Biographical

Under this are the names of two hundred and eighty-nine chiefs, legislators and leading men of the Indian Territory at that time-1892. Much of this is autobiographical.

Mr. Perryman also has a copy of the Muskogee Phoenix dated September 7, 1902. This seems to be dedicated to the "Creek Statesmen prominent in Treaty Legislation." Pictures and biographies of the following are given:

Thomas Ward Perryman of Big Springs Town, President of the House of Kings.

Lee McNivins of Takebachu
Town, Clerk of the House of Kings.

John Jacobs of Takebachu Town
