1932
Clifford Mell, '32as, University of Oklahoma track captain last year and holder of the Big Six conference indoor broad jump record of 23 feet 10 1/4 inches, has accepted a position as assistant buyer with the Brown-Dunik stores at Tulsa. Mell probably was the greatest "competitor" every developed in the history of track at Oklahoma. In a crisis he would perform twice as well as in ordinary competition. He "put out," as the athletes say. Although he is primarily a broad jumper he went in on short notice and won the 600-yard Shannon Douglas cup race in the Kansas City Athletic club indoor meet of 1931. He also was clocked in 21.1 seconds in defeating Elwell, Kansas State's track sprinter, in a 220-yard dash at Manhattan last year, and usually was good for a 50-second 440 as a member of Sooner mile relay teams.

HARRY B. RUTLEDGE

for $210,000 and of this amount only $13,000 was to go to Oklahoma newspapers, whose only purpose, according to the plan, was to "puff" radio talks. The rest was to go to radio companies and other advertising media, the major part going to the promoter and to his specially formed advertising agency.

10. The placing of the central office on a respectable basis in the eyes of state politicians and Oklahoma industries.

11. The publishing of the Oklahoma Publisher, official monthly publication of the association, which pays for itself.

During the time that Rutledge has been in office, he has attended seventy six group, advertising and association meetings; visited approximately 400 newspaper plants in Oklahoma; issued...
