Roll
Call

Class Reunions June 7-8 will be held for the Classes of 1903, 1908, 1913, 1923, 1928, 1933, 1938 and 1948 in the Oklahoma Memorial Union.

Planned activities will start at 1 p.m. Sunday, June 7 and continue through commencement on the following day at 7:50 p.m. The schedule of events: June 7, Registration 1 p.m., Reception 1:30 p.m., Individual Class Meetings 4 p.m., Reunion Dinner 5:30 p.m.—all in the Union—and Baccalaureate Services in individual Norman churches 7:30 p.m.

June 8, Association Executive Board Meeting 10:30 a.m., Reception for alumni, graduating seniors, commencement guests 3 to 5 p.m., Commencement 7:30 p.m. The first two events will be held in the Union, Commencement will be held in Owen Stadium.

All members of the Reunion classes have been mailed a complete program and reservation information.

'00 Beauford Emmett Hayden, '00ba, Menlo Park, California, died November 15, 1952, at a Los Altos rest home after a long illness. He had served for 42 years with the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation as a civil engineer.

'10 Frank Buttram, '10ba, '12ma, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma in the Daily Oklahoma's Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

'11 E. L. DeGolyer, '11ba, presented the University Library with a complete set of the "Philosophical Transactions" of the Royal Society of London, one of the earliest and greatest journals in science.

'13 Dr. Clarence E. Bates, '13 phc, '18med, manager of Will Rogers veterans administration hospital in Oklahoma City, has been appointed manager of the new veterans hospital now nearing completion in Oklahoma City.

'14 John Rogers, '14law, Tulsa, was elected first vice president of the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, February 18.

'15 M. O. Counts, '15, veteran Oklahoma attorney and state senator for eight years, died recently in his home in Hartshorne following an extended illness.

'16 T. Howard McCasland, '16ba, Duncan, was elected second vice president of the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, February 18.

Morrison B. Cunningham, '16, Oklahoma City, superintendent of the city water department, has been elected president of the American Water Works Association.

'17 Wesley L. Nunn, '17, advertising manager of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, was the featured speaker at the University's fourth annual Journalism Day April 10. Nunn is director of the National Advertising Council.

'20 G. D. Strother, '20ba, District Engineer, South Texas District, Sunray Oil Corporation, has been transferred to the Tulsa office of the company.

'21 Tom Sterling, '21, vice president of the Oklahoma National Gas Co., has been selected as a vice chairman of the membership drive for the Oklahoma City Symphony.

'22 John Coleman Powell, '22Law, presiding judge, Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma by the Daily Oklahoma in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

'23 C. Wayne Burbour, '23eng, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma by the Daily Oklahoma in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

'24 Sen. Mike Monroney, '24ba, was presented the third annual Palai B'rith Americanism award in late March at a dinner in the Biltmore Hotel, Oklahoma City.
25 Graydon H. Laughbaum, '25ba, who recently was made chief geologist for Three States Natural Gas at Dallas, Texas, has also been appointed head of the company's land department.

26 Luther T. Dulaney, '26, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma in the Daily Oklahoman's Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

27 J. Phil Burns, '27ba, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma, by the Daily Oklahoman in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

28 Col. John H. Lamb, '28ba, '32bs in med, '32med, Oklahoma City, will head the membership drive for the Oklahoma City Symphony.

29 Paul Miller, '30, of the Gannett Newspaper and a former Oklahoman, spoke to the Friday Forum Luncheon of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce recently.

30 Murray J. Wells, '30bs, has been made manager of exploration for the newly-created northwest division of Cities Service Oil Co. at Casper, Wyoming, where he also will continue as division geologist.

31 Col. J. A. Martin, '31bs, is serving in the Audit Branch of Headquarters U. S. Army, Europe.

32 Major Jake G. Lyons, '32ba, recently was named executive officer and adjutant of the Army Home Town News Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

33 Hicks Epton, '32Law, Wewoka, president of the Oklahoma Bar Association, addressed University law students March 5 as the first speaker in the Law School lecture series.

