The Cover. Returning from the 1959 dedication of the Class of '19 Memorial Arch are several members of the Class of '19. Class member and former campus wheel Fanny Bell Norris gave the dedicatory speech in which any student passing beneath the arch was wished a "heightened step and an eager eye." The short ceremony was a sentimental one in the heightened activities and eager handshaking of the 1959 Class Reunion Day (see Page 4). Pictured at the top of the cover are Distinguished Service Citation winners (l. to r.) George L. Cross, E. K. Gaylord, John Kirkpatrick, Paul A. Walker, and T. Howard McCasland (see Page 8).

Association Membership. Any former student who completed one or more semesters at the University satisfactorily is eligible for membership. An annual membership costs $4.00 and a Life Membership costs $80.00, payable $5.00 down and $5.00 quarterly.

CONTENTS

1959 CLASS REUNIONS
Classes ending in 4s and 9s reunited at O.U. to reminisce and to welcome a new 9'er to alumni meetings. . . Page 4

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CITATIONS
Two oilmen, a publisher, a public service official, and an educator received special commencement exercise honors . . . Page 8

BATTLE OF THE BARRICADES
All's not been quiet on the south oval. Beware or you may become involved in this fender fracas. . . Page 9

SUCCESS STORY
The nation's first land management curriculum has ended its first year at O.U. with scholarships and friends. . . Page 11

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS
Despite the occasional stretcher case, most football injuries are little worse than a blister—which is bad enough. . . Page 12

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE
Sooner Scene . . . Page 1
Big Changes in Big D . . . Page 10
New Books . . . Page 14
A Short Story by Fred Grove . . . Page 15
Roll Call . . . Page 17

JULY, 1959