GOLDEN DAYS—Photographs from the Roy E. Heffner Collection: Heffner noted that this couple were "Frosh Prexy, Frosh Queen—1932," but mentioned no names. Can you help identify them, as well as some of the frosh behind them? (O.U.'s male-female ratio was bad in those days also.)
Announcements of the 1958 All-American Swim Team included two O.U. alumni—Jeff Farrell, '58ba, and Dick Thatcher, '58ba. Farrell is pictured above with scroll and trophy, and Alumni secretary, Miss Judy Scherer. Three other Sooners still in school were named as members of the top team.

a series of brief news stories of events that shaped the lives of the alumni family

1917

Mrs. John Lynch, the former Clio Vest, '17fa, was recently honored by Lindsay high school students and other friends for her long service as music teacher at Lindsay high school. She has taught there since graduating from O.U. She has also been organist for Christian and Baptist churches since that time.

1919

Maurice H. Merrill, '19ba, '22Law, and Howard L. Brockman, '36ba, '36Law, participated in a two-day short course on oil and gas law held at the University of Illinois November 20 and 21. Professor Merrill, O.U. College of Law, spoke on "Implied Covenants." Brockman is counsel for the Calvert Drilling Company, Olney, Illinois, and he discussed "Oil and Gas Securities Regulation." The short course was presented by the University of Illinois College of Law as part of its Continuing Legal Education program.

1920

Muriel Wright, '20, editor of The Chronicles of Oklahoma, and George Shirk, '35ba, '36Law, have combined their talents to edit and compile a brochure, "Mark of Heritage," describing what is behind the historical markers in the state of Oklahoma. The pamphlet is being published by the Oklahoma Historical Society.

Mrs. Dollie Radler Hall, '20ba, '21irn, and T. E. Weirich, '22geol, were given honorary memberships in the Tulsa Geological Society recently. Mrs. Hall, former senior geologist for Amerada Petroleum Corporation, now is an independent geologist. She is the first woman geologist to be so recognized by the Tulsa Geological Society. Weirich, a native of White City, Kansas, is assistant manager of Phillips Petroleum Company's land and geological department in the Osage County area.

1921

1922

DEATH: John Pugh, '22ba, veteran clerk of the U. S. district court, died at a hospital in Muskogee, November 16. Pugh, 61, clerk of the eastern Oklahoma district court since 1941, once worked in the state auditor's office and the state tax commission, and coached football at Geary and Broken Arrow high schools. He played basketball for O.U.

1924

Grace Chadwick, '24fa, '48mfa, retired as supervisor of art for the Oklahoma City schools after 45 years in the school system. She was head of the art department at Central high school before taking over supervisory duties in 1944. Miss Chadwick plans to teach private art classes.

Martin W. Cunningham, '24, is now House commerce committee staff consultant, Washington, D. C. He has been on the staff three years.

1925

A. L. Solliday, '25geol, was recently elected president of Pan American Petroleum Corporation. Solliday joined the Dixie Company, a predecessor of Pan American, in 1923 as a geologist. He became executive vice-president of Stanolind Oil and Gas Company in 1947 and kept this position when Stanfill took the Pan American name in 1957.

1926

DEATH: Alex E. White, '26, legal assistant to State Supreme Court Justice Denver Davidson the past 12 years, died at his home November 23 following a heart attack. White, 54, studied law at O.U. and practiced at Poteau and served as Le-Flore county attorney. He moved to Oklahoma City in 1946 when he became legal assistant to Davidson. Surviving are his wife, Bertha Mae; two daughters, Mrs. Ronald Ilamond and Mrs. John C. Wood, and a son, Robert.

1927

R. F. Barry, '27, Law, state tax commission counsel for the last 11 years, has resigned to become legal assistant to William A. Berry, who will be sworn in as a State Supreme Court justice. Barry engaged in private practice principally in Oklahoma City until he became Tax Commission counsel in 1947.

1928

Miss Eunice Lewis, '28a, '39ma, supervisor of mathematics and an assistant professor of education at O.U.'s University School, has received a $4,000 grant to participate in a mathematics experimental program at the University of Illinois. Miss Lewis will assist in writing materials to be used in the experimental program, and, upon completion of the course, she will return to serve as a consultant to Oklahoma schools in favor of adopting the teaching methods advocated by the Illinois research committee.

1929

Frank L. Dennis, '29a, has accepted a position as assistant to the president of the American Petroleum Institute. He was formerly director of the press and publication service of the U. S. Information Service. Married to the former Katherine Wright of Miami, Oklahoma, the couple has one son.

DEATH: Chester C. Beaird, '29m.ed, died November 15 in Norman as a result of a auto accident that occurred near Chickasha on November 14. Beaird, 62, was president of the Norman Real Estate Board. A life member of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity and a member of the Baptist Church, Beaird is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Brazil, Sacramento, California.

1930

Dr. Ross McLaury Taylor, '30a, '33ma, is author of We Were There on the Chisholm Trail, historical adventure story for children. Selected by the Young People's Book Club of America, the book is published by Grosset and Dunlap, New York. Taylor, head of the department of American civilization at the University of Wichita, Wichita, Kansas, is the author of two other historical novels for adults. He received the doctor of philosophy degree in letters from the State University of Iowa, Iowa City.

