1912: Girls Basketball Team Spirited

Blocker girls of the athletic variety crowded the varsity off the front page in the 1912 Umpire.

"A clean sweep in basketball has been adopted as the slogan for the Oklahoma University girls' basketball team. An unusually large number of returning players are adding pep and spirit to the team. The fact that a Varsity letter is now given to representatives of the Crimson and Cream in basketball has much to do with the increased interest being taken in the sport.

"Among last year's players who are still in the game are: Lottie Bohrer, Norman, this year's captain; Lucille Robey, Davison, manager; Josephine Lawhead, Eagleton, and Jennie Tolbert of Hobart."

"An order to refund $7 apiece to the graduates of the University of Oklahoma Law school who took the last bar examination was issued Tuesday by the Supreme Court of the state on the motion of Albert E. 1922: Jazzbelles Taken to Task

The "Oklahoma Daily" stated in its lead story that:

"November 13 to 17 will be Stadium Week, said Dick Cloyd manager for the Oklahoma Stadium drive committee. At this time every member of the faculty and every student who has not yet subscribed to the fund will be solicited to give his limit on the proposition to build a giant athletic arena for the Sooner teams, Cloyd said."

The student sheet reported that the University was concerned with the "Take Care of My Little Girl" angle back when, "under a new rule of the Chaperone committee of the Woman's council, no girl student may attend an out-of-town football game except under chaperone approved by the advisor of women."

"All the same our opinion of a jazzbelle who bones a book of shows, eats, drinks, dances, whatnots and then has the nerve to try and split a date on him is just that. And while we're on the subject, why not put the orchestras under the control of the athletic department. As musicians, some of 'em would make good piano movers."

1942: Frontier Week And Scarcity of Help

From the November 1942 Sooner Magazine column “Student Life” is the “come on” to Homecoming:

“As a gang prelude to Homecoming November 14, plans were shaping up last month for a Frontier Week emphasizing a strictly western theme and sponsored by the Student Activities Board of the Oklahoma Memorial Union.

“Plaid shirts and cowboy regalia were specified by the board as appropriate dress for the special week which will begin November 9 and continue through the Homecoming football game with Missouri the following Saturday.”

And as for jobs, the students never had it so good.

“Abundance of jobs and increased salaries for defense work created something of an employment problem at the University this fall with students blithely turning down the more menial tasks for available white collar jobs.

“The Union and Campus Corner stores faced difficulty in securing student waiters and soda jerkers. Boarding houses which use students for kitchen help found it practically impossible to get anyone to work for room and board. Most students have positions at the Naval Air Bases near Norman.”

tempted 15, 9 completed for 177 yards and two touchdowns.

Vessels: Rushing, 266 yards in 48 carries; Kickoffs returned, 6 for 90 yards; Punt runbacks, 2 for 56; Passing, attempted 4, two completed for 54 yards.

Leake: Rushing, 146 yards on 35 carries; Passing, attempted 9 and completed 3 for 61 yards and a touchdown; Punt receiving, 5 for 102 yards and a touchdown; Kickoff returns, 4 for 69 yards.

McPhail: Rushing, 412 yards on 55 carries; Punting, 12 for a 37.3 average.

Leading O.U. scorers: Leake 46 points on 5 touchdowns and 16 points after touchdown (he has set a new O.U. record for consecutive conversions—16 without a miss); Vessels 24 points on 4 touchdowns, and McPhail 19 points on 3 touchdowns and 1 point after touchdown.

From these figures it should be clear that the backfield is one of the most versatile foursomes O.U. has ever fielded. Comparisons with backfields of other years, including 1949's lineup of Royal, Thomas, Pearson and Heath, show this year's crop in a favorable light. Many people believe it to be the best backfield in the nation.

Defensively, the team has given up 61 points in three games. Considered too many for a Wilkinson team by fans' standards. The problem, if it is one, is within range of...
