March came in like a lamb. A soft, warm day appeared in the midst of a bitter winter, promising the approach of that most reassuring of seasons, Spring, which is never ignored on a college campus. The South Oval was a site for welcoming the balmy break. Students took to the out-of-doors in pairs (left above), in classes (right above), and singly (above).

Toast the Sooners
The Alumni Association is offering 1967 OU football tumblers, perfect for orange juice, to its members and friends for $3 for a set of eight, plus 50 cents for mailing.

Displayed on the exterior are signatures of all the players and coaches on the 1967 Big Eight and Orange Bowl championship team, a picture of Chuck Fairbanks, and the score of the Tennessee game. Order yours today. Write Football Glasses, Alumni Association, Union Building, OU, Norman 73069 with enclosed money order or check and your address.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.