1931

Lt. Col. Bert K. Smith, Jr., '31bus, and Col. Floyd H. Norris, '35Law, recently participated in "Leger 55," an annual Army logistical maneuver conducted at Fort Lee, Virginia. A member of the Army Reserve, Colonel Smith is regularly manager of building and rental properties in the Bewley Building, Fort Worth, Texas. He is married to the former Martha Hamill, '32a. Colonel Norris and Mrs. Norris (the former Martha Buntin, '31ma) live in Los Angeles, California.

1932

John Conrad, '32pharm, was recently elected president of the Oklahoma Pharmaceutical Association for the coming year. Conrad lives in Midwest City.

1933

Harry C. Jordan, '33ba, '38ma, is now general manager of the newly-formed Phillips Quimica, S. A. de C. V., a subsidiary of the Phillips Chemical Company. Jordan is responsible for overseeing warehouse stocks of Phillips' chemical fertilizers which are maintained at various places for easier distribution to customers. Jordan has been assigned to Mexico since December, 1955.

1934

Dr. B. T. Brundluge, '34ma, '36md, has been appointed a member of the State Board of Health. His term, which began in June, will expire June 30, 1962. Born in Thomas, Dr. Brundluge has practiced medicine there for the past 20 years.

John M. Houchin, '34ba, vice-president and a director of Phillips Petroleum Company, was recently elected a member of the company's executive committee. Houchin, who started with Phillips in 1933 in the Oklahoma City production department, is primarily responsible for the production and foreign departments.

1935

George Shirk, '35ba, '36Law, Oklahoma City attorney, was recently named president of the Oklahoma City Safety Council. Shirk was elevated from vice-president.

Ben H. Crowley, '35eng, is one of the owners of Brook Plaza Shopping Center, Tulsa, and serves the company as vice-president. Crowley has served on the Tulsa Metropolitan Planning Commission for the past seven years. He has been active in development and building in Tulsa since 1949.

DEATH: Mrs. Mary Jo Enos, '35ma, died November 4 at Mercy hospital, Oklahoma City, as a result of a traffic accident. A school nurse, Mrs. Enos was reared at Davis. She was a member of the Registered Nurses Association and attended the Second Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her husband, G. R. Enos, a daughter, Mary Alice, and twin sons, Bill and Bob, all of the home.

1936

J. R. Barsalou, Jr., '36ma, '36eng, recently completed a program for senior executives at Massachusetts Institute of Technology's School of Industrial Management. He is assistant process superintendent at Humble Oil & Refining Company's Baytown, Texas, refinery. Barsalou and his wife have four sons and two daughters.

J. L. Maher, '36eng, is one of the founders of a new firm, Crest Engineering Company, Tulsa. Maher was formerly assistant chief engineer of National Tank Company.

Wade A. Eskridge, '36eng, president of the Eskridge Engineering Company, Tulsa, was elected president of The Engineers Club of Tulsa recently. Eskridge manufactures gear cases for truck and equipment manufacturers.

DEATH: Harold J. Sharp, '36ma, died November 24 in St. Anthony hospital, Oklahoma City, from injuries resulting from a fall. Sharp, 57, taught in Oklahoma City schools since 1925 and had been at Harding high school since 1928. He is survived by his wife, Dorothy; a daughter, Marjorie, and two sons, Gary and Donald.

1937

Lawrence H. Robinson, '37ma, State Department of agriculture official, will head the agency's public information service. In his new job he will serve as collaborator for the Oklahoma crop and reporting service, a joint operation of the department and the U. S. department of agriculture marketing service.

Robert E. Lyon, '37ba, '55ma, has joined the faculty of Central State college where he teaches physics and chemistry. Lyon, previously with the Oklahoma City school system, recently attended an eight-weeks course at Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies in Tennessee. The fellowship was made available by the Physical Science Study committee, a national academic nonprofit group. Lyon was named by the Oklahoma Society of Professional Engineers as one of the outstanding science teachers in Oklahoma in 1957.

L. Donald Pilkington, Jr., '37bus, Tulsa, was elected president of the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants. He is a partner in the accounting firm of Warner, Godfrey and Company.

1938

Tom F. Carey, Jr., '38bus, '40Law, Tulsa, has been elected president of Lucey Products Corporation. The organization specializes in service to the domestic appliance industry. Carey joined Lucey Products as assistant to the president in 1949, became treasurer and for some time has been serving as general manager of the company.

Dr. John L. Peters, '38ma, and Dr. E. C. Hall, '28ma, '38ma, '50ma, were the first winners of distinguished awards from the alumni association of Bethany Nazarene College. Dr. Peters, ordained Methodist minister and widely-known educator, now is head of World Neighbors, Inc. He was formerly professor of religion at Oklahoma City University and pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church. Dr. Hall is chairman of the education division at Central State College in Edmond. He joined the Central State faculty in 1947.

Col. James C. Selman, '38bus, was recently made commanding officer of Tinker Air Force Base. He was transferred to the post from a role as personnel director of the Oklahoma City Air Materiel Area.

Maj. Velma L. Richardson, '38ma, recently completed an advanced medical specialist officer course at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C. Major Richardson is regularly assigned as a dietitian at Fitzsimons Army hospital, Denver, Colorado.

