THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

FOUNDATION, INC.

Helping the University of Oklahoma grow and meet the opportunities of the future is the University of Oklahoma Foundation. Organized in 1944, it provides a means by which friends and alumni of the University may participate in the advancement of education and research at the University of Oklahoma.

The Foundation exists side by side and works in cooperation with the Alumni Development Fund. The governing board of the University of Oklahoma Foundation is an independent body selected by those who contribute to the Foundation.

The Foundation is prepared to accept and administer gifts and bequests of money or property. Such gifts may be for restricted or unrestricted purposes. Gifts may be made outright, or through deferred giving and estate planning. A new and popular method of philanthropy is the 0.11.LIFE INCOME PLAN, whereby the donor reserves the income from his gift throughout his lifetime or our or more persons. The Foundation is recognized by the U.S. Bureau of In[...]

The Foundation office is located on the mezzanine floor of the University of Oklahoma's Memorial Union Building in Norman. Its phone number is JE 6-0900; extension 2365. Officers of the Foundation are happy to visit with individuals, in person or in writing, about the Foundation and its program.
