Calling the Roll of Sooner Classes

1905—
Leonard Runbeck, '05, has retired and is living in Lindborg, Kansas.

1908—
Edgar L. Harris, '08ba, who for a number of years has worked in the postal division of civil service in Norman, bad "all six" of his children at home for Homecoming this year. As he explains it, "All six are mine. Three actually mine and three spiritual. And too, they are all either in O. U. or are former students or graduates of O. U."

1911—
Mrs. Wyman LeBester Pulley, Oklahoma City, renewed friendships with hundreds of her former friends and associates on the O. U. campus during Homecoming of 1947. Mrs. Pulley received her B.A. degree from the University in 1911.

1912—
Lloyd W. Maxwell, '12ba, New York City, has accepted appointment in Korea, as financial adviser to the government. Mr. Maxwell sailed from the west coast on November 30 as a civilian but with full under Army auspices. Paul A. Walker, '12aw, was recently named by President Truman as acting chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

1913—
Earl Christmas, '13ba, is in St. Paul, Minnesota, where he is the publicity director of the Harold Stassen campaign.

1914—
Raymond O. Courtright, '14ba, is a special agent for the New York Life Insurance company in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

1917—
Wesley I. Nunn, '17, Chicago, Illinois, advertising manager of the Standard Oil Company, spoke at a special forum before the Wholesalers and Manufacturers Division of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce. "The Man Who Built A Better Mousetrap" was his subject.

1918—
Anna E. Boyce, '18ba, is making her home in San Diego, California, and is owner and manager of several citrus groves near Exludeno, California.

1919—
Dr. M. L. Wardell, '19ba, Boyd professor of history at the University, was one of six new directors elected recently by the Oklahoma Social Welfare Council in Oklahoma City. Dr. Wardell is chairman of the Cleveland County Child Welfare Council.

1920—
Ralph Wallace, '20, is presently engaged in the general practice of law in downtown San Diego, California.

1921—
Mrs. Marian Grant Patrick, '21ba, recently returned to Shawnee to make her home after spending some time in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

1922—
Wallace L. Boyce, '22ba, is a Methodist minister in Depew.

1923—
Helen Ann Carr, '23ba, is director of the Crippled Children's Division of the Georgia State Welfare Department in Atlanta, Georgia.

1924—
Maury Marion Travis, '24, is a geologist covering Mid-Continent and Rocky Mountain oil exploration.

1925—
Lucile C. Paschal, '25fa, is head of the voice department of the Musical Arts Conservatory in Amarillo, Texas.

1926—
R. L. Downing, '26, has returned to his position as vice president of the Rosewell (New Mexico) State Bank after being discharged from the Army with the rank of major. Mr. Downing was formerly president and manager of the City National Bank in Norman.
1927

Fitzhugh L. Hambrick, '27ba, Greeley, Colorado, is a new staff member of the U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C.

DeForrest E. Grahame, '27phrm, Tulsa pharmacist, is commander of the American Veterans of World War II in Tulsa.

For the last nine years Dr. Brown, '32ba, has moved his family to Arlington, Virginia.

1928

Dr. John Lamb, '28ba, '32ba, Oklahoma City, is the former Bessie Brown, '26ba, of the United States in the interest of a universal enrichment program.

Dr. John F. Bender, David Ross Boyd professor of English, is chairman of the state employees' membership committee of the American Legion.

1929

Charles H. Rowland, '29ba, is in the legal division of the Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville.

1930

Foster G. Windham, '30law, is practicing law in Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Lowe Runkle, '30ba, long-time advertising executive in Oklahoma City and head of the firm bearing his name, was elected president of the Southwestern Association of Advertising Agencies at its annual meeting in El Paso, Texas. Mr. Runkle was formerly associated with Ray K. Glenn, Advertising, in Oklahoma City. He was vice-president when he purchased the agency outright in 1946 after more than a decade of service with this firm.

Alta Emily Charlesworth Thomas, '30ba, '40med, Oklahoma City, is principal of the Wilson Elementary School. She has held this position for the last four years. At the University she was a member of Alpha Phi Sorority, Mortar Board, and president of the Y.W.C.A.

Joe Basolo, '29-30, Muskogee, and Mrs. Basolo, the former Mary Snyder, '45ba, announce the birth of a son born October 1. They have chosen the name Albert Roy, Jr., for their new baby.

