

Notice of Copyright

Published and unpublished materials may be protected by Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S. Code). Any copies of published and unpublished materials provided by the Western History Collections are for research, scholarship, and study purposes only.

Use of certain published materials and manuscripts is restricted by law, by reason of their origin, or by donor agreement. For the protection of its holdings, the Western History Collections also reserves the right to restrict the use of unprocessed materials, or books and documents of exceptional value and fragility. Use of any material is subject to the approval of the Curator.

Citing Resources from the Western History Collections

For citations in published or unpublished papers, this repository should be listed as the Western History Collections, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma.

An example of a proper citation:

Oklahoma Federation of Labor Collection, M452, Box 5, Folder 2. Western History Collections, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma.

CABLER, F. H.

INTERVIEW

#1091

7

INDEX CARDS:

White Bead
Freighter
Fort Sill

Interviewer, E. A. Cabler
April 1, 1937.

Interview with F. M. Cabler
Ninnekah, Okla.

Born November 26, 1881
At White Bead

Parents. Thad Cabler, Miss.
-----

was

F. M. Cabler/born at White Bead, near Pauls Valley, November 26, 1881, and lived there until he was five years old. Then his mother and father, Thad Cabler, separated so he went to California with his mother. He lived near San Pedro, California, until he was nine years old and then came back to his father who was living on Rush Creek near Rush Springs and worked on his farm. He ran off from home when he was twelve years old and went to feeding cattle for a man by the name of Dave Chitwood.

A little later he went to work for Bill Blakely on a wagon train which ran from Rush Springs to Fort Sill, carrying supplies to the soldiers at Fort Sill.

Cabler and Blakley put up the first water tower at Fort Sill was made of cypress lumber and located in the northeast corner of the old part of the Fort.

Cabler went to school at Rush Springs, finished the

2

the eighth grade, then went to Denison, Texas, grammar school for one summer term.

He married Ella M. Welch at Rush Springs, in 1900, and farmed on Rush Creek. In 1901, they moved to Ninnekah and he worked on a section gang, and did carpenter work over different parts of Grady County. In 1911, he took a Civil Service examination for a rural mail carrier's route at Ninnekah, and is still carrying the mail.