Here and There With Sooners

News of the Breadwinners by Classes

Marriages

Wentz-Healey

An event of interest to university students was the marriage of Miss Dorothy Wentz, ex-'28 to Burke Healey, January 24. The wedding took place in Del Monte, California. Mrs. Healey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Wentz, of Los Angeles, and the niece of Lew Wentz, of Ponca City. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Healey is associated with the John Deere Plow Co. of Kansas City, Missouri, where he and Mrs. Healey will make their home. They went to Honolulu for a wedding trip, and will return to Kansas City about the middle of March.

Kramer-Black

Kramer-Williams

Of unusual interest to Sooner alumni is the double wedding of Miss Catherine Elizabeth Kramer, ex-'26, and Stephen Ames Black, of Los Angeles, and of Miss Clara Adams Kramer, ex-'26 and Thurman Hurd Williams, jr., '26 law. The double ceremony took place February 21 in the First Presbyterian church, of Tulsa. Mrs. Black and Mrs. Williams are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kramer, of Tulsa. They received their college education at Ward-Belmont college in Nashville, Tennessee, and at the University of Oklahoma. They are members of Delta Delta Delta. Mr. Black who is the son of Mrs. Ada F. Black, is a graduate of the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi. Mr. Williams, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Hurd Williams of Chickasha, attended the University of the South at Sewanee, as well as the University of Oklahoma. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Williams-Eckles

The wedding of Miss Joyce Madeleine Williams, ex-'16, and George R. Eckles was an event of January 28, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams, of Holdenville. Mrs. Eckles is a graduate of Stephens college, Columbia, Missouri, where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Eckles is the son of Mrs. George R. Eckles and the late Doctor Eckles, of Holdenville. He is a graduate of Hendrix college, Conway, Arkansas. Mr. and Mrs. Eckles spent a week in Dallas, Texas, following their marriage, and returned to Holdenville where they have made their home. Mr. Eckles is associated with the First National Bank of Holdenville.

Holt-Bell

Miss Ida Holt, '21 arts-sc., was married last summer, August 18, to Madison Bell of Fort Worth. Before her marriage Mrs. Bell taught in the Arkansas City high school, Arkansas City, Kansas, and formerly in Muncie, Indiana. Bell, who is now head football coach at Texas Christian University, will succeed Dana X. Bible as athletic director and head football coach of Texas A. and M. next year. Mrs. Bell's present address is 3208 Cockrell avenue, Fort Worth, Texas. She and Mr. Bell will reside at College Station, Bryan, Texas next year.

Freeman-Robbins

The marriage of Miss Mildred Freeman, '26 arts-sc., to James O. Robbins, of Seminole, took place at Pauls Valley, January 26. Mrs. Robbins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Freeman of Pauls Valley. She attended Randolph-Macon college at Lynchburg, Virginia, before she entered the University of Oklahoma. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta, and was head of the Norman chapter for two years. For the last two years she has taught in the Cush- ing high school. She formerly taught at Pauls Valley. Mr. Robbins is a graduate of the University of West Virginia and is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa. He is engaged in the oil business at Seminole where he and Mrs. Robbins will reside.

Day-Boddie

An event of interest in university circles was the wedding of Miss Myra Day, '30 educ., and Melville F. Boddie, '31 law, which took place Sunday, February 10, at Pants Valley, Oklahoma. Miss Day, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Day, of Tulsa, is a graduate of Stephens college, Columbia, Missouri. She is a pledge of Chi Omega. Mr. Boddie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Boddie, of Oklahoma City. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. Mr. and Mrs. Boddie are residing in Norman and will continue their education in the university.

Births

A potential Sooner born January 30, is Betty Loraine Oakes, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oakes, of Manhattan, Kansas. Betty Loraine was born in McAlester. Her father, Herbert Oakes, '26 eng.