1931

Manual Moulder, '31ba, was elected vice president of Stern Brothers Investment Company in Kansas City, Missouri, recently.

Neal R. Richard, '31eng, is employed with the Anderson-Prichard Oil Company in Oklahoma City.

Charles G. Stuart, '31ba, is practicing oculist with offices in Tulsa, Okla. Mr. Stuart served with the Army Air Forces Medical Corps and was discharged with the rank of Major. At the University he was a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Henry M. "Hank" Schweer, '31geol, former Oklahoma City geologist and recognized as an authority on Mid-Continent geology, was killed when his plane caught fire, crashed and burned near Dallas, Texas. Mr. Schweer was named a partner in the oil firm of Hardieson and Schweer, Inc., in Wichita Falls, Texas.

1932

Mrs. Lesta Sheelhorn, '32ba, is employed as an instructor in the Aurora (Illinois) High School.

William H. Barlow, '32eng, Findlay, Ohio, attended the inauguration of Harry Clifford Fox, president of the University of Findlay, Ohio, in a ceremony performed in the Graduate School of Divinity, November 19 as an official representative of the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Barlow is employed as senior petroleum engineer with the Ohio Oil Company.

Maxine A. Igoe, '24ba, a nutrition consultant with the Mills' National Federation in Chicago, Illinois, Miss Turner travels over the greater part of the United States in the interests of a universal enrichment program.

1933

Larry Cotton, '33ba, returned to the campus November 25 to appear as the second artist in the current Celebrity Series programs. Fourteen years ago Mr. Cotton left the University School of Law to vacation in California and never returned to his studies.

For the last seven years Mary Ella Reid, '33ba, has been teaching the second grade in Oswaw- tomiac, Kansas.

Charles H. Brown, '33ba, '34ba, former member of the University School of Journalism faculty, is now assistant professor of journalism at Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pennsylvania.

Hooper B. Courtright, '33ba, '32med, is the director of the Harriet (California) High School band.

Alan G. Skelton, '33batc, '34ma, has been appointed head of the library for the Watersway Experiment Station, Victoria, B.C., where until recently he was librarian for the Geological Library at the University and the Oklahoma Geological Survey. For the last few years he has been the research librarian of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

1934

John C. Blackshire, '33-34, is the assistant manager of a paper mill for the Crossett Lumber Company, Crossett, Arkansas.

1935

Bunnie Merson, '35ba, and Mrs. Merson are making their home in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Merson is associated with the United States Employment Service.

Vincent Frederick Igou, '35, has been owner and operator of the Igou's Cafe in Oseda, Missouri, for the last two years.

Harold Swing, '35, is stationed with the Army Air Forces in San Antonio, Texas.

Mrs. Yoko Randolph, '35nurse, is living in Ada where she is employed as County Health Nurse.

Stanley T. Tyler, '35ba, resigned his position as secretary-manager of the Guyon Chamber of Commerce to enter cattle ranching business with his brother in Oklahoma City. Mr. Tyler is the owner and operator of the 54 Ranch which is located 50 miles south of Guyon in Harford County, Texas. Stanley Tyler will continue to make his home in Guyon.

Jerome E. Mooney, '35ba, Norman, is owner of the Mooney's General Merchandise Company in Norman. Mr. Mooney was discharged from the Army Air Corps in 1946 with the rank of first lieutenant. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity at the University.

1936

Ralph Shackleford, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Shackleford, the former Melba Cates, '36ba, Talih- nita, announced the birth of a son, Charles Cates Shackleford, for their son born November 17 in Wesley Hospital.

Julian J. Rothbaum, '36ba, '38ba, was recently appointed district director of the Federal Housing Administration in Tulsa. Mr. Rothbaum has been in charge of the Tulsa office since it opened in July, 1946. His first position with the F.H.A. was in 1939 as executive assistant. He served in the Field Artillery for the three years during World War II.

Dahl M. Duff, ’36journ, writer for the Oil and Gas Journal, has been transferred from Tulsa to Houston, Texas, where he will be news editor of the Gulf coast area, with a beat extending from Florida to Brownsville, Texas.

Stewart Harral, ’36ma, director of press relations at the University, addressed the Norman chapter of the American Association of University Professors recently. "Public Relations: Your Job and Mine" was the topic of his discussion.