34 POLK-GREEN: Miss Mary Elizabeth Poll, Nashville, Tennessee, and Percy H. Green, Paducah, Kentucky, were married December 27 in Nashville. The couple has established a home in Paducah.

35 Mrs. Cornel I. Gibson, '33ba, has recently assumed duties of a welfare visitor in the Bossier Parish Welfare Department, Shreveport, Louisiana.

36 Lynn J. Bullis, Jr., '33Law, Oklahoma City, is the new president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association.

37 Forney Hutchinson, Jr., '33ba, has been named manager of a new department of industrial relations for Sunray Oil Corp.

38 The Rev. Kermit Johnson Schmidt, '34, of Muskogee, will assume his duties as minister of the First Baptist Church in Tulsa, April 1.

39 Dr. John E. Gott, '34, formerly of Norman, died in Ponca City February 27.

40 Col. Charles H. Gingles, '34ba, '36bs in med, '36med, is now serving as deputy commander of Tripler Army Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii.

41 Eugene Kendall, '34ba, Norman, has been named by the New York Life Insurance Company as one of the two leading agents from the Oklahoma City branch to qualify for the Top Club Council.

42 Max E. Stansbury, '36Law, has been appointed industrial relations manager of Continental Oil Company's southern and southwestern regions. He will continue to make his headquarters in Houston, Texas.

43 H. G. Cornell, '36eng, has been employed by Humble Oil & Refining Company of Baytown, Texas, since graduation from the University. At the present time he is head of a research section devoted primarily to development work in the field of catalytic cracking.

44 J. R. Barson, '36ba, is employed as assistant process superintendent of the Humble Oil & Refining Company in Baytown, Texas. He has been with Humble since graduation.

45 Stewart Harell, '36ba, director of public relations studies at the University, will serve as guest lecturer at the International Educational Workshop in Banff, Canada, August 16-23.

46 Mary Kimbrough, '36, journalist from St. Louis, Missouri, spoke to the annual Matrix Table Dinner sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, journalism fraternity for women, March 18.

47 A. G. Meyers, Jr., '36, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma by the Daily Oklahoman in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

48 Col. J. A. Martin, '31bs, is serving in the Audit Branch of Headquarters U. S. Army, Europe.

49 Lt. Col. Oran S. Richardson, '31bs, is one of eight military officers who has been appointed to the Atomic Bomb Commission.

50 J. R. Rakeley, '31bs, dean of the College of Education at the University, was named to the executive committee of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. He will serve four years.

51 John Otis Gossett, '34, died in Ponca City February 27.

52 Col. Charles H. Gingles, '34ba, '36bs in med, '36med, is now serving as deputy commander of Tripler Army Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii.

53 Eugene Kendall, '34ba, Norman, has been named by the New York Life Insurance Company as one of the two leading agents from the Oklahoma City branch to qualify for the Top Club Council.

54 Max E. Stansbury, '36Law, has been appointed industrial relations manager of Continental Oil Company's southern and southwestern regions. He will continue to make his headquarters in Houston, Texas.

55 H. G. Cornell, '36eng, has been employed by Humble Oil & Refining Company of Baytown, Texas, since graduation from the University. At the present time he is head of a research section devoted primarily to development work in the field of catalytic cracking.

56 J. R. Barson, '36ba, is employed as assistant process superintendent of the Humble Oil & Refining Company in Baytown, Texas. He has been with Humble since graduation.

57 Stewart Harell, '36ba, director of public relations studies at the University, will serve as guest lecturer at the International Educational Workshop in Banff, Canada, August 16-23.

58 Mary Kimbrough, '36, journalist from St. Louis, Missouri, spoke to the annual Matrix Table Dinner sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, journalism fraternity for women, March 18.

59 A. G. Meyers, Jr., '36, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma by the Daily Oklahoman in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

60 Col. J. A. Martin, '31bs, is serving in the Audit Branch of Headquarters U. S. Army, Europe.

61 Lt. Col. Oran S. Richardson, '31bs, is one of eight military officers who has been appointed to the Atomic Bomb Commission.