College Memories Linger On

YOU ENDURED EVERY "WHACK" of the initiation. You won your "spurs" as did the knights of old—That was in the days of long ago but the memories linger on. Perhaps the treasured pin won in connection with this event is GONE.

Lost for ever?

Not necessarily so. It may be duplicated at wholesale price at Letzeiser's, JEWELRY MANUFACTURERS FOR NATIONAL AND LOCAL FRATERNITIES—Buy your jewelry in Oklahoma. Come in and actually see the pins, rings and brooches before you buy.

LETZEISER & CO.
Manufacturers of fine jewelry
303 Hightower Building
Main and Hudson
Oklahoma City, Okla.

You've Won Your Spurs
Harold Durnell
Harold Durnell, ex-'19, was asphyxiated in his home at Wichita Falls, Texas, Saturday, January 16. He was employed as Texas sales manager for the Union Machine Co. of Bartlesville. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Durnell, of Bartlesville. He was twenty-eight years old at the time of his death. The funeral service was held at Bartlesville, February 19.

Deaths
Tom McCombs
Tom McCombs, '13 law, died January 17, in Oklahoma City, as the result of cerebral hemorrhage, following an illness of about three weeks. He was engaged in the practice of law at Sallisaw, Oklahoma, and served in the house of representatives for two years, as representative from Sequoyah county. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lolly McComb, two sisters, Mrs. Vane McClure, of Muskogee, Mrs. Spurgeon Benson, of Shawnee, and his step-mother, Mrs. Jessie McComb, of Sallisaw. Mr. McComb was a member of Beta Theta Pi. He was forty years old at the time of his death. Burial was in Muskogee.

Harold Durnell
Harold Durnell, ex-'19, was asphyxiated in his home at Wichita Falls, Texas, Saturday, January 16. He was employed as Texas sales manager for the Union Machine Co. of Bartlesville. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Durnell, of Bartlesville. He was twenty-eight years old at the time of his death. The funeral service was held at Bartlesville, February 19.

News of the Breadwinners
1899
Lawrence W. Cole, '99 arts-sc., is a professor of psychology at the University of Colorado at Boulder.

1906
A. Martin Kingkade, '06 arts-sc., another one of the early day graduates, is treasurer of the Kingkade Hotel Co. in Oklahoma City.

1908
Arthur W. Tribbey, '08 pharm., owns and manages a drug business in Maud, Oklahoma.

1909
Robert L. Hickman, '09 pharm., almost twenty years after his graduation from the University of Oklahoma, is still a resident of the Sooner state. Hickman is owner of Hickman's drug store at Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

1910
Lloyd B. Curtis, '08 sc., '10 eng., is metal mining secretary-treasurer for the mining research bureau at Boulder, Colorado.

1911
E. Marvin Castleberry, '11 arts-sc., (M. A. '15), is professor of sociology at Oklahoma City university.

Dr. J. W. Francis, M. D. '11, is engaged in the practice of medicine at Perry, Oklahoma. Doctor Francis was formerly located at Arkansas City, Kansas.

James Leo Honsh, '11 pharm., is a salesman for the Parke-Paris and Co., Kansas City, Missouri. His address, however, is Box 344, St Joseph, Missouri.

1912
J. O. Colburn, '12 arts-sc., is editor of the Oklahoma Country Life, a publication for those interested in farming. Colburn lives at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

1913
Mrs. Ola Forbes Wickham, '13 arts-sc., owns an art studio in Norman.

J. W. (Fred) Capshaw '13 arts-sc., chairman of the Oklahoma Corporation Commission, addressed the Faculty Forum February 20 on "Workings of the Corporation Commission." Capshaw, formerly of Norman, used to play football on the Norman high school team. When he was enrolled in the university Capshaw was one of the memorable halfbacks on Sooner grid teams.

Weaver E. Holland, '13 sc., is sales manager for the Dallas Power and Light Co., Dallas, Texas.