1939

Verdon L. Barnes, '39ed, '46ma, is now superintendent of the Vinita public school system. Barnes, in the teaching profession 19 years, served as high school principal at Vinita, Blackwell and Carnegie. He had been superintendent at Verden since 1955.

Harry G. Fair, '39eng, has been made manager of the supply and transportation department and president of Phillips Pipe Line Company, a subsidiary of Phillips Petroleum Company. He was previously chairman of the company's operating committee. Fair has been with Phillips since 1939. He and Mrs. Fair have three boys and a girl.

DEATH: George T. Holland, '39eng, died October 10. His home was in Midland, Texas.

1940

Kenneth Anquoc, '40, recently presented an arrangement of traditional Indian dances for the 13th annual American Indian painting exhibition sponsored by Philbrook Art Center. A one-man exhibition of paintings by Jesse E. Davis, '49fa, Oklahoma City, was shown in the contemporary Indian painting gallery.

Wayne E. Glena, '40eng, is now manager of Continental Oil Company's production department, with headquarters at Houston, Texas. He formerly was assistant production manager for the company's Rocky Mountain region. Glena has been with Conoco since 1943.

W. A. "Tate" Taylor, '31pharm, Norman drug store owner, was recently elected first vice-president of the Oklahoma Pharmaceutical Association.

Wayne B. Smith, '40law, Kingfisher, recently was promoted to lieutenant colonel at Fort Riley, Kansas, as executive officer in the 5th Artillery's 1st Field Artillery Battalion. Colonel Smith entered the Army in 1942. He and his wife live in nearby Junction City, Kansas.

1941

Dr. Thurman White, '41hs, and T. R. Bene-
dum, '38law, were presented bronze plaques in appreciation of their individual efforts to secure the $1,849,000 Kellogg grant for O.U. The presentation was made by Joe McBride, president of the Board of Regents, at a recent meeting of the Norman Rotary Club. The grant will help finance an adult education center on the O.U. campus.

Dr. Parker Rossman, '41fa, a student work exeutive of the Christian Churches' Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life, has been appointed associate professor at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut. A lecturer in the field of religion in higher education at the Yale Divinity School, Dr. Rossman is also executive director of the Disciples House and Center at New Haven.

James B. Green, '41eng, is now the manager of Fort Worth Steel & Machinery Company's engineering sales division. He was formerly midwest disrict manager for Jeffrey Manufacturing Company. The Greens have four children, a daughter and three sons.

1942

Frank L. Spencer, '26eng, has been appointed assistant manager of engineering program development for Waste King Corporation's technical production department. Spencer, formerly assistant vice-president of Vard, Inc., Pasadena, California. He and his wife have two children, Mark, 11, and Linda, 8.

Maj. Charles J. Hardister, '41hs, Cushing, is now a member of the Military Assistance Advisory Group at Saigon. Major Hardister entered the Army in January, 1942.

Irving Y. Fishman, '42bs, '48ms, has been promoted from assistant professor to associate professor of biology at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa. Fishman has been at Grinnell since 1954.

1943

Estal Hart, '43bs, Norman, was elected to the board of directors of the Southern Industrial Development Council at the council's annual conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, October 14. Hart is director of Planning and Development for the Oklahoma Department of Commerce and Industry. The S. I. D. C. is composed of state and private development organizations, both regional and loc-cal, in seventeen southern and southwestern states.

Dr. J. Raymond Himahaw, '43bs, '46med, new surgeon at Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, New York, addressed the American College of Surgons at a recent meeting in Chicago. Dr. Hinshaw discussed new techniques in chest surgery. He is also a professor at the University of Rochester Medical School and director of atomic burn research. Dr. Hinshaw is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and a certified board surgeon.

DEATH: George David Reavis, '43geol, died November 18 in a car-truck collision near Eureka, Missouri. Beared in Shawnee, 37-year-old Reavis was division manager for Tennessee Gas Trans-mition Company.

1944

Howard C. Kauffman, Jr., '44eng, is now as-istant manager of operations at Talara, Peru, for International Petroleum Company, Limited. He was formerly production coordinator in International's executive offices at Coral Gables, Florida. Prior to joining International, Kauffman was with Carter Oil Company for 11 years.

BIRTH: Joel Carbon, '44, and Mrs. Carbon, Tulsa, have selected the name Jane Catherine for their daughter born November 10. The Carl-s have five other children.

1945

Grady D. Harris, Jr., '45bs, '49law, Oklahoma City, acted as vice-chairman of the 1958 Greater Oklahoma City United Fund—Red Cross drive. While in the service, a native of Alex, is now senior vice-president and a director of the Liberty National Bank and Trust Company.

1946

William D. Hedges, '46eng, recently received a doctor of education degree from Peabody College for Teachers. Hedges is a native of Malvern, Arkansas.

1947

Russell B. Holloway, '47law, spoke at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in Norman recently. Holloway served in the Oklahoma County Attorneys' center for two years, then entered pri-cate practice in Oklahoma City.

Clinton V. Copeland, '47eng, is now project engineer for Aramco Overseas Company. He is at present in The Hague, Holland.

G. L. "Bud" Baker, Jr., '48bs, has been made executive vice-president of Dallas Leasing Company (DALECO), Dallas, Texas. This new company was formed for the leasing of single trucks or entire fleets. Baker now lives in Dallas and is a member of the Oklahoma Club. Prior to this, he was in Kansas City, Missouri, and was president of the Oklahoma Alumni Club there.