Mrs. Juanita Miller Simpson, ’36lib domiciled in Oklahoma City where her husband, John Henry Simpson, is a grocery store owner. Mrs. Simpson was the library assistant at the Carnegie Library in Oklahoma City for four years following her graduation from the University. Mrs. and Mrs. Simpson are the parents of two children, Kathleen, 6, and John Bruce, 3. At the University Mrs. Simpson was a member of Pi Zeta Kappa, religious sorority, vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. and a member of the girls’ choral club.

Earle Edgar Garrison, ’36bus, is the sales manager of the Muskogee district for the Oklahoma Natural Gas Company. Mrs. Garrison is the former Mary Oella Tappan, ’35.

Earl Eugene Ridgway, ’36ba, Wichita, Kansas, is the planner in aircraft industry for the Beech Aircraft Corporation in Wichita. Mrs. Ridgway, ’36ba, is making her home in Oklahoma City where her husband, John Henry Simpson, is in business.

William J. Koczur, ’37lib domiciled in Ada.

Drewsilla Beams, ’38ba, until recently head dietitian of Baylor University Hospital, Dallas, Texas, is now business manager of that institution.

Millard S. Purdy, ’38journ, has resigned as political reporter for the Honolulu (Hawaii) Star-Bulletin, to accept a position with the San Francisco California office of the Wall Street Journal. Mr. Purdy was a reporter for the Oklahoma News and the Oklahoma City Times.

Dorothy Gregg Allmon, ’38ed, is living in Norman where she is employed as secretary in the office of director of field relations at the University of Oklahoma. Her husband, Ozo O. Allmon, ’39bus, is employed as estimator for Barbour and Short in Norman.

Glode V. Kaury, ’33med, is a physician at the McCloskey Veterans Administration hospital in Temple, Texas.

C. O. Hunt, ’38ba, ’40law, recently opened a law office in Ada.

Ira Egpler, ’38ba, ’43ma, former instructor in the College of Fine Arts, has been employed by the U. S. Treasury Department for the last five years served for two years in the intelligence unit for the states of Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Washington and Alaska with headquarters in Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Leota Davis Horne, ’38ba, is making her home in Chicago, Illinois, where her husband, L. W. Horne, is employed as a chemist for the Kraft Cheese Company.

O. U. is as noted for its flyers as is Oklahoma for its flying farmers. The University has close to 1,000 student pilots, a flying botanist, Dr. Norman H. Boke, and a flying educator, Dr. S. E. Torsten Lund. The latest addition to this list is a flying journalist, C. Joe Holland, ’37ba, ’41ma, supervisor of student publications.

James Alva Embry, Jr., ’37ba, is employed as branch manager of the Power, Incorporated, in Jackson, Mississippi. Mr. Embry resigned from the Marine Corps in July.

Roy E. Vinyard, ’37eng, was recently transferred from night superintendent at the Kansas City, Kansas, Phillips Petroleum refinery to still foreman at the Phillips, Texas, plant. Mr. Vinyard has been with the Phillips company since his graduation.

Maxine McAdams, ’37ba, is employed as a secretary with the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company in Tulsa.

Mrs. Walleah Jones McArthur, ’37ba, ’39ma, is the assistant director for the married veterans service office at the University of Illinois, Urbana.

Since his discharge from the Navy in 1946, Benjamin W. Nicholas, ’37bus, has been sales representative for nine mid-western states for the Kenwood Blanket Company of Albany, New York.

John F. Malone, ’37ba, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Malone are the parents of a daughter, Barbara Louise, born November 26 at Mercy Hospital.

Robert L. Grady, ’38ba, ’38law, Nowata, and Mrs. Grady; the former Ruth Ann McSpadden, ’38ba, have selected the name James Robert for their son born November 22 in Nowata.

Mrs. Betty Copman York, ’38ba, is director of dramatics in The Burrow School for Girls, Kansas City, Missouri. She also is a book reviewer for the Kansas City Star. Her husband, Walter W. York, ’36ba, is professor of music at the University of Kansas City. A chorus under his direction will be featured with the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra on January 21.

Capt. Velma Lee Richardson, ’38ba, Oklahoma City, was among the first five officer-dietitians in the United States to be sworn into the women’s medical specialist corps, dietitians section of the regular Army. The ceremony was held at the 13th annual convention of the American Dietitians Association in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Captain Richardson served for 20 months in the European theater during World War II.

Drewsilla Beams, ’38ba, until recently head dietitian of Baylor University Hospital, Dallas, Texas, is now business manager of that institution.

