AUGUST AMORPHISMS—We are tempted some day to write a story of carnivals life and call it "Lily of the Bally" . . . Lt. Jimmy Mugg, formerly of Higgins, Texas, and now of the Medical Administrative Corps, instead of marking his letters as more sedate people do, AIR MAIL, says "FLY IT." We don't know whether this is original or not with Lieutenant Jim, but it is expressive . . . In reading from a book on materia medica dated 1712, a student suddenly mentioned DRUGFELLER. The teacher, thinking the idiom a bit strange for 1712, questioned the word. You've already guessed what was back of it—"it was all due to the oldfashioned "s"—but it's not bad is it, a pharmacist is after all a "DRUG FELLER" "Gดร" to the oldfashioned "s"—but it's not bad is it, a pharmacist is after all a "DRUG FELLER"

All manner of congratulations and huge bou-quers of proverbs to the American Pharmaceutical Association and Related Organizations meeting this month in Pittsburgh. May much be attempted, and may much be accomplished for the good of phar-

SCHOOL NEXT MONTH—Classwork at the University School of Pharmacy will resume September 16, at 8:10 a.m. The freshman period for this same semester will begin a little earlier, September 9 at 9:30 a.m. Questions concerning possible enrollment should be directed to the Dean, School of Pharmacy, University of Oklahoma, Nor-am, Oklahoma.

Here is one solution to the summer heat situation at the University. Dr. Sherman P. Lawson, professor of speech, lectures his class in radio background on front lawn of Union Building.
