A job where painters had to be artists—
The New O. U. Library!

Congratulations to the officials, faculty members and students of the University of Oklahoma on the formal opening of the NEW LIBRARY. We are proud of the part we played in completing this great project, the painting, wood finishings and wall decorating.

H. T. WOODRESS
Painting Contractor
1101 W. 24 Street Oklahoma City Phone 4-4345

School Science & Mathematics

The only Journal in the English language devoted primarily to the needs of science and mathematics teachers.

Here is a publication issued nine times each year that will keep you in touch with the most recent advances in scientific knowledge and teaching methods.

Classroom helps and special teaching devices for different topics are regular features. The Problem Department and Science Questions furnish inspirations and extra activities for superior students.

The most progressive teachers in secondary schools and colleges all over the world are regular readers and many of them are frequent contributors to this journal.

Nine Issues a year

Price $2.50 a year

Become a leader in the teaching profession by associating with leaders. Send your subscription today.

School Science & Mathematics
1439 14th Street
Milwaukee, Wisconsin