increased generating capacity to 250,000 horsepower by the addition of 40,000 horsepower. « « reached a new height of 234 communities served by adding 7 cities and towns to its lines. « « provided electric service to 4,260 new customers. « « gave temporary employment to as many as 1,000 Oklahomans at one time in addition to the 3,000 permanent members of the O.G.&E. organization. « « and, voluntarily made an average state reduction of 11% in electric rates.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.