1914

Dr. Albert C. Hirshfield, '14 sc., takes time out to write "Very busy" on his card to the alumni association. This brief message gives an adequate description of the life of a successful physician, such as Dr. Hirshfield has become. His practice is located in Oklahoma City.

Walter Glenn Helmick, '14 arts-sc., is secretary to the President-Alexander Industries, Inc., Colorado Springs, Colorado. He writes that a few of the University of Oklahoma alumni who reside in the Centennial state occasionally attend a Rocky Mountain conference football game, and go home with the pardonable feeling that the Missouri Valley teams play better football.

1915

Hill Anglea, '15 law., has stayed with the profession he chose while in the university for over ten years. He is now a well-established lawyer, and is located in Oklahoma City.

Dr. James J. Gable, '15 M. D., is assistant superintendent for the Central State hospital at Norman.

John P. Toberman, '15 law, is practicing law in Buffalo, New York.

Louis Harley Hoskins, '15 arts-se., is an orange grower and is located at Anaheim, California. For Hoskins' occupation the climate must need to be all that the native sons would have it.

Walter Odro Cralle, '15 arts-sc., is head of the department of sociology and economics at Southwestern State Teachers' college at Springfield, Missouri.

1916

Mrs. James J. Hill, '16 arts-se., sends a card from Champaign, Illinois where she now resides. Mrs. Hill was Miss Katherine Barr, '16 arts-se. James J. Hill, her husband, '15 arts-se., was formerly a professor of languages at the Oklahoma Military academy, Claremore, Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have two sons and one daughter.

L. W. Kibler, '16 arts-se., (M. A. '17), though his own college career is finished, is still connected with the University of Oklahoma. He is manager of the post-graduate dental and Mr. O. D. Harris!

Congratulations as a Builder of Nine of Norman's Beautiful Fraternity and Sorority Homes

This is only proper that we extend congratulations to Mr. O. D. Harris, superintendent of the McAlester Construction Company and veteran builder of beautiful, comfortable and durable fraternity and sorority homes, as he breaks ground for his ninth building here since his arrival two and one-half years ago. The new Pi Kappa Alpha home is now under construction.

Mr. Harris' reputation as maker of fraternal homes has grown by leaps and bounds with the completion of each new home, and we feel pleased with the thought that we have furnished all of these buildings and feel that our reputation has grown, as substantial building material furnishers, with that of Mr. Harris as a dependable builder.

Fraternal homes built by Mr. Harris are as follows:

- Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity
- Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority
- Kappa Alpha Fraternity
- Delta Gamma Sorority
- Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity
- Delta Tau Delta Fraternity
- Chi Omega Sorority
- Delta Upsilon Fraternity
- Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity

"WE ARE ALL GOOD INDIANS"

Chickasaw Lumber Company

"The Home of Homes"

JAMES DRAUGHON, Manager
NORMAN
JOHN CARLOCK, President
medical study of the extension division of the university. Kibler married Miss Lois Harris, '16 arts-sc., and they reside at Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Lottie Taylor Holland, '16 arts-sc., is residing in Anthony, Kansas. Mrs. Holland’s home was formerly at Enid.

Dr. F. T. Gastineau, '16 sc., M. D., '18, is engaged in the practice of medicine at the eastern Oklahoma state hospital at Winona, Oklahoma.

1917

In case you’re looking for thrills here is a breath-taker: Lieutenant Julian Haddon, ex-'17, recently fell six miles from the blue above Dayton, Ohio, and saved himself by a parachute jump out of his burning plane before the crash. Nothing daunted, this fearless Sooner will attempt to set an altitude record. Haddox enlisted in the army air service in 1917 when America entered the war. Later he was commander at Brooks Field, Houston, Texas, and was afterwards transferred to San Antonio, California, and the Philippine Islands.

Miss Florence Keller, '17 arts-sc., (M. A. '19) teaches in the high school at Covington, Oklahoma.

