Alumni and Rush Week

A NEW record was established in fraternity pledging at fall rush this year, with a total of 393 students pledged as a result of first dates of men's fraternities and preferential pledging of women's fraternities. Women pledges numbered 161 (compared to 150 last year) and men 230 (compared with 215 at the end of first dates last year).

named the young warrior after it. The tribe then adopted the Anglo-Saxon custom of handing down names from generation to generation. Blue Eagle became the family name. Grandma also taught Ace Blue Eagle and gave him his first name. Friends often asked where the bright-eyed youngsters was. "Aace," she would reply, meaning "that's it."

Blue Eagle is a dancer, an artist and a singer. For two years he appeared throughout the United States on the stage, featuring three Indian arts - crossing dance, war dance, and blue eagle dance. Blue Eagle prefers the blue eagle dance. In it he wears genuine eagle wing feathers on his arms and eagle tail feathers on his back. The young warrior of today, he goes through the motions of an eagle, punctuating the drum beats with a shillelagh. Blue Eagle's English is perfect, his voice being low and musical, and his manner is one that would grace a Boston tea table.

For a long time Blue Eagle signed his painting with the symbol of the blue eagle. Recently he began writing his name. His work is the typical Indian art used on tepees. Water colors are used for the flat work in two dimensions.

Blue Eagle won international fame with his art, having held exhibitions in Paris, Berlin, Stockholm, and Chicago. He has won a prize at the world art exhibition in Los Angeles.

Blue Eagle is 24. He is more than six feet tall, a perfect Indian brave type. With his black suit he wears a black tie and a silver eagle pin. His manner is one of quietness, seriousness, and charity. He is light-heartedness; his bird, light-heartedness; tepees, home.