W. D. Schubert, '47, has been advanced to sales manager of the babywear and sleepwear division of P. H. Hanes Knitting Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Schubert joined Hanes in 1950 and has served as assistant sales manager of the company since 1955. He is a native of Afton.

Celia M. Bry, '47fa, '48ms, O.U. assistant professor of music, was featured on the program of the New Mexico Music Teachers annual convention in Portales, New Mexico, November 22-24. Piano Chamber Music was presented at the convention and the main events on the program were instructions given by Mrs. Bryant. She is southwesten president of the Music Teachers National Association, and vice-president of the Oklaahoma Music Teachers Association.

Harry S. "Bud" Baer, Jr., '47journ, was recently re-elected secretary-treasurer of Aeronautical Training Society, a national association of Air Force and Army contract firms offering major aviation contract services to the Armed Forces. With ATS for the past three years, Baer was previously mili-

1948

John F. Meacham, '48eng, was made Kent County Director of Aeronautics and Manager of the Kent County Airport, Grand Rapids, Michigan. He was previously associated with James T. Buckley, Inc., airport consultants in New York City. He and Mrs. Meacham have three children, Sandy, 9, Jack, 7, and Marc, 4.

Dr. John M. Campbell, '48ms, '51phd, chairman of the School of Petroleum Engineering at O.U., is the author of a book, Evaluation of Oil Property Economics, being published by Prentice-Hall Publishing Company. The book will be released in the early spring of 1950, not only in the United States and Canada but around the world generally. Campbell also contributes articles on lease processing to the weekly Oil and Gas Journal.

Mrs. Jane Brooks Palmer, '48ms, fourth grade teacher at Gateway School, Oklahoma City, has been appointed a member of the committee which will determine location, finance and operation of a proposed home for retired teachers in the State. The organization is a committee of the Oklahoma Education Association.

Dr. Ralph W. Kelting, '48ms, '51phd, has been promoted from assistant professor of botany at the University of Tulsa to associate professor of life sciences. Dr. Kelting was employed at O.U. as a graduate assistant and then as an instructor between 1947 and 1953, when he joined the T. U. faculty. He and Mrs. Kelting have a son, Michael.

Gammon Jarrell, '48bs, was ordained to the Sacred Order of Deacons at a ceremony in Houston, Texas, recently.

Dr. Kelly M. West, '48med, was a recent contributor to the Journal of the Oklahoma State Medical Association. Formerly in private practice in Oklahoma City, Dr. West is now a full-time associate professor in the department of medicine at the O.U. School of Medicine and attending in medicine, Administrative Medical and the United States and Canada but around the world. The organization is a committee of the Oklahoma Education Association.

BIRTH: Dr. Robert E. Bowling, '48bs, '50ms, '57ph.d, and Mrs. Bowling (the former Dorothy Clark, '47bs, '57ms), have chosen the name John Robert for their son born November 16. They also have a daughter, Ann Elizabeth, 18 months. Doctor Bowling is in the department of microbiology at the University of Arkansas Medical Center, Little Rock.

1949

M. Eugene Sheid, '39journ, is now employed by United States Gypsum Company, Chicago, Illinois, as a consultant and training manager. He is presently responsible for Gypsum Wallboard and the 1959 Directory of Building Materials. Sheid was previously in radio and newspaper advertising.

William H. Clark, '49fa, works for Hool Engineering Corporation, Tulsa. He and Mrs. Clark, '50, have two daughters, Jan, 6, and Mary Elizabeth, 2.

Jerome M. Pollack, '49geol, '51ms, participated as a member of an advisory panel for the National Science Foundation in Washington, D. C., recently. Pollack is the newly-appointed chairman of Oklahoma City University's geology department.

Dr. Paul B. Jennings, '49ph, has been promoted to night city editor of the Memphis, Tennessee, Commercial Appeal. He joined the Commercial Appeal staff as reporter in 1949 after graduation.
DEATHS: Daniel Bacon Allen, '49eng, died November 12 in Houston, Texas, at the age of 39. Allen was an engineer with the Humble Oil Company at Overton, Texas, and later at Houston. He is survived by Mrs. Allen and a daughter, Patricia Lee.

Dr. Seals L. Whiteley, '34med, 38-year-old Dur-ant physician, died September 26 in Durant. Doc-tor Whiteley had been located in Durant since completing his internship and was secretary of his county Medical Society at the time of his death. He was a member of the Oklahoma State Medical Asso-ciation and the American Medical Association.

1950

Seymour “Sy” Ramsey, ’50journ, Associated Press newsmen, was transferred from Little Rock, Arkansas, to Louisville, Kentucky. He has held positions with the El Reno Daily Tribune, Wewoka Times and station KVVO, Tulsa.

D. Lee Porter, ’50pharm, is now field manager for Parke, Davis & Company in the St. Louis, Missouri, office. He was formerly sales representative in Oklahoma City. In his new position, Porter will be responsible for the development of sales in Arkansas and portions of Missouri and Iowa.

Dr. James S. Veum and Mrs. Veum (the former Wanda Echols, ’50bs) now live in Appleton, Wisconsin. They have two daughters, Judy, 2, and Mary, 6 months.

Bill W. Lampkin, ’50bs, is a methods accountant for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in St. Louis, Missouri.

