The Doris W. Neustadt Wing of Bizzell Memorial Library stands as a monument to a remarkable Ardmore family whose three-generation history with the University of Oklahoma began with the acquisition of a flying field 45 years ago. See “The Seeds of Excellence” on Page 28.