O.U. Alumni Want Statesmanship in Washington

AND THAT CALLS FOR RE-ELECTION FROM THE FIFTH OKLAHOMA DISTRICT

OF

Mike is one of the ablest members of Congress. He votes his convictions on every measure. He is one of the hardest working and most conscientious members of our lawmaking body. He received the Collier's Magazine Award in 1946 as the outstanding member of the House of Representatives. He was one of the leaders in the movement to reorganize and streamline congressional procedure.

IKE MONRONEY
DEMOCRAT FOR REPRESENTATIVE

A Real Sooner-Class of 1924 - Past President of O.U. Alumni

Let's Say "Sure, Mike," and Vote for Him in the General Election November 2

CLEVELAND COUNTY MONRONEY FOR CONGRESS CLUB
lack Luttrell, Secretary
(Paid Political Adv.)

He is always ready to help constituents with individual problems in Washington. He was of great assistance to the University in negotiations which led to the transfer to the University of the former Naval Air Station, now the North Campus, a $3,500,000 property. Throughout the war years and since, the University has leaned on him heavily in matters relating to veterans' educational benefits, the use of the Naval Air Technical Training Center property known as the South Campus, and other federal activities relating to education.
