The newest additions to the color and character of the Norman campus are five British-style, lighted, antique phone booths, strategically placed outside Jacobson, Copeland, George Lynn Cross and Adams halls and the Oklahoma Memorial Union. Each $5,000 booth was underwritten by Southwestern Bell Telephone and private donors; the first two were purchased by Molly Shi Boren to honor her husband, David, and the Boren children, Carrie and Dan.