The University of Oklahoma Foundation was organized as a trust in 1944 to receive and administer gifts and bequests made to increase the effectiveness of the University of Oklahoma's services to the people of the State of Oklahoma and to all mankind. The purpose of the Foundation was conceived as a trust to perpetuate the opportunities and the wealth of Oklahoma by developing the frontiers of knowledge. The Foundation is governed by a Board of Trustees elected by contributors to the Foundation except for three ex-officio members, president of the University, president of the Alumni Association, and president of the Dads' Association. The Foundation is completely independent of the University or the State in conducting its affairs. The Foundation is prepared to accept gifts or bequests of money and property. Gifts may be made outright, or under provisions whereby the donor reserves an income to be paid as an annuity throughout the lifetime of one or more persons. Through the offices of the Foundation, a gift may be designed for a specific project or given unrestricted so the Foundation Trustees may determine how the gift can be used most effectively. Gifts may be made in the name of any person the donor wishes to honor. Lasting memorials can be established to bear the name of the donor or of any other person the donor designates. Significant deductions are allowed in estate and income tax laws of the federal and state governments for gifts or bequests to the Foundation.
