Here and There With Sooners

News of the Breadwinners by Classes

Marriages

Gibson-Hufbauer
The wedding of Miss Crystal Gibson, '26 art-sc., and Harold Hufbauer, '20 arts-sc., '24 law, was an event of January 24. Miss Gibson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mercer Gibson of Wagoner. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Harold Hufbauer is the son of Mrs. Frank H. Hufbauer, and the late Mr. Hufbauer. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Mr. and Mrs. Hufbauer reside in Newkirk where Mr. Hufbauer is engaged in the practice of law.

Binkley-Ireland
The marriage of Miss Elsie Doris Binkley, '28 arts-sc., to H. Andrew Ireland, M. S., '27, took place January 19 in Oklahoma City in the home of the bride’s parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Binkley. Mrs. Ireland is a member of Phi Mu, served three years on the cabinet of the Y. W. C. A., and was a member of the girls’ glee club of the university. Ireland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ireland of Elk Reno. He is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university, and an instructor in the school of geology at the University of Oklahoma. He is a member of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, national geological fraternity, and of Phi Mu Alpha, national musical fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Ireland went for a fortnight’s trip to Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, and points in Mexico. They are now residing in Norman.

Holmes-Floyd
The marriage of Miss Eleanor Holmes, ex-'26, to John Ellison Floyd, ex-'27, took place in Wichita, Kansas, February 8. Mrs. Floyd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Holmes, of Wichita. She attended National Park seminary in Washington, D. C., before she entered the University of Oklahoma. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Floyd is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Floyd, of Holdenville. He attended both Vanderbilt university and the University of Oklahoma. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd will reside at Ardmore where Mr. Floyd is engaged in oil business.

Mandeville-Routh
The marriage of Miss Nellie Mandeville to Lawrence Routh, ex-'27, was an event of February 1, at Bartlesville. Mrs. Routh, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mandeville, of Bartlesville, was graduated from the Bartlesville high school in 1928. Mr. Routh’s home is in Anadarko, but he has been for about three years an employee of the Empire Co. of Bartlesville where he and Mrs. Routh have made their home.

Births
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alvert of Wilmette, Illinois, announce the birth of a second son and a third child, George Edward, on November 12, 1928. Mr. Alvert is a member of the class of ‘20 and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He received his M. S. degree from Chicago in 1912 and his Ph. D. from Columbia in 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wilkinson of St. Louis, Missouri, announce the birth of a daughter, Joan, born February 3. Mr. Wilkinson received his B. A. degree in 1923.

News of the Breadwinners

1898
Fred C. Feagins, '98 pharm., is the proprietor of a drug store in Arkansas City, Kansas.

1902
Mrs Florena W. Hadsell, 02 arts-sc., received her degree ten years after the University of Oklahoma had been founded. Her husband is Dr. Roy Hadsell, '04 arts-sc., of the department of English at the university.

1905
Charles Lambert, '05 pharmacist, who took his degree during the first decade of the University of Oklahoma’s existence, has, besides a profession, a craft. He is a watchmaker as well as pharmacist, and is located in Plainville, Kansas.

1907
Roy J. Wolfinger, '07 arts-sc., (M. A. '16), is a professor of English at Phillips university, Enid, Oklahoma. Wolfinger is preparing his comedy class annual play which is his eighteenth in a series of original productions.

The ‘daddy’ of Tulsa county’s thriving $2,000,000-a-year poultry industry has sold his poultry farm, the first large-scale poultry place in the county, and will retire from active poultry production, though keeping his interest in the county’s poultry development.

“And while Smith A. Testerman leaves poultry farming for apartment management and other activity, one of Tulsa’s pioneers will take over Testerman’s farm to operate the poultry business. He is Lon L. Hutchison, ’07 arts-sc., 2303 Osage av.

While Hutchinson gets the Testerman fourteen acre poultry farm at the junction of the Bixby and Broken Arrow roads, Testerman gets two of the four-apartment group known as 140 and 142 E. Twenty-first st., which Hutchinson has operated since a year after they were built five years ago by Robert E. Park.”—Tulsa Tribune.

