The Life Member of the Alumni Association is its life blood; those who hold the card which recognizes them as members of the Association for life are the most important single factor by which the quality of education at the University is measured. Of the $100 paid for a life membership, $70 goes into the Life Membership Trust Fund, a permanent, growing endowment which will insure the growth and scope of alumni service in the future. We can take pride in the 7,000 Life Members of the Association; their membership represents the significant reciprocal relationship between the University and her alumni. We welcome the new Life Members of our Association and gratefully acknowledge the support and regard they have demonstrated for their alma mater. New Life Members are:

OU's presentation of the ballet Giselle was a triumph. Artists-in-residence Miguel Terekhov and Yvonne Chouteau were its brilliant stars. (Page 2)
Two New Veeps

Two key members of the faculty, Dr. Carl D. Riggs and Verne C. Kennedy, Jr., will take on additional responsibilities as vice presidents on July 1, 1966. Their appointments to the new posts were announced at the April meeting of the Board of Regents. Kennedy, who will be vice president for graduate studies, He will continue to be executive director of the Research Institute and will retain the academic rank of professor of metallurgical engineering. Riggs will be vice president for contract research, will continue to be executive dean of the Graduate College, professor of zoology and director of the Biological Station at Lake Texoma.

A Change in Law

The Board of Regents have approved a change in the admission for those entering the College of Law. Under the new policy, students living in Oklahoma must have a 2.5 grade average in all previous college work and must score 500 or better on the law school admission test. Out-of-State students must have a 3.0 average and score at least 500 on the entrance exam. Previously all applicants were admitted.

Oops!

The computer dating services (Sooner Magazine, March 1966) have done what they advertised in practically every case. One match, however, was a well publicized faux pas. Sandy Seals, a junior from Norman, took advantage of a dating service offer. Everything was fine except Sandy, who is a male, was listed as a female by the service. As a result, Miss Sandy Seals received a list of 30 eligible boys to call for dates, and 30 boys began to call Miss Sandy Seals. "One guy felt so sorry for me he offered to take me to dinner anyway," says Sandy. "I've Got a Secret," the television show, invited Sandy and one of his matches, Dwight Johnson, to appear. The panel was understandably stumped.

Big Names On Campus

Recent speakers on campus have included House Majority Leader Carl Albert, '51ba, who delivered the first Cortez A. M. Ewing Lecture April 29 in the Union Ballroom (see the next issue of Sooner Magazine); U.S. Sen. Fred R. Harris, '29ba, '54Law, who spoke to the Journalism Day banquet and the Phi Beta Kappa banquet, and Chesterfield H. Smith, a prominent Florida attorney, who addressed the campus observance of Law Day on judicial reform.

Bravo for Ballet

The University of Oklahoma through its artists in residence, Yvonne Chouteau and Miguel Terekhov, has accomplished a virtual impossibility in staging five performances of the ballet Giselle. The effect of the accomplishment is major in that it not only proved to be such a success from an artistic...
