

THE CLAREMORE PROGRESS

Claremore, Ind. Ter.,
January 2, 1904
Vol. 11 No. 49?
A. L. Kates, Publisher

LETTER OF FUS FIXICO

Well, so Hotgun and Tookpafka Micco and Wolf Warrior and Kono Harjo was all happened to meet up together last Sunday at the Weogufky stomp ground was weighed Bony Parts in the balance and found him white-washing.

"Well so," Hotgun he say; "I think Bony Parts could make a good organizer a secret societies, 'cause it come natural for him to do that kind of business. When he was in Muskogee he was bolted the doors and plugged the key holes and pulled down the blinds so nobody could catch on how he was initiated the grafters in the mysteries of the calcimine."

And Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well, so how many was took advantage a the opportunity and got in as charter members?"

And Hotgun he say, "Well, so maybe Bony Parts was organizing a big lodge but the applicants didn't all get in, 'cause Clarence Dug Last and Robit Owing was got in first and blackballed them all except Cay Blair Shoenfelt and Dam Big Pie and Break-in-Rich and Plenty So Far and household names like that."

(Wolf Warrior and Kono Harjo they was paid close attention and did not put in.)

"Well, so," Hotgun he say "it was Jay George Wright and Attorney Seemy-fee. They was something happen last summer that was made Clarence Dug Last had it in for them. So when Bony Parts was passed the ballot box around he was put in a black ball and winked at Robit Owing to follow suit and a hint to the wise was sufficient."

Then Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well so, what kind a question was Bony Parts put to Clarence Dug Last?"

"Well,so," Hotgun he say, "Bony Parts was made inquiries to see if Clarence Dug Last was fit to be a member, and didn't find any objection except one."

And Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well, so, what was that?"

"Well, so," Hotgun he say, "Clarence Dug Last was tried to claim all the credit for the president's message."

(Wolf-Warrior and Kono Harjo was grunt and keep on listening close.)

Then Hotgun he go on and say, "Well; so when the lodge was organized by Bony Parts he was made them a talk and say: "Well, so you all must stick close together like a leech in time of trouble. Our order was teach that. When a brother was getting the worst of it in the dark he must holler, 'blow the cap off!' 'cause that was the grand signal of distress."

Then Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well, maybe so, he could holler whitewash too."

Then Hotgun he say, "Well, so when Bony Parts was got back to Washington he was promised to send a charter to the lodge."