"A HERO'S STORY" — The Japanese were not the only planes in the sky over Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. A young Sooner fighter pilot was one of the first in the air to defend against the attack, his valor leading to official War Department designation as one of the first two heroes of World War II. Article on Page 20.