Millard S. Purdy, ’38journ, has resigned as political reporter for the Honolulu (Hawaii) Star-Bulletin, to accept a position with the San Francisco California office of the Wall Street Journal. Mr. Purdy was a reporter for the Oklahoma News and the Oklahoma City Times.

Dorothy Gregg Allmon, ’38ed, is living in Norman where she is employed as secretary in the office of director of field relations at the University of Oklahoma. Her husband, Ozo O. Allmon, ’39bus, is employed as estimator for Barbour and Short in Norman.

Glode V. Kaury, ’33med, is a physician at the McCloskey Veterans Administration hospital in Temple, Texas.

C. O. Hunt, ’38ba, ’40law, recently opened a law office in Ada.

Ira Egpler, ’38ba, ’43ma, former instructor in the College of Fine Arts, has been employed by the U. S. Treasury Department for the last five years served for two years in the intelligence unit for the states of Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Washington and Alaska with headquarters in Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Leota Davis Horne, ’38ba, is making her home in Chicago, Illinois, where her husband, L. W. Horne, is employed as a chemist for the Kraft Cheese Company.
Howard C. Koch, '39bus, is assistant to a tax accountant in Dallas, Texas. Thomas F. Wyatt, '39med, is employed as co-ordinator of diversified occupations in the Ponca City High School.

Ben Trillin, '40bus, is the office manager of the Paper Supply Company in Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Helen Genevieve Boyle, '40bus, is making her home in Cherokee. She served with the WAC during the war and was stationed in New Guinea and Manila.

Ruth Mae Roberts, '40med, for the last two years has been an instructor at the Northeast Junior High School in Kansas City, Missouri. Verble Otis Selk, '40pha., was killed November 28 in an automobile accident in San Diego, California. Mr. Selk, while attending the University, was a member of Phi Delta Chi, Galen, the Indian club, and was awarded the "Scientific Award" by the American Druggist publication in 1940.

Clifton Carmen Wilhite, '40sas, is the assistant manager for the Red Fox Manufacturing Company in Dallas, Texas. Mrs. Wilhite is the former Wyma Adams, '38ba, '38pam, '40mus.ed.

Herbert A. Turk, '40ba, '47law, Blackwell, is associated with Preston Brown in the general practice of law in Blackwell.

Dr. George E. Meador, '40med, Chicago, Illinois, and Mrs. Meador announce the birth of a daughter, Barbara Ann, October 20 in Chicago. Mr. Meador, who is a commander in the Navy, is senior doctor on the USS Iowa.

Richard C. Findleis, '40eng, has been named winner of the aircraft classification award of $2,200 given by the James F. Lincoln arc welding foundation. Mr. Findleis, who designed an aircraft landing gear support, lives in Plainville, Kansas, where he recently purchased an interest in a machine shop. He was previously employed for six years as an engineer with the Cessna Aircraft Company, Wichita.

Wayne M. Muse, '37-'40, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Muse became the parents of a daughter, Marilyn, on November 12 in Norman.

Ben L. Burdick, '40ba, has graduated from the School of Law at Yale University and will be associated with the law firm of Embry, Johnson, Crowe, Tolbert, and Shelton in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Burdick is the former Tracey June Spencer, '43. Mr. and Mrs. Burdick are the parents of a daughter, Tracey Ann, born April 19, in New Haven, Connecticut.

Mrs. Margaret Davis Van Dusen, '40sas, is making her home in Evanston, Illinois, where her husband, A. C. Van Dusen, is head of the vocational guidance at Northwestern University.

Robert Koenigsdorf, '40aw, is associated with his father in the Koenigsdorf Insurance Agency, Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Koenigsdorf is the former Madeline Kligman, '40soc.wk.

George B. Brown, Jr., '38-'41, and Mrs. Brown, the former Barbara Fee Camp, '42speech, are living in Champaign, Illinois, where Mr. Brown is a student at the University of Illinois.

William G. Smith, '30-'41, Oklahoma City, is practicing law with his father, W. F. Smith, in Oklahoma City. He is a member of the Oklahoma City Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Harold Huneke, '41ma, formerly of the mathematics faculty at the University, is now head of the mathematics department at Northwestern State College, Alva.

Myron L. Johnson, '41mus, is an instructor of instrumental music at Southwest High School in Kansas City, Missouri.

Philip M. Rubins, '41eng, Oklahoma City, is working toward a masters degree at the University. Mr. and Mrs. Rubins are making their home in Norman.

