Two Valuable Alumni Services

For Graduates

For School Executives

The Teachers Placement Bureau is maintained by the Alumni Association in its Oklahoma Union office to mutually benefit graduates of Oklahoma who are teachers and also to aid school executives who are in need of teachers. The service is free to both parties. More than three hundred names of graduates are in the active file seeking positions. All of the details concerning the applicants are recorded on the files. Numerous requests for teachers are directed to the Alumni office from school executives, not only in Oklahoma but in neighboring states.

The Teachers Placement Bureau is just one of the many services of the University of Oklahoma Alumni Association. Scores of teachers are placed in teaching positions through the Bureau every year. Scores of school executives find the Bureau efficient, dependable and convenient. The number who are relying upon it is ever increasing.

Deaths
William H. Halbert, ’23ex, died suddenly in August at Paul Valley where he was party chief for the Petty Geophysical company. Death was attributed to heart trouble.
Funeral services were conducted at the McFarlin Memorial church in Norman. Bearers were Dr. B. H. Cooley, S. B. Rogers and F. R. Frantz, all of Norman; Warren Edwards, Oklahoma City; and P. J. Rudolph and O. S. Potts, both of San Antonio.
Mrs. J. D. Maguire, pioneer Norman resident.

Roscoe Cate, ’26as, above, is the new editor of the Sooner Magazine, and James Hawes, ’35as, is the new business manager.

New staff

By FRANK S. CLECKLER

A new staff took charge of the Sooner magazine beginning with this issue, with Roscoe Cate, ’26journ, as editor, and James Hawes, ’35as, as business manager.

They were appointed by a committee consisting of Earl Foster, ’12, ’13, president of the University of Oklahoma association, and Frank S. Cleckler, the secretary of the association, who were given authority to fill the positions at the spring meeting of the executive board.

Ernie Hill, ’32journ, resigned as editor and business manager last spring when he accepted a position on the editorial staff of the Oklahoma News, Oklahoma City.

The new editor is city editor of the Norman Transcript, and will do the editorial work on the magazine in addition to his duties with the Transcript. Cate is a former editor of the Oklahoma Daily, member of Phi Beta Kappa, and Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity. He has worked on newspapers in Muskogee, Ponca City and Oklahoma City.

Hawes received a B. A. degree in 1935 and is now a junior in the law school. He was editor of the 1935 Sooner yearbook, member of Phi Beta Kappa, president of Skeleton Key honorary, and won the Dads’ Day cup for outstanding man student in the fall of 1934. He was assistant general manager of student publications during the last school year.

Runoff winners

Three University graduates besides Josh Lee, senate race winners, received nominations for major state offices in the Democratic runoff primary.

Thurman Hurst, '12law, defeated Edwin W. McNeill in the sixth district supreme court race; Wilburn Cartwright, '20law, won the nomination for third district congressional, and Will Rogers, 30-M.S., won renomination for congressman-at-large. All three of these races were Democratic.

Judge Hurst is now serving his second term as district judge of Tulsa and Pawnee counties. Since January, 1931, when he assumed the position, he has disposed of approximately 5,000 cases in the two counties, including about 475 jury cases.

In addition to his work as district judge during the last two years, he has written 11 opinions for the Supreme Court which were adopted by that court.

His record as district judge was so satisfactory that when he announced for re-election in 1934 not a single candidate from either party filed against him.

Judge Hurst is a member of Phi Delta Phi, honorary legal fraternity, and also the Order of the Coif.

Sooner graduates broke even in state senate races of the runoff election, winning two and losing two.

James M. Wilson, '33law, was runoff winner in District No. 8 (Garfield county), and Joe B. Thompson, '27law, won in District No. 18 (Carter, Love, Murray).

Incumbent Don Wilbanks, '22law, lost to W. N. Barry in District No. 22 (Hughes, Okfuskee), and Sam Sullivan, '37law, was defeated by John A. McDonald in District No. 20 (Atoka, Bryan, Coal).

Tom C. Waldrep, '19law, won the Democratic nomination without a runoff in the Pottawatomie county district.

Alumni who won Democratic nominations for state representatives in the runoff election include: Dale Brown, '37bus, Coal county; Finis C. Gillespie, Jr., '31law, Kiowa county; Aubrey M. Kerr, '28law, Pontotoc county; Herbert L. Branan, '35as, Muskogee county; and William O. Coe, '28law, Oklahoma county.

Merton Munson, of Lawton, '29as, '31law, received the Democratic nomination for state senator of District No. 17 (Comanche, Cotton, Stephens and Jefferson counties) without opposition.

Munson, now an attorney in Lawton, is serving his second term as state representative and was speaker pro tem of the Fifteenth legislature. He drew no opponent in either of his legislative races.

O. M. Ginder, '31law, and Loyd W. Hadwiger, '34as, won the Republican nominations for county attorney and county judge, respectively, in Alfalfa county and will be elected without opposition.