Harry C. Hicks, ex-'17, is engaged in the practice of law at Hollis, Oklahoma. Hicks was formerly county judge of Harmon county.

Cecil Hickman, '17 arts-sc., is president and manager of the Fort Worth Battery Co., Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Hickman, was formerly Miss Eurith Holt, '19 arts-sc.

Dr. D. J. Harrington, '17 M. D., is engaged in the practice of medicine at Cushing, Oklahoma.

1918

Thomas E. Graham, '18 arts-sc., '18 sc., is an electrical engineer with the Oklahoma Gas & Electric Co. in Oklahoma City.

Justin Hinshaw, '18 law, practices his profession in the university city. He is located at 734 Jenkins, Norman, Oklahoma.

Noble F. Hilsmeier, '18 pharm., '20 sc., is with the Rexall Drug store at Norman, Oklahoma.

Miss Elizabeth Jane King, '18 mus., finds practical use for her sheepskin in her position as director of music at the Roosevelt junior high school in Oklahoma City.

B. J. Hoar, '18 arts-sc., is superintendent of consolidated school number one, Tipton, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Frances Buchanan Toombs, '18 mus., resides at 6756 Oglesby avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

L. B. Holland, '18 sc., is a production engineer for the Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Holland was formerly located at Bradford, Pennsylvania.

1919

Miss Mary Loretta Trout, '19 arts-sc., is secretary to J. Henry Johnson, manager of the National Life Insurance Co., Oklahoma City.

Garner G. Collums, '19 arts-sc., acts as financial secretary for the Oklahoma College for Women at Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Miss Hassie C. Evatt, '19 arts-sc., is a teacher of mathematics in the Central High school at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

1920

Dr. M. M. Wickham, M. A. '20, M. D. '26, is engaged in the practice of medicine in Norman.

Miss Sue B. Thornton, '20 sc., '21 mus., heads the department of music at Northeastern State Teachers College, Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Miss Fannie Glenn, '20 arts-sc., teaches history in the high school at Hugo, Oklahoma.

1921

Dr. Ben H. Cooley, '21 med., begins his eighth consecutive term as secretary-treasurer of the Cleveland County Medical association, this year. He was re-elected to the office February 15. Doctor Cooley gave a talk concerning diabetes at the meeting of the association, February 21.

1922

Dr. Dora D. Wildman, '22 sc., (M. D. '26), is engaged in the practice of medicine in Oklahoma City.

Thomas D. Wilbanks, '22 law, holds the office of county judge for Hughes county, and is located at Holdenville, Oklahoma.

John M. Lydick, '22 arts-sc., has become business manager for the Welch-Luke Inc., and is located in the Shops building, Oklahoma City.

SECURITY NATIONAL BANK

Resources over $1,250,000.00

We are prepared, thru our trust department, to act as trustees in the issuance of bonds for construction of Fraternity homes.

We invite your inquiries.

NORMAN
1923

Dr. John Page Houston, '23 arts-sc., is a dentist, and is located at Floresville, Texas.

Lynn A. Horton, '23 law, is an adjuster and special agent for the Universal Auto Insurance Co., Oklahoma City.

1924

Mary McKinney, '24 arts-sc., is city editor of the Wewoka Times Democrat. She previously worked on the Times Dispatch of Richmond, Virginia and the Pawhuska Journal Capital.

G. C. Higginbotham, '24 eng., has become a member of the teaching profession, and is located at Hominy, Oklahoma.

Charles B. Hickok, '24 law, is engaged in the practice of law and is a member of the firm, Kienzle and Hickok which is located at Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Miss Catherine Holman, '24 arts-sc., is an instructor in the department of English at the University of Oklahoma.

1925

Raymond R. Duvall, '25 arts-sc., '28 law, is a member of a new law firm organized at Hobart, Oklahoma.