62 J. R. Rakeley, '31bs, dean of the College of Education at the University, was named to the executive committee of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. He will serve four years.

63 Major Jake G. Lyons, '32ba, recently was named executive officer and adjutant of the Army Home Town News Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

64 Hicks Epton, '32Law, Wewoka, president of the Oklahoma Bar Association, addressed University law students March 5 as the first speaker in the Law School lecture series.

65 POLK-GREEN: Miss Mary Elizabeth Poll, Nashville, Tennessee, and Percy H. Green, Paducah, Kentucky, were married December 27 in Nashville. The couple has established a home in Paducah.

66 Mrs. Cornel I. Gibson, '33ba, has recently assumed duties of a welfare visitor in the Bossier Parish Welfare Department, Shreveport, Louisiana.

67 Lynn J. Bullis, Jr., '33Law, Oklahoma City, is the new president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association.

68 Forney Hutchinson, Jr., '33ba, has been named manager of a new department of industrial relations for Sunray Oil Corp.

69 John M. Bell, '34, assistant to the chief of the bureau of census in Washington, D. C., since 1946, died February 17 in Washington after a brief illness.

70 John Otis Gossett, '34, formerly of Norman, died in Ponca City February 27.

71 Col. Charles H. Gingles, '34ba, '36bs in med, '36med, is now serving as deputy commander of Tripler Army Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii.

72 Eugene Kendall, '34ba, Norman, has been named by the New York Life Insurance Company as one of the two leading agents from the Oklahoma City branch to qualify for the Top Club Council.

73 Max E. Stansbury, '36Law, has been appointed industrial relations manager of Continental Oil Company's southern and southwestern regions. He will continue to make his headquarters in Houston, Texas.

74 H. G. Cornell, '36eng, has been employed by Humble Oil & Refining Company of Baytown, Texas, since graduation from the University. At the present time he is head of a research section devoted primarily to development work in the field of catalytic cracking.

75 J. R. Barson, '36ba, is employed as assistant process superintendent of the Humble Oil & Refining Company in Baytown, Texas. He has been with Humble since graduation.

76 Stewart Harell, '36ba, director of public relations studies at the University, will serve as guest lecturer at the International Educational Workshop in Banff, Canada, August 16-23.

77 Mary Kimbrough, '36, journalist from St. Louis, Missouri, spoke to the annual Matrix Table Dinner sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, journalism fraternity for women, March 18.

78 A. G. Meyers, Jr., '36, Oklahoma City, was named to Who's Who in Oklahoma by the Daily Oklahoman in its Fiftieth Anniversary issue, March 1.

79 Col. J. A. Martin, '31bs, is serving in the Audit Branch of Headquarters U. S. Army, Europe.

80 Lt. Col. Oran S. Richardson, '31bs, is one of eight military officers who has been appointed to the Atomic Bomb Commission.

81 J. R. Rakeley, '31bs, dean of the College of Education at the University, was named to the executive committee of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. He will serve four years.

82 Major Jake G. Lyons, '32ba, recently was named executive officer and adjutant of the Army Home Town News Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

83 Hicks Epton, '32Law, Wewoka, president of the Oklahoma Bar Association, addressed University law students March 5 as the first speaker in the Law School lecture series.

84 POLK-GREEN: Miss Mary Elizabeth Poll, Nashville, Tennessee, and Percy H. Green, Paducah, Kentucky, were married December 27 in Nashville. The couple has established a home in Paducah.

85 Mrs. Cornel I. Gibson, '33ba, has recently assumed duties of a welfare visitor in the Bossier Parish Welfare Department, Shreveport, Louisiana.

86 Lynn J. Bullis, Jr., '33Law, Oklahoma City, is the new president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association.

87 Forney Hutchinson, Jr., '33ba, has been named manager of a new department of industrial relations for Sunray Oil Corp.

88 John M. Bell, '34, assistant to the chief of the bureau of census in Washington, D. C., since 1946, died February 17 in Washington after a brief illness.

