"Dear Ted:

"I visited in Norman last year in August and never suffered so much—the heat was almost unbearable. This year I went to Canada. At Banff I had the pleasure of visiting with some of the Cossiderable square miles in size. No, we didn't suffer with the heat last year, when we visited in Oklahoma. "It was only a little ways up so he could retire next year to a more leisurely diamond at the old-timers in a very interesting way. Keep up the good work.

"Yes, I have been away from Norman for 40 years but still received from the Mgazine regularly and enjoy every issue. You are doing a grand job, Ted. "Riding the Sooner Range" has kept us interested in Soonertopics in a very interesting way. Keep up the good work.

"Most sincerely, Zola Zuck Garrett.

Paul W. Reed, '16, commissioner of public safety, was appointed by Gov. Roy J. Turner recently to become top coordinator of public and private relief agencies in the event of another disaster such as Woodward or Lecedy tornadoes. The Red Cross had recommended the designation of the safety commissioner as a disaster relief coordinator. The safety department would be responsible for furnishing headquarters for all relief agencies at a disaster scene. The governor outlined the responsibilities involved in the event a state of emergency is declared.

Milton Monroe Maynard, '08a, is now beginning his 39th year in Monmouth College, and his 40th year out of the University of Oklahoma. It is also his 40th year as a regular teacher in the Monmouth Union Military Academy, 1908-1909, and in Monmouth College. Mr. Maynard has three children, all married, and five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. One daughter married a Presbyterian minister, now pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York. The other daughter is the wife of a high school teacher in Hopewell, Virginia. His son is Lt. Col. Milton Maynard, M.D., U.S.N., now stationed at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland. It will be 40 years next year since Mr. Maynard graduated from the University of Oklahoma and taught in the first summer school of O. U. He has not been in Norman since, but wrote recently to find out how many of the class of '08 will meet there next June. "Put the proposition up to Tom Carey, Arthur Wolfe, Frank Long, and Jesse Rader," Mr. Maynard said in his letter.

"I wonder if Mrs. Fannie Simpson Rader remembers when I taught her arithmetic, and if Mrs. Guy Williams can remember my request, she awakened me in class with a pin?"

"Mrs. Lena Corn Keator, '08a, is now making her home in Oklahoma City. Previously she had been living in Tuscarawas, New Mexico.

"Dear Mr. Beard:

"My husband, Bob Garrett, '12a, died on March 4th of this year. He was stricken with a heart attack, stricken down near Paris, Texas. Bob had been in the sand and a farmer came to his assistance. After Bob got the car on solid ground, he said "It is only a little ways down to the farm house where I'm going, and I believe I will just walk." They said he walked about a hundred yards and then fell to the ground, death being instantaneous. He was buried here in Tulsa on March 7th in Rose Hill Mausoleum. He had just reached his 59th birthday on February 15th and was trying to get all the loose ends cleared up so he could retire next year to a more leisurely life.

"Of course it was a terrific shock to me, even though he had been seriously ill in 1941 from a heart attack at the office and took almost a year out of his business. As he got to feeling better he gradually began again and anyone active in the oil business has so many irons in the fire.

"I have traveled with him so much since our marriage in 1920 (June 15th)—Jerry Newby was our best man. Especially in the past four years when he has not been so well. However, I just had not gone on that particular day and I am still grateful about that.

"How grateful I am though for the years of companionship I have enjoyed with Bob. I can truly say he has been the greatest inspiration in my life. His thoughtfulness, especially about little things, was amazing. He was a man whom both women and men admired and liked sincerely. He was proud of his alma mater, O. U., and very loyal to its memory. If things ever work out so I can, I hope to have some kind of a memorial for him down there—something that will be alive and keep on helping someone to help themselves, which was his idea of doing good. He is missed by many, who have told me of kindnesses and deeds all along the pathway of his life, and I feel very proud that I had the privilege of being his wife. The void in my life can never be filled. I can only hope to try to carry on with all that he had to stop. I am present acting as executrix of his estate and am keeping the office.

"Most sincerely, Zola Zuck Garrett.

Jesse Rader, "Mr. Maynard said in his letter. "I believe I will just walk." They said he walked about a hundred yards and then fell to the ground, death being instantaneous. He was buried here in Tulsa on March 7th in Rose Hill Mausoleum.