Other members of the firm are Judge James R. Tolbert, formerly a district judge, and a member of the house of representatives, and his son, Miles G. Tolbert, '21 arts-sc., '23 law. Duval was one of the eight graduates of the University of Oklahoma to make an A-grade during the entire four year course in the college of arts and sciences. He is a member of Kappa Sigma.

Miss Grace Edith Gatewood, '28, arts-sc., is deaconess for the First Methodist church in Shreveport, Louisiana.

R. E. Thornton, '25 eng., is resident engineer for the central division of the Oklahoma Gas & Electric Co., at Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

1926

William Burny Thompson, '26 arts-sc., is a grocer with the Muskie Associated Stores at Altus, Oklahoma.

Miss Emma Landon, '26 arts-sc., has left the teaching profession to become stenographer for the Travelers Insurance Co., Oklahoma City.

A. B. Gross, '26 geol., follows his chosen profession, geology, and is located at Russell, Kansas. Gross is employed by the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil Co.

1927

Mrs. Dick Jones, formerly Miss Ida Belle Seitz, '27 phys. ed., is teaching a series of physical education classes for women in the Okemah hotel at Okemah. Mrs. Jones served as student instructor in physical education in Stephens college at Columbia, Missouri, for a year, and acted as assistant instructor at the University of Oklahoma for two years. Mrs. Jones is Miss Blanche Naomi Johnson, '27 arts-sc., is manager of the Casa Loma hotel at Tulsa.

1928

Miss Aileen Adams, '28 arts-sc., is a partner in the Crescent Publishing Co., at Crescent, Oklahoma.

Miss Emma Landon, '28, arts-sc., is deaconess for the First Methodist church in Shreveport, Louisiana.

1929

Those who attended the alumni dinner are: President W. B. Bizzell, E. O. Shaw, ex-'28, of Henryetta; D. D. Kirkland, ex-'28, of Burbank; Mrs. D. D. Kirkland, ex-'28, also of Burbank; G. P. Wild, ex-'28, of Webb City; Dr. E. E. Dale, '11 arts-sc., professor of history and acting dean of the graduate school of the University of Oklahoma; Miss Floy V. Elliott, '17 arts-sc., of Tulsa; Morris L. Wardell, '19 arts-sc., acting dean of men of the university; Miss Arda F. Evans, '23 sc., of Lawton; Miss Lily F. Stafford, '19 arts-sc., of Lawton; John B. Mitchell, '15 arts-sc., of Oklahoma City; Miss Clara Meyer, '14 arts-sc., Guy A. Lackey, '18 arts-sc., of Stillwater; and Mrs. Lackey, '17 arts-sc.; Miss Helen A. Norris, '10 arts-sc., of Oklahoma City; Miss Jessie D. Newby, M. A., '25; A. M. Gober, '23 arts-sc., M. A., '27; of Oklahoma City; O. R. Harris, graduate student of Sayre; Dr. Ellsworth Collings, dean of the school of education of the university; John T. Heffey, '01 arts-sc., of Ponca City; Bryan Griffin, '22 arts-sc., of Lawton; Miss Iris M. Baughman, '17 arts-sc., of Oklahoma City; Miss Virginia K. Sage, '26 arts-sc., of Apache; Mrs. Jerry B. Newby (Edna Cash Newby), '15 arts-sc., of Oklahoma City; George C. Wells, '23 educ., of Oklahoma City; T. M. Beard, '21 arts-sc., director of town and country service of the extension division of the university; Harry D. Simmons, '24 arts-sc., of Wewoka; Miss Marjorie Pettit, '31 arts-sc., of Apache; and Ralph E. Stoffelbach, '25, of Barnsdall.

The plumbing installed in the following five new fraternities, built and moved into this school year, was handled by Fischer & Son: Phi Mu Sorority, Beta Theta Phi Fraternity, Delta Gamma Sorority, Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, and Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority.

M. F. FISCHER & SON
Plumbing, Heating and Gas Fitting
Phone 73 116 N. Peters
Norman