UNTIL THE MUMS COME—The gardens of Van Vleet Oval usually lie fallow through winter, spring and into summer awaiting the advent of the chrysanthemums that annually take Sooner spirits into another fall. Not this year. Landscape gardeners planted approximately 17,000 Celebrity Red petunias for the hot-weather enjoyment of south oval pedestrians and drivers-by.