89 The Rev. Kermit Johnson Schmidt, '34, bus, of Muskogee, will assume his duties as minister of the First Baptist Church in Tulsa, April 1.
as superintendent of Western State Hospital, Fort Supply, Oklahoma.

Wayland Emerson McCarty, '40Law, 41-year-old blind justice of the peace in Oklahoma City, died February 27 following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Harry A. King, '41mech.eng., Westfield, New Jersey, has been appointed Eastern Regional Sales Manager for Trion, Inc., of McKee's Rocks, Pennsylvania.

Grover Ellis, Jr., '42p.eng., has been promoted to assistant vice president of the First National Bank of Houston. He is married and has two sons.

Major Bryce S. Moore, '42ba, has been assigned as a platoon officer in a Basic Training battalion at the Women's Army Corps Training Center, Fort Lee, Virginia. He is formerly from Houston.

Dr. Arthur F. Elliott, '45med., and Mrs. Elliott, Oklahoma City, have chosen the name Mark Stephen for their son born February 17. They also have a son, Arthur Lloyd Elliott, 20 months.

Dr. Jean Frances Chambers, '45ba, '49mcd, and Dr. Walter Anton Pozanski, both of Topeka, Kansas, were married February 7. The couple took a wedding trip to Taos and Santa Fe, New Mexico, and returned to Topeka to establish their home.

Philpin-Stapp: Miss Mary Beth Philipin, '47bus, Oklahoma City, and Milo A. Stapp, Denver, Colorado, were married in March in the St. Luke's Methodist Church, Oklahoma City. The couple has established a home in Denver.

Jacqueline Tracy, '47ba, is enrolled in the Tulane University School of Social Work at New Orleans. She is working toward a graduate degree.

George R. Minor, Jr., '47ba, and his wife, Washington, D.C., announced the birth of a son, George Robert, January 25. Minor is assistant to the chief, Alaska Division, Office of Territories and Possessions, Department of the Interior.

James E. Vaughn, '47ba, was recently appointed to the position of manager of radio station WMIB, Miami Beach, Florida.

Paul E. Fondren, '47ba, and Mrs. Fondren, Oklahoma City, have chosen the name Paul Mark Fondren for their son born March 3. They have a daughter, Kimberly Ann Fondren, I.

Bill L. Shelton, '48journ, '51m.journ, former state editor of the Wichita Falls Record News, has resigned as director of the Wichita Falls community chest to become a deskman on the Tulsa Tribune.

Major Alfred J. Ashton, Jr., '48Law, is presently serving as assistant staff judge advocate of the Air Training Command with headquarters at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois.

Herman E. Nichols, Jr., '48geol, recently was named head of the exploration department of the Warren-Bradshaw Exploration Co. of Tulsa. He was formerly associated with Gulf Oil Corp.

Tom J. Love, '48eng, has joined the staff of Midwest Research Institute as a mechanical research engineer. Love will reside in Kansas City, Missouri.

V. B. Brown, '48chem, eng, is employed as a co-ordination technician in the refining co-ordination department of the Humble Oil & Refining Company, Baytown, Texas. He has been with the firm since graduation.

Herbert S. Carver, Jr., '48ba, has resigned as district geologist for the Standard Oil Company and has accepted a position of district geologist with Colorado Interstate Gas Company, Amarillo, Texas.

Peoples-Coyle: Miss Hazel Jean Peeples, Oklahoma City, was married to Thomas D. Cole, '48bus, Chicago, February 14 in the First Christian Church, Oklahoma City. The couple has established a home in Tulsa.

Charles E. Taylor, Jr., '48bus, '49Law, of Sterling, Colorado, has joined the land staff department of Ralph Lowe, Denver.

Dean Seaton, '49ba, and Mrs. Seaton, Sacramento, California, have chosen the name Lauri Ann Seaton for their daughter born March 26.

James Glenn Sady, '49ba, '50eng, has joined the staff of Midwest Research Institute as a senior chemical engineer. Sady will reside in Kansas City, Missouri.

