HISTORY of OTOLOGY

by

DR. ADAM POLITZER

Professor of Otology at the University of Vienna; Imperial Royal Privy Councillor; Chairman of the Imperial Royal University Clinic for Diseases of the Ear at the General Hospitals in Vienna.

VOLUME I

From earliest times to the middle of the Nineteenth Century.
With 31 portraits and 19 figures.

An English translation by

Stanley Milstein, B.A., M.A., M.D.

Fellow: American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, American College of Surgeons; American and International Societies for the History of Medicine; Lecturer, History of Medicine, Arizona State University.

Collice Portnoff, A.B., M.A., Ph.D.

Carter Memorial Fellow, American Academy in Rome; Cryptanalyst, U.S. Signal Corps, Washington, D.C.; Translator, Allied Military Government, Washington, D.C.; Chairman, Department of English, Arizona State University; Recipient, National Society of Arts and Letters Award; Centro Studi e Scambi Internazionali; Translator for Gregorio and Maria Martinez Sierra; Professor Emeritus, Arizona State University.

Antje Coleman, B.A.

From the original German edition of 1907
Enke Verlag, Stuttgart.

Columella Press
Phoenix, Arizona
1981