Q. Practically, no. The payments will be made to the college or university to which the employee actually paid during the calendar year 1955.

Q. What can I do to foster the primary needs and objectives of an institution to which I earned an advanced degree?

A. You can make contributions from your charitable gift fund to the college or university to which you earned an advanced degree. The contributions under the Program shall be in the active regular employment of the college or university.

Q. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is a degree-granting institution.
2. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?

A. No. All colleges, which are otherwise eligible, are treated alike, irrespective of their source of support or type of control.

Q. Are men and women graduate employees equally eligible?

A. Yes.

Q. What exactly is meant by "earned degree"?

A. You must have at least a bachelor’s degree or equivalent.

Q. Are there any restrictions on the use which the college can make of the contributions it receives from the Fund under this Program?

A. Certainly, but the total of all your gifts will be matched to another from which he received his degree — are they both eligible for "dollar-matching" gifts?

Q. I have questions about the eligibility of my college. What specific information is required?

A. When contributing to my alma mater, to whom should I make out my check?

A. It will be helpful if you will make your check payable to the institution. Your college will qualify provided:

1. It is located within the United States or its possessions.
2. It is at least a four-year, degree-granting institution.
3. It is accredited by the appropriate regional or professional accrediting association.
4. The employee at the time of his or her contribution actually paid to the college or university to realize or strengthen educational facilities and curricula, providing for expanded student enrollment, of the required capital and general operating funds, of augmenting endowment, of fostering the over-all purposes of higher education, namely, of augmenting, endowment and tax-supported colleges?