Clifford L. Banks, '49eng, has been transferred from Odessa, Texas to Corpus Christi, Texas by the Atlantic Refining Co. He is a junior drilling engineer with that firm.

Deeming-Dolman: Miss Eleanor Deeming, Chicago, Illinois, and Richard Dolman, '49bus, Temple, Oklahoma, were married April 8. He is on active duty with the Air Force and is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base. The couple visited the Alumni Office in mid-April.

Herrod-Goffe: Miss Joyce Herrod, Sidney, Nebraska, and John O. Goffe, '49geol, Sulphur, were married November 8, 1952 in Sidney. They are making their home in Sidney where Goffe is employed as a geologist with the Ohio Oil Co.

Charles A. Smith, '49eng, has accepted a position with the E. I. duPont de Nemours Co. at the Savannah River Plant of the Atomic Energy Commission in the Works Engineering Department. He and Mrs. Smith, the former Velma Ferris Smith, '46-47, are living in Aiken, South Carolina. The Smiths have two children, Keith and Terry Ellen.

Joe O. Green, '49ba, recently was transferred from El Reno to Lamesa, Texas, to become manager of the Goodyear Service store there.

Joe L. Harris, '49bus, '50ba, and Mrs. Harris, Mr. Pleasant, Michigan, have chosen the name Jeffery Joseph for their son born March 17.

Harold H. Clifford, '49Law, was appointed a member of the Oklahoma City Library Board, March 11.

Don Barnes, '49Law, former county attorney of Murray County, has entered the practice of law in Okmulgee.

Stolfa-Sheffer: Miss Annabelle Stolfa, Ardmore, and Harold A. Shefer, '49bus, Lawton, were married January 31 in the Catholic Church at Ardmore. The couple has established a home in Lawton.

Clarence P. Green, '49Law, and Mrs. Green, Oklahoma City, have chosen the name Vicki Louise for their daughter born February 20.

'50 Perry E. White, '50journ, has resigned from the Daily Ardmore's advertising staff to accept a similar position with the Stillwater Daily News-Press. White had been with the Ardmore paper since February, 1952.

William E. Wright, '50ba, musician third class, United States Navy, is a member of the only navy band stationed in Japan.

Lt. Dan F. Sinos, '50bs, stationed at Camp Drum, New York, is participating in Exercise Snow Storm as a member of the 82 Airborne Division from Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

John H. Killingsworth, '50bs, and Mrs. Killingsworth, the former Norma Jean Spears, '50mus.ed, Shawnee, announced the birth of a son, Thomas John, born November 24, 1952.

Louise B. Miller, '51journ, has been with the Ardmore paper since February, 1952. The couple has established a home in Konawa.

Lt. Dan E. Seiler, '50mus, stationed in Japan.

'51 Lt. Robert J. Strozier, '51bs, Watonga, Fifth Air Force Saber jet pilot, was credited with damaging a MIG jet in air fighting over Korea in late March.

Fred E. Percival, '51bs, Mrs. Percival and their daughter are the guests of Mrs. Percival's parents in Oklahoma City. Percival plans to enrol in the O.U. College of Law in September.

'52 James E. Work, '52ba, and Mrs. Dorothy Duffy Work, '50ba, announced the birth of a daughter, Cynthia Louise, April 7. Work is a senior law student at the University.

Sara Louise Woods, '52journ, has resigned as junior public relations assistant at O.U. and has taken a position as staff writer in the United Press bureau in Oklahoma City.

Lt. John L. Tucker, '52bs, is currently attending a special course at Quantico, Virginia. The course is designed to acquaint him with the duties of a platoon leader and junior marine officer.

William J. Bartosh, '52arch, has joined the engineering department of the Chance Vought Aircraft Division of the United Aircraft Corporation, Dallas, Texas.

Julia A. Beckman, '52ed, Muskogee, is employed as a stewardess for American Airlines. She is based at Dallas, Texas.

If I Were President . . .

sented in concert along with large choral groups. Notice, there is no mention of the dramatists aside from the opera workshop. They would be in a completely separate building with their own theatres and needs.