For Grade A Milk

People of Norman who take an interest in the purity and healthfulness of the milk they drink are buying GILT EDGE milk with full confidence in its quality, for it is now certified under terms of the standard milk ordinance as GRADE A MILK. This means that the sources of the milk supply are fully tested as recommended by the federal government; that the equipment for handling the milk both at the dairy farms and at the pasteurizing plant is strictly modern; that the health of the milk handlers is tested; and that the bottled milk is properly handled from the plant to the consumer.

The GRADE A label is the milk user's guarantee of pure, safe milk. The label means a lot more than many persons realize. It involves requirements that only a limited number of dairies have been able to meet. You can see for yourself exactly what the GRADE A label means by visiting the Gilt Edge Plant at Highway 77 and Eufaula street in Norman. You are welcome to go through the plant and see exactly what is done to earn this certification. After you do that, you'll appreciate more than ever that GRADE A label on the milk from your home dairy plant.

JUNE, 1939

Protection!

1. Testing of Cows. All herds from which Gilt Edge Grade A milk is obtained are tested for bang's disease and bovine tuberculosis.

2. Modern Equipment. The Milk handling equipment both at the dairy farms and at the pasteurizing plant is installed and maintained in accordance with terms of the federal standard ordinance.

3. Healthy Personnel. Individuals handling the milk are required to have certificates of good health from a physician.

4. Pasteurization. Scientific heat treatment of milk, carefully controlled, which specifically destroys any of certain disease organisms that might be present.

5. Bottling. Gilt Edge milk is placed in bottles by modern, scientific equipment.

6. Delivery. Gilt Edge milk bottles are capped with special DACRO caps that protect the milk from the hotting machine to the hands of the consumer.

The DACRO sealed-on cap protects the pouring lip and also makes it possible to use a smooth bottle neck with no inside cap seat.

Pasteurization is important for other dairy products as well as milk. Look for the name GILT EDGE on products such as butter, buttermilk, cottage cheese, coffee cream, chocolate milk and other similar items to be sure that you get the health protection afforded by pasteurization.

The ice cream season is definitely here, and the GILT EDGE plant offers a big variety of delicious flavors of ice cream including fresh fruit flavors in season. Many Norman people are getting in the habit of taking advantage of the convenient curb service at the plant on Highway 77 and Eufaula street. Ice cream is sold at the plant at the low price of 25 cents a quart. (Some people prefer hand-packed ice cream, which is sold at 35 cents at the plant.) Sodas, sundaes, splits and malts also are available at the plant on a curb service basis.

Ice cream is a healthful food for both children and adults. The GILT EDGE brand, although inexpensive, is made from a thoroughly wholesome formula that is gladly explained to visitors at the plant.

Be Ready for the Kickoff!

Already, Sooner football fans are talking about the 1939 season, and the interesting prospects for some pretty swell gridiron battles. Spring practice revealed that the Sooners have some fine new talent to try out this fall, as well as some colorful veterans whose merit is already well known to the fans.

It's several months until the first kickoff, but the time to get ready for it is right now—by placing your order for a season ticket reservation. After all, it's not much fun to have to watch a big game from the farthest corners of the Stadium. With season ticket orders coming in like they have for the last couple of months, the good seats won't last long.

Better drop a letter or card to Bill Cross at the Fieldhouse and tell him to put you down for one or more season tickets and pick out the best location still available.

Season ticket buyers get first choice of seats—so get your order in early and avoid disappointment!