Irving Trachtenberg, ’50journ, has been ap-pointed appliance group sales manager by the Radio Advertising Bureau, Inc. The newly-established sales division is responsible for developing business from appliance manufacturers throughout the United States. Trachtenberg has been a member of the R. A. B. national sales staff for the past two years. Prior to that he was an account executive with General Outdoor Advertising.

Arthur J. Newfield, ’50bs, has been appointed advertising sales manager for three American Aviation Publications, Air Cargo Magazine, Armed Forces Man-agement, and the World Aviation Directory. He will be located in the company’s Washington headquarters. Newfield joined American Aviation Publications as director of research in 1955, leaving the same position with the National Association of Plumbing Contractors.

Franklin Miley, ’50eng, Tulsa, has been em-ployed by the University of California’s Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory as a chemical engineer in the CMB division which is concerned with chemistry and metallurgy research. Miley is married and has one child.

John Moler, ’50bs, director of radio operations for WKY radio, Oklahoma City, was recently ele-vated to assistant station manager. Moler joined the WKY radio sales staff in 1952.

Bill Ison, ’50journ, has become sports editor of the Topeka Daily Capital and Journal. Ison was a member of the Daily Oklahoman sports staff four years.

J. W. Brackett, ’50geol, is now purchasing agent for Republic Supply Company, Oklahoma City.

Kenneth W. McCharen, ’50ed, ’51med, is as-sistant principal of the James Monroe junior high school, Tulsa. McCharen previously taught history at Edison senior high school.

BIRTHS: Dr. George Bolar Garrison, ’50bs, ’51med, and Mrs. Garrison, Iowa City, Iowa, are the parents of twin daughters born November 2 in Iowa City. Their names are Lesley Jane and Laura Ann. George Parker, ’50bs, and Mrs. Parker, Oklahoma City, have chosen the name Mary Catherine for their daughter born October 19 in St. Anthony’s hospital.

Leo “Speeck” Reynolds, ’50journ, and Mrs. Rey-nolds announce the birth of their sixth child, a son, Christian, born October 18. Reynolds is sports editor of the Great Bend, Kansas, Tribune.

1951

Dr. Joe W. McCauley, ’51bs, ’55med, has es-tablished offices in the Medical Arts Building in McAlester. Dr. McCauley moved from Malden Air Force Base, Malden, Missouri, to McAlester.

Robert E. Wood, ’51geol, is Four Corners’ re-prentative for Byron Jackson Tollls, Inc., a subsidiary of Borg-Warner Corporation. He and Mrs. Wood have two children. They have lived in Rocky Mountain states since 1951.

Joseph Caballero, ’51eng, ’52eng, is drilling divi-sional engineer in La Paz, Bolivia.

Capt. Everett C. Brown, ’51journ, Woldco, re-cently received his command pilot wings at Ran-dolph Air Force Base, Texas. He supervised Tacti-cal Talk when it was first published at Tinker Field, Oklahoma City, by the public information section of the 185th Tactical Reconnaissance Squad-ron.

Robert L. Pendarvis, ’51bs, ’57Law, was recently elected the 1958-59 president of the Norman Junior Chamber of Commerce. Pendarvis is assis-tant county attorney for Cleveland County.

Joseph N. Tate, ’51bs, has joined the insurance agency of Harrison and Harrison in Tulsa. A chartered property and casualty underwriter, Tate was previously with R. H. Siegfried, Inc.

James H. Clark, ’51journ, has been promoted to manager of the South Central region for TV Guide with headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri. The area covers eight regional editions of the na-tional television weekly magazine. Clark had for-merly been manager of the Oklahoma edition with headquarters in Oklahoma City.

MARRIAGE: Miss Mary Lee Campbell, ’51m.ed, Tulsa, and Richard Joseph Karam, Port Ar-thur, Canada, were married November 15 in the home of the bride’s parents. Karam has a BS degree from Southeastern State College, where he was a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity. The couple plans to live in Tulsa.

1952

Mrs. Sara Louise Woods Marshall, ’52journ, has been appointed director of public relations for the Neiman-Marcus Company, Dallas, Texas. Mrs. Marshall joined the store’s public relations staff three years ago and has served as assistant director. Prior to joining Neiman-Marcus, she served as a staff writer for United Press International in Dallas and Oklahoma City and junior assistant executive for the O.U. bureau of public relations, Norman.

David Hall, ’52ba, has been elected president of the Student Bar Association of the University of Tulsa School of Law for the 1958-59 school year. Hall was recently presented with the Alumni Club Award at the Annual Awards Banquet and has also received the Bancroft-Whitney award. Presently employed in contracts negotiation in the land de-partment of Shell Oil Company, Tulsa, Hall is married and has a daughter, Nancy Leigh, 1.

Glen Bowman, ’52ed, Oklahoma City, has been named to the new Oklahoma Education Asso-ciation committee on local and district units, which is to seek ways of strengthening local OEA organiza-tions over the state. Bowman is a counselor at Capitol Hill junior high school.

Lon R. Argabright, ’52journ, has been appoint-ed assistant to the Dallas general agent for Northwest-Mer Mutual Life Insurance Company. Argabright has been an assistant to the director of education and field training at the firm’s home office, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. A native of Duncan, Argabright has been with Mutual since 1953.