G. D. Butterworth, '41eng, is employed as assistant dean in continuous pressure stills for the Stanolind Oil Company in Sugar Creek, Missouri.

John W. Mayes, '41geoL, '47mus, and Mrs. Mayes, the former Lucile Oglesby, '46ed., are making their home in Armorel. They are the parents of two children, John and Joseph, born October 23.

Mrs. Clarabell Holt Koerner, '41aw, is making her home in Glencoe, Illinois, where her husband, Eldon Koerner, is a Methodist minister. Mr. and Mrs. Koerner are the parents of a daughter, Donna, born last July.

Vernon Crafton, '39-'41, Blackwell, and Mrs. Crafton are the parents of a son, Michael Louis, born November 1 in Blackwell.

James R. Collins, '41aw, is practicing law in Amarillo, Texas.

Lorraine Muratet Simmons, '41sas, recently returned to Oklahoma City. She had been in Washington, D. C., where she was in the service department of the Washington Gas and Light Company. Her husband, John W. Simmons, who attended the University in 1938, is attending Oklahoma City University.

Donald W. Smith, '41aw, recently opened his law office in San Antonio, Texas.

Sidney Noland Broadus is the name Elbridge Sidney Broadus, '41, and Mrs. Broadus have chosen their son, who was born October 27 in Oklahoma City.

Helen Cooper, '42, recently returned from library service in the South Pacific and has accepted a position as Bookmobile librarian with the Missouri State Library, Jefferson City, Missouri.

Charles A. Neal, Jr., '38-'42, is making his home in Miami where he is associated with his father in the oil and mining business.

Raymond Lake Bacon, '42bus, and Mrs. Bacon are the parents of a son, William Raymond, born June 24 in Wichita, Kansas. Mr. Bacon is employed in Wichita as an accountant.

John A. Blaschke, '42, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Blaschke have chosen the name Don Alvin for their son born October 28 in Oklahoma City. Mr. Blaschke is a sophomore student at the University School of Medicine.

Homer V. Lale, '42ba, Oklahoma City, is the Oklahoma field supervisor for the Great American Indemnity Company of New York. Mrs. Lale is the former Mary Fair, '10ba, '10med. She is teaching eighth grade English in the Putnam City schools.

A selection of published commercial art by Lowell Hess, '38-'42, Anadarko, was on display in the upstairs lobby of the Art Building from November 26 to December 6. Mr. Hess is now doing free lance art work through an agent in Brooklyn, New York.

Edward W. Hayes, '42eng, has accepted employment as an engineer for the city of Seattle, Washington, since his discharge from the Navy.

Raymond O. Courtright, Jr., '43eng, is a field engineer for the Stanolind Oil Company in Odessa, Texas. His wife is the former Mary Swanda, '42ed.

DECEMBER, 1947

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

Mrs. Julian Ridulfe Dugger, '33, is employed in the dietetics department of the new Georgetown Hospital, Washington, D. C. She is in charge of clinical dietetics, a position she accepted at the Jefferson Davis Hospital, Houston, Texas.

Dr. Harry Singleton, '43, a 45-year-old recently left the Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Maryland, for Guam where he will be on duty at the Navy dispensary.

William O. Soderstrom, '43, has returned to Germany to resume his duties in the finance and accounting activities of the American zone military government.

C. Jack Murphy, '40, '43, has been employed in the advertising department of Durnal's department store, Muskogee. He has assumed his duties November 24.

William Jack Anderson, '43, is making his home in Sugar Creek, Missouri, where he is employed as design engineer for the Stanolind Oil Company of Indiana.

Jack H. Marce, '43, and Mrs. Marce, the former Marie Butler, '33, are the parents of a son born October 19. The little boy has been named James David. Mr. and Mrs. Marce have one other son.

TORRENCE-FRERING: In a ceremony in Weslaco, Texas, Jessa Ida Torrence, '43, and Quinton, and Ernest M. Frerking, Weslaco, exchanged matrimonial vows. Mrs. Frerking did her undergraduate work at Texas Wesleyan University. David North Newby, '43, and Mrs. Newby, the former Ruth Ann Hummer, '43, recently moved from Oklahoma City to Hobbs, New Mexico, where Mrs. Newby is associated with an oil firm. Mr. and Mrs. Newby are the parents of two children, Melinda and Meredith.

