee is just Delaware. Lot of words is the same. That's what--

(Then there wouldn't be any problem if the person was around them.)

If I was around Shawnees I could probably talk as good as he could.

(Why sure you could.)

I know this fella's wife now she's Delaware and talks it, too. And, heck, he said she talked Shawnee better than she did Delaware.

(Well, my goodness.)

Been around him, been around the Shawnees who were talking it.

(Yeah.)
