

Yeah, when they got something they want to eat, they go eat.

(Why sure. Yeah if they get hungry they got to eat.)

Yeah.

(What did the old time Indians--how did they regard and think about the snakes? Did they--I never did hear them say but I wonder how they thought about them.)

I don't know. But I do know that they'd kill every one they see.

(Yeah.)

King snake. You've saw them haven't you?

(Yeah.)

I never did kill one of them. I don't know. I never did hear of them biting anyone.

(No I never did.)

And they don't act like they'd bite anyone.

(Well I've picked them up.)

Yeah. And they sure seem like they're pretty good natured.

(Yeah.)

I never did kill one.

(Yeah they're pretty little things, aren't they?)

They don't get very big.

(Do you try to raise a garden anymore?)

Not for two or three years I haven't.

(Yeah.)

I haven't been able to. You can't hardly get anybody to do it for you.

(You have good soil up here. Good sandy soil grow most anything.)

Yeah it sure is. Good land.

(I bet you've grown quite a bit of stuff up in here.)

Uh-huh.