Floyd W. Echols, '43, resident physician at the University Hospital, returned recently from New York where he spoke at the dedication of the new $10 millions research laboratory at Brookhaven.

Jack A. Rhodes, '43, was appointed principal research assistant for the state legislative council recently. Mr. Rhodes resigned as teaching fellow and tutor in the department of government of Harvard University and also resigned a professorship in Sweden to study political science.

Clarence B. Taylor, '43, is employed as an architect for the firm of Stuart and Durham, Seattle, Washington.

1944

STEPHENS-FRAKES: In a ceremony, performed November 15, Eno Alice Stephens, '41-'44, became the bride of the Hon. Rene Frakes, both of Lawton. Mr. and Mrs. Frakes have established a home in Lawton.

Georgia Lynn Belew is the name selected by George揽 Norman, and Mrs. Belew for their daughter born November 15 at Wesley Hospital.

Wendell J. White, '44, senior in the University of Arkansas Medical School at Little Rock, has been named one of 164 in the nation to receive one year of internship at Brooke General Hospital, San Antonio, Texas.

Dr. R. F. Shriver, Jr., '43, med., Hobart, and Mrs. Shriver announce the birth of a son, Richard Floyd Shriver, III, on November 13 in Hobart.

Eugene Iras Potas, '42, is the information assistant in the public relations department of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Gordon H. Brantham, the former Marilyn Ruth Smith, '44, of Amarillo, Texas, is now the University of Arizona, Tucson.

Dr. R. F. Shriver, Jr., '43, med., Hobart, and Mrs. Shriver announce the birth of a son, Richard Floyd Shriver, III, on November 13 in Hobart.

Eugene Iras Potas, '42, is the information assistant in the public relations department of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Gordon H. Brantham, the former Marilyn Ruth Smith, '44, of Amarillo, Texas, is now the University of Arizona, Tucson.

Dr. R. F. Shriver, Jr., '43, med., Hobart, and Mrs. Shriver announce the birth of a son, Richard Floyd Shriver, III, on November 13 in Hobart.

Eugene Iras Potas, '42, is the information assistant in the public relations department of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Oklahoma City.
Missouri. State Teachers College Library, Cape Girardeau, ed as assistant librarian of the Southeast Missouri the Tide Water Seaboard Oil Company. Texas, where Mr. Nichols is district engineer for Angelo, Texas. Fraternity. They are temporarily at home in San Mrs. Moore is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta Missouri State College, Warrentsburg, Missouri. Her husband, Marvin E. Calvert, is attendingCen- sas City Public Library, Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Della Wiley Galvert, '47lib.sci, is librarian of the Ray County Library, Richmond, Missouri. Mrs. Galvert, who is a graduate student in chemistry. Mrs. Galvert, who is a graduate student in chemistry. Vera Jane Godown, '47lib.sci, is the assistant children's librarian of the southeast branch of the Kansas City Public Library, Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Della Wiley Galvert, '47lib.sci, is librarian of the Ray County Library, Richmond, Missouri. Her husband, Marvin E. Galvert, is attending Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, Missouri. Esther Mae Hanke, '47lib.sci, is assistant librarian of the Ray County Library, Richmond, Missouri. Harry Milton Perk, '47ba, is attending the University of Rochester, Rochester, New York, where he is a graduate student in chemistry. James R. Cox, '47eng, is an engineer for the Gates Rubber Company in Oklahoma City. Mr. Cox is a member of the Oklahoma City Junior Chamber of Commerce. Dixie McDonald, '47journ, has been appointed editor of the Shell Oil Company, Incorporated, at Tulsa. She succeeds Margaret Broome, '47journ, who had been editor for the last year.

The University of Oklahoma was founded upon authority of an act of the first legislature of the Territory of Oklahoma, approved December 19, 1890.

Looking a little wind-blown at the

DEC., 1947

The deed to the land for the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation is presented to E. G. Puterbaugh, McAlester, President of the Medical Research Foundation, by W. R. Borgmann, chairman of the state board of P.E.O. Dorothy Ewing, '47fa, Eldorado, Kansas, is director of Women's Activities for radio station KFBI in Wichita. She has charge of The Women's Program broadcast Monday through Friday of each week.

The University of Oklahoma was founded upon authority of an act of the first legislature of the Territory of Oklahoma, approved December 19, 1890.

The University of Oklahoma was founded upon authority of an act of the first legislature of the Territory of Oklahoma, approved December 19, 1890.