Merle E. Freeman, ’52m.ed, member of the fac-ulty of the Durant public schools for the past nine years, is now principal of Washington Irving ele-mentary school.

1953

MARRIAGE: Miss Jeanne Evelyn Thornton, ’53bs, Tulsa, and Robert Lee Parnell, Tulsa, were married November 15 in the home of the bride’s parents. Parnell has an BS degree from Southeastern State College, where he was a member of Phi Sig-ma Epsilon Fraternity. The couple plans to live in Tulsa.

1954

John D. Thomas, ’54bs, ’55ma, Norman, has been employed by the University of California’s Los Alamos scientific laboratory as a mathematician in the test division. Thomas’ work involves scientific direction of field tests at the Emivetok proving ground and Nevada test site. This activity involves technical planning, preparation, instrumentation, actual detonation, and analysis of results of these tests.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

Richard L. Bowman, '54bus, was promoted in rank from first lieutenant to captain with the Norman Reserve unit recently. A former linebacker of the O.U. football team, Bowman is now teacher and football coach at Shawnee high school. He played professional football with the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers after leaving the University.

Dr. Boyd K. Lester, '54med, has been appointed instructor in psychiatry, O. U. School of Medicine. Dr. Lester is in charge of the Psychiatric Out-patient Clinic at University hospital.

1955

Robert L. Drexler, '55journ, '56ma, advertising salesman for the Norman Transcript, is the developer of advertising which is being included in the Sales and Idea Book published by Newspaper Advertising Executives Association, Inc., Danville, Illinois. Bryson is taking work toward a PhD degree at Indiana University, Bloomington.

John F. Gram, '55a, received his doctor of medicine degree in June during Tulane University commencement exercises at New Orleans. Gram is from Oklahoma City.

Robert J. Drexler, '55Law, was recently elected vice-president of the Bank of Mid-America Savings and Trust Company in Oklahoma City. Drexler was also made head of a newly-formed real estate mortgage loan department. Previously in the real estate and oil and gas business, Drexler was active in the organization of the bank and has been with the bank since it opened in 1957.

MARRIAGE: Miss Ann Louise Hanson, Wichita, Kansas, and the Rev. William Eugene Crews, '55a, Oklahoma City, were married, November 8, in St. James Episcopal Church, Wichita, Kansas. Reverend Crews received his bachelor of divinity degree from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley, California, in May and is ordained to the Deaconate of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Mrs. Crews is a graduate of Colorado College. The couple is living in Hugo.

DEATH: Lt. Donald Waldrop, '55, Altus, was killed in a plane crash November 10 at Camp San Luis Obispo, California. Waldrop entered the Army Signal Corps as a second lieutenant, enlisted in the air service and would have completed his tour of service in March of 1959. He studied business at LSU and was affiliated with Beta Alpha Psi and Phi Kappa Tau fraternities.

1956

Lt. Jerald D. Adelman, '56b, Lawton, is a member of the 551st Anti-aircraft Artillery Missile Battalion's basketball team in Van Nuys, California. Lt. Adelman is regularly assigned to the battalion's Battery D as a platoon leader. Before entering the Army in February, 1957, he was a sales trainee with The Texas Company in Houston, Texas.

Thomas J. Traynor, '56b, is teaching in Southwestern State College business education department while a regular staff member is on leave. Traynor has been doing graduate work in business at O.U.

Joseph L. Skinner, '56eng, '58m.eng, Bartlesville, has been awarded the $2,500 Continental Oil Company fellowship for 1958-59. Skinner is now working toward a Ph.D. in chemical engineering at O.U.

Dennis L. Evans, '56b, and Mrs. Evans (the former Carol Ann Smith, '56), are now living in Mesquite, Texas, near Dallas. Evans is the commercial service advisor for the Mesquite District of Texas Power and Light Company. The Evanses have a one-year-old daughter, Caryl Denise.

Blair Perkins, '56b, and Mrs. Perkins (the former Jo Carol Crawford, '51bs), Memphis, Tennessee, have announced the birth of a daughter, Patricia Ann, born September 23 in Memphis.

John E. Hoegg, '56eng, is attending Stanford University where he is working toward a master's degree in business administration. Hoegg was previously employed by the British American Oil Company in Calgary, Canada.

Lt. Willard D. Conklin, '56bs, and Mrs. Conklin are living in Leesville, Louisiana, while Lt. Conklin is stationed at Ft. Polk. They have just returned from Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he attended an armored officers course.

MARRIAGES: Miss Doris Anne Isbell, Madill, and William Anthony LaRense, '56bs, Oklahoma City, were married October 17 in the First Baptist Church, El Reno. They are living in Oklahoma City.

Miss Mary Jeanne Heath, '56bs, Oklahoma City, and John Jacob Unangst, Nazareth, Pennsylvania, were married October 11 in Christ the King Church, Oklahoma City. Unangst is a graduate of Bucknell University. The couple has established a home in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Miss Margaret Dykes, '56a, Oklahoma City, and Arthur R. Rodly, Tulsa, were married March 1 at the Crown Heights Christian Church in Oklahoma City. The Rodlys are living in Kansas City, Missouri, where he is a student at the Kansas City Dental College and Mrs. Rodly is an air hostess for T.W.A.

