A special meeting of the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma was held on Friday, March 27, 1942, in the Office of the President of the University at 10:00 a.m. The meeting was called:

1. To complete action on items before the Board on Thursday, March 12.

2. To attend the first annual meeting of the University of Oklahoma Research Institute scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in Room 120, Union Building.

The following members were present: Harrington Wimberly, President of the Board, presiding; Regents McBride, Looney, Chambers, Craig, Hopper, and Noble.

The minutes of the meeting held on Thursday, March 12, 1942, were approved, each member having been sent a copy previously.

President Brandt reported on his trip to Washington from which he returned this morning, giving a resume of his conferences with Navy officials on the establishment of the air base at Norman. He stated Navy officials considered Norman one of the best locations in the country for the training program. He reported, also, on his conference with Captain Radford (Navy) concerning the establishment of a school for the training of mechanics. The details had been sent to Captain Radford by Mr. Lottinville following a conference with Captain R. M. McQuiston, Lieutenant Commander S. E. Weld, Lieutenant Commander Wheelock, and Lieutenant K. P. Coykendall. Mr. Lottinville and Mr. Kraft were called before the Board for further statements on the developments of the mechanics school.

Mr. Lottinville began his remarks by stating that the development of the flying field would anticipate the acquiring of land, in addition to the 270 acre Max Westheimer Flying Field, to make a total of approximately 1,500 acres; that a staff in Washington was working on plans and that these plans would soon be ready to submit to contractors. The land is to be acquired first, about April 1. Navy officials hope to have the field in operation by July 1. The number of cadets proposed is from 600 to 1,200, and the whole program should be in operation by September 1.

On the mechanics school Mr. Lottinville stated this would require the use of classrooms and other facilities on the campus and that the housing of men would be in an area from Jenkins Street on the east to Elm Street on the West, and from Boyd Street facing the campus on the North to Symmes Street, from which undergraduates would be moved to other houses in the University area. He stated that in cooperation with the Norman Chamber of Commerce and a committee from the University, tentative plans had been worked out. The number of men included in this program would begin with approximately 500 and might ultimately reach 2,000.
The Government will pay for instruction, use of facilities, utilities, depreciation, housing and mess, and that in the proposal submitted there was an item for "administration".

Mr. Kraft reported on the development of the Max Westheimer Flying Field, stating that all grading and drainage, runways, planting of bermuda, etc., would be completed within about a week. On the gas line of the Oklahoma Natural Gas Company, he reported that the moving of the line would be done by the Navy since it involves an entirely different problem now that the Navy is taking it over in its enlarged program.

There was a discussion of the whole defense program as it will affect the academic work of the University. It was the sense of the Board that the University cooperate in every way possible in the defense program. Regent Looney offered the following motion, which was unanimously adopted:

"That we endorse what has been done in connection with the flying field and the mechanics school, and authorize the President of the Board of Regents and the President of the University to work out plans in full cooperation with the Government in both projects."

Mr. Kraft and Mr. Lottinville retired from the meeting.

President Brandt submitted the faculty appointments in the 1942 summer school and explained in detail the work of the special summer school committee in arriving at the number of teachers required, the selection of courses to be offered, and recommended adoption of the committee's recommendation which included the fixing of a salary scale which provides for the payment of a maximum of ninety percent of the regular monthly salary, with certain modifications as specified in the committee recommendations.

Following a discussion of the matter Regent Looney made the following motion:

"That the summer school budget as submitted by the President and recommended by him for adoption which sets out the names of the summer school faculty and the salary schedule based on ninety percent of the regular salary be approved, subject to these two provisions:

"First, that the salary of each individual faculty member be fixed in accordance with the regulations of the summer school committee under Section 3, Page 2—THE SALARY SCALE AND BUDGET.

"Second, that in no event shall the amount of money expended in the summer school for salaries exceed the available State appropriation of $37,000 plus the amount of fees collected for summer school instruction, it being understood that no teacher shall be paid in excess of ninety percent of his regular salary; provided further that, if any policy is adopted by the Board of Regents relative to placing deans who are teaching in the summer school on a twelve months' basis, a proportionate adjustment will be made in the summer school budget."

The motion was unanimously adopted.

President Brandt called attention to the "Statement of Estimated Income and Expense of the University Infirmary" showing that there would be an estimated deficit for the year in the amount of $6,064.29, due to a decrease in enrolment and a corresponding decrease in receipts from fees.

He presented, also, the "Statement of Estimated Income and Expense of the Girls' Residence Halls". This statement shows an estimated reserve for the current fiscal year of $3,422.67.

President Brandt stated: "I want to present this matter to you at this time for your information."

No action was taken by the Board of Regents.

President Brandt presented the following items, and the action in each case was as indicated:

This pays the lease to December 7, 1942. The check in the amount of $203.10 has been placed in the Medical School revolving fund.
