One item on your budget remains unchanged.

Electricity still is cheap and plentiful too. There never has been a shortage, but because of fuel rationing it may be that a national brown-out will be ordered. This should not cause restrictions in the use of electricity in the home but will be confined to downtown signage and window lighting.

Electricity is plentiful, but do not waste it. Use what you need but conserve where not needed.

Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company
George A. Davis
President