Miss Wanda Lee May, '56ed, and Bill B. Johnson were married June 15 in the Capitol Hill Methodist Church, Oklahoma City. They are now making their home in Gage where Johnson owns a hardware store and a filling station and manages the Artesian Beach. Mrs. Johnson is teaching in Gage high school.

BIRTHS: James Litton, Jr., '56b, and Mrs. Litton (the former Ireta Kulick, '56bs) are parents of a son, Robert Michael, born January 17 in Mercy hospital, Rockville Center, Long Island, New York. They have another son, Thomas Marc, 3. Litton is employed with Sperry Gyroscope, Long Island, New York.

Jerry L. Cross, '56bs, and Mrs. Cross (the former Monta Smith, '56ed), Dallas, Texas, have chosen the name Jeri Susanne for their daughter born May 28 in Baylor hospital. Cross is employed by Gardner-Denver Company as a special representative.

1957

Miss JoAnn Hodgson, '57journ, is working in the advertising department of Ritchie-Goettinger department store in Dallas, Texas.

George W. Arrington, '57bs, and Mrs. Arrington (the former Jane Coker, '56) are now living in Bartlesville. They have three children, Cathy, 4; Julia, 2, and Mike, 1.

Dr. Clifford L. Meints, '57ph.d, was recently installed as the first George Washington Carver Professor in Natural Science at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, during the college's fifth Christian Liberal Arts Festival. Dr. Meints teaches chemistry and is head of the chemistry department at Simpson College. He holds a BS degree from Purdue and an MS degree from Thiou University.

Mrs. Richard Kunkel (the former Marilyn Vavra, '57ba), Norman, is co-author with Dr. Gilbert Geis, former O.U. sociology professor, of an article appearing in the March issue of the Minnesota Law Review.

Harold Hahn, '57a, '58ms, Blackwell, won an acting scholarship to the National Shakespeare Festival in California. Hahn spent several months at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park at San Diego.

Don Kolker, '57, Lawton, has been named new business manager at Comanche County Memorial Hospital. He was previously employed in the accounting department of Fairmont Foods.

Virgil D. Wiggins, '57geol, has received a $2,500 research fellowship from Sohio Petroleum Company to continue his work on dating the Goddard and Spring shales of southern Oklahoma. Wiggins received a similar fellowship in 1957.

Dow Dozier, '57journ, an enlisted private first class in the U. S. Marine Corps, is doing press relations for the informational services office of the First Marine Division. He collects information on Lt. John D. Dorchester, Jr., '57bus, recently was graduated from the 15-week basic officer course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. Lt. Dorchester was formerly employed as a field underwriter with Mutual of New York.

Lt. Thomas P. Hallren, '57bus, Fairview, recently completed the airborne course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. Lt. Hallren entered the Army in September, 1957.

Mickey Gibson, '57ba, has been granted a research assistantship in the Institute for Research in Social Science at the University of North Carolina. Gibson will be assisting on a Cherokee research project in cultural anthropology. He has been doing graduate work in anthropology at O.U.

Lt. Jerry C. Gilchrist, '57bus, Clinton, and Lt. John M. Clinton, '57geol, recently completed the 17-week field artillery officer basic course at the Army Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill. Lt. Clinton was formerly an assistant engineer with Core Laboratories, Inc., Denver, Colorado.

Lt. Norman A. Lamb, '57ed, Enid, formerly a coach at Enid high school, is now stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas. He recently completed the Anti-aircraft Artillery and Guided Missile Officer Basic Course at the Army Air Defense School, Fort Bliss.

Lt. John E. Wallis, '57en, is stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland. He has recently completed the eight-week supply officer course at the Army Artillery and Missile School. Wallis was formerly with the Trans Company, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Lt. Richard R. Russell, '57ba, Fanwood, New Jersey, recently completed the eight-week Ranger course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. Lt. Russell entered the Army in November, 1957.

Lt. Willis O. Whitney, '57eng, Tulsa, has entered primary flight school at Malden Air Force Base, Missouri. Mrs. Whitney and their children, Lawrence Wayne and Deborah Ann, are at Malden with him.

Lt. Gordon C. Reyna, '57ba, Cleveland, Ohio, recently graduated from Officer Basic School at Quantico, Virginia. The course is compulsory for all newly-commissioned Marines.

Pvt. Tom J. Cavin, '57ba, Amarillo, Texas, recently completed the eight-week supply handling course at the Army Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Virginia. Pvt. Cavin was formerly stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado.

Eugene Butler, '57a, now attending the School of Sacred Music at Union Theological Seminary, New York City, recently presented his own religious composition. The recital was given under the auspices of the Metropolitan New Jersey Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

John Dowling, '57bus, has been awarded a teaching assistantship at the University of Michigan for the academic year 1958-1959. Dowling teaches introductory anthropology courses.

John J. Dunn, '57ba, and Gary G. Kinsey, '57us, are district group representatives for the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company. Dunn has been assigned to the Dallas group office and Kinsey is associated with the San Antonio office.

Chaunce A. Beane, '57bus, Long Grove, was recently commissioned a naval ensign at Pensacola, Florida. Ensign Beane is now undergoing primary flight indoctrination at Sauley Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station near Pensacola.

John V. Page, '57bus, recently participated in a field training exercise conducted by the 4th Armored Division in Germany. Page is an SP1.

Mrs. Louise M. Carter, '57hs, has joined Shell Development Company, Emeryville, California. Formerly from Berkeley, California, Mrs. Carter is a patent searcher in the patent division.

