O.U.'s 126

Life Memberships in the Alumni association stand at one hundred twenty-six. The number of men and women who have become active in the association and subscribers to the magazine for a lifetime is ever increasing.

The class of 1914, 1912 and 1920 remain at the top of the list for total Life Memberships. A number of the classes are showing increases in the membership rank. The association finds its group of active men and women ever gaining as the years pass.

A Life Membership costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

A Life Membership carries with it a life subscription to The Sooner Magazine. It assists the association in the publication of the magazine and the quarterly bulletin. Among the multiple activities of the association are: maintains alumni files; maintains a teachers placement bureau; stimulates Alumni club activities; plans and directs Homecoming, Commencement and Class Reunions; maintains alumni headquarters in club activities; plans and directs Homecoming, Commencement and Class Reunions; maintains alumni headquarters in the Oklahoma Union; and plans and directs alumni projects.