James A. Nelson, '57eng, and Mrs. Nelson (the former Nina L. Kelso, '57ed) are living in Edmonton, Canada, where he is employed by the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company. Mrs. Nelson is a member of the teaching staff in Edmonton, teaching the third grade.

Donald A. Slater, '57ba, is one of 54 outstanding graduate students in the nation to receive graduate fellowships assigned this year to educational institutions by the General Electric Educational and Charitable Fund. Slater will continue his study of politics at Princeton University.

Leo W. Winters, '57law, secretary of the state election board, addressed students in the University School of Law recently. His appearance initiated the fall lecture series sponsored by the Student Bar Association.

Ray Cochran, '57journ, is with television station KWTV in Oklahoma City as promotion assistant.
Bob Page, ’57eng, and Jim Trombla, ’56eng, are attending Humble Oil and Refining Company's Fifteenth Advanced Reservoir Engineering School in Houston, Texas. Also attending the school are Bill Moffatt, ’56eng, Gerry Brandon, ’56eng, and Jack Black, ’58eng. Another O.U. alumnus, Fred Lawless, ’52eng, is an administrator of the school. MARRIAGES: Miss Pat Mose, Houston, Texas, and Dan Newsom, ’57eng, were married November 8. Newsom is employed as an engineer with Texas Employer's Casualty Company. Miss Janet Kathryn Traher, ’57ba, Pauls Valley, and Frederick Drummond, Hominy, were married October 25 in the First Presbyterian Church, Pauls Valley. Drummond is a graduate of Oklahoma State and Stanford universities. Miss Carolyn Thomas, ’57fa, Oklahoma City, and Robert Vest Lynch, Fort Worth, Texas, were married October 25 in Trinity Baptist Church, Oklahoma City. Lynch is a graduate of Oklahoma State University. The couple is living in Fort Worth. Miss Rita Joann Kotter and Jack H. Majors, ’57ed, were married, February 15, in East Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Majors is a graduate of Wisconsin State College. The Majors are living in Canon City, Colorado, where he is teaching school. BIRTHS: Nathan S. Scarritt, ’57bs, and Mrs. Scarritt (the former Terry Thomas, ’55), Norman, have chosen the name Katharine Lise for their daughter born October 30 at Norman. Scarritt is teaching in the mathematics department at O.U. while completing his work for a master's degree. Grandparents are Nathan Scarritt, ’23faw, and Mrs. Scarritt, Enid. Thomas E. Hartmann, ’57bs, ’55m.eng, and Mrs. Hartman (the former Elinor Bynum, ’55shs), Norman, have chosen the name Jennifer for their daughter born September 8 in Norman. The Hartmans are moving to Riverside, California, where he is employed by the Motorola Research Systems Laboratory. 1958 Lt. Dale B. Sullivan, ’58ed, Ponca City, recently completed the four-week airborne course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. Lt. Sullivan received his parachutist wings after having completed the course. Burton E. Hardin, ’58, Norman, has joined the Mangum high school teaching staff as band director. At O.U. Hardin worked as a student assistant for the band and in the music library. Margaret Losey, ’58ba, is the winner of the Delta Gamma Foundation's $500 Audrey Wilder Graduate Fellowship for 1958-59. This fellowship is awarded annually to an outstanding senior member of the fraternity who desires to do graduate work in her particular field. Miss Losey, a native of Oklahoma City, will continue study toward a master's degree in speech. Lt. Charles O. Schuster, ’58eng, Tulsa, recently completed the 12-week Quartermaster Officer Basic Course at Fort Lee, Virginia. Before entering the Army, Schusterman was employed by the Shell Oil Company, Tulsa. James Ronald Vaughn, ’58eng, Bartlesville, has joined the graduate training school of Cities Service Oil Company. He is being initially assigned to the company's gasoline division. Miss Joane Phillips, ’58ba, is now teaching in Excelsior elementary school, Garden Grove, California. Her home is in Seminole. Richard L. Biggs, ’58eng, is working for Creole Petroleum Corporation and is located in Venezuela. Robert Houston, ’58ba, has joined the analytical department of the soap division of Procter and Gamble with offices in Cincinnati, Ohio. E. Mark Engleman, ’58ba, Woodward; James Hogan, ’58ba, Norman, and Dorothy L. Lantz, ’58ba, Cushing, are recipients of Woodrow Wilson fellowships. The $1,400 stipend is allowing Engleman to do graduate work in botany at O.U. while Hogan is studying comparative literature at the University of North Carolina. Miss Lantz is doing graduate work in psychology at Radcliffe College. Mary Jo Luthi, ’58bs, Gage, is a physical therapist on the staff of Hillcrest Medical Center. Miss Pat Olive, ’58journ, Poteau, is a reporter on the Abilene, Texas, Reporter-News. MARRIAGES: Miss Faith Fuller and Thomas Joseph Smith, ’58, both of Oklahoma City, were married November 1 in Putnam City Christian Church. They are living in Oklahoma City where Smith is a senior in the O.U. School of Medicine. Miss Lucille Beard, ’58ed, and John H. Dykes, Jr., Enid, were married May 29th in St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral in Oklahoma City. Dykes has been named a Baker Scholar by the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. He expects to receive a master's degree in June.