“Mrs. Walter Ferguson, ex-'07, will be hostess today at a small luncheon in honor of her guests. Mrs. G. B. Parker, ’06 arts-sc., of New York City, Mrs. Roscoe Walker of Pawhuska, and Mrs. Seward R. Sheldon, 19 arts-sc., of Ponca City, who with the Messrs. Parker, ’07 arts-sc., and Sheldon, ’15 arts-sc., and Doctor Walker, ’09 art-sc., are week-end guests in the Ferguson home. Mrs. Ferguson will entertain in her home at 1601 South Carson avenue, and the guests for the luncheon have been limited to a group of close friends of the honor guests and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Parker, both of whom are well known Oklahomans, arrived last evening for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson while on route to their home in the east from San Diego and Los Angeles, Cal., where they spent the past month. Mr. Parker is editor-in-chief of all the Scripps-Howard newspapers and Mrs. Parker, herself a writer of poetry and feature stories, was connected for several years with the faculty of the University of Oklahoma, of which she is a graduate.”—Tulsa World.

1909
An early graduate of the University of Oklahoma, J. C. M. Krumtum, '09 arts-sc., returned to the university in 1923 to take his M. A. degree. He is now professor of foreign languages at Southwestern state teachers’ college at Weatherford, Oklahoma.

John Truman Horner, '09 arts-sc., is secretary of the Dairy Products
Research Bureau, Detroit, Michigan. Horner was formerly a member of the faculty of Michigan A. & M., as assistant professor of economics.

1910
Robert W. Hutto, '10 arts-sc., is cashier of the Security National bank, Norman, Oklahoma.

1911
W. King Larimore, '11 arts-sc., is assistant superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Co. in Oklahoma City.
Dr. V. M. Wallace, '11 M. D., has been engaged in the practice of medicine in Morris, Oklahoma for fourteen years.

1912
Louis Roark, '12 arts-sc., recently resigned as chief geologist for the Kingwood Oil Co., of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and has opened an office as consulting geologist.
Captain Schenck H. Griffin, '12 arts-sc., is captain of an engineers' corps at New Orleans, Louisiana. He was formerly located at Fort Riley, Kansas.

1913
Dr. Willis K. West, '13 sc., (M. D. '15), practices medicine in Oklahoma City.

1914
Mrs. Catherine Sherman Hogan, '14 arts-sc., is residing in Los Angeles, California.

1915
Walter W. Isle, '15 arts-sc., holds the office of high school principal at Ponca City, Oklahoma.
Grady Kirby, '15 arts-sc., has chosen the Lone Star state for a professional location. He is employed as geologist for the Gulf Production Co. at San Antonio, Texas.

1916
Dr. Carl H. Guild, '16 sc., is a physician at Shidler, Oklahoma. He was formerly located at Apperson. His wife, Mrs. Florence B. Guild, received the G. N. degree in 1918.
Miss Hattie Holland, '16 arts-sc., chose an occupation that keeps her in contact with books, though not of the classroom variety. She holds the position of library cataloguer at the Carnegie library at Chickasha, Oklahoma.

1917
"When O. A. Brewer, an old-time politician of the west side, appeared in the investigation proceedings there was instant and plentiful trouble for O. A. Brewer, ('17 arts-sc., '20 law) a newcomer in public life on the east side. The man who was mentioned as an administration traveling man is the O. A. Brewer who was in the board of agriculture fight sixteen years ago and who has come to notice in the Walton, Johnston and other administrations. The other O. A. Brewer is a much younger man, not related to the older, he is county attorney of Choctaw county and was a member of the legislature in 1927. The recent reappearance of the old-time politician has caused the younger O. A. to ask newspapers to distinguish between the two."—Tulsa World, February 8.

Mrs. Flossie Lackey, '17 arts-sc., heads the commercial department in the senior high school at Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Charles E. Hutton, '17 arts-sc., (M. A. '17), is manager of the Bristow Building and Loan association, Bristow, Oklahoma.

Dr. Frank Thomason, '17 M. D., practices medicine and surgery at Slick, Oklahoma.

Angola, Africa is a long way from home, and those having correspondence over there should send their communications a month or two early. A letter addressed to Elmer L. Pierce, '17 arts-sc., to this African village, mailed October 1, reached Mr. Pierce, (not in Angola however), in January. This letter crossed the ocean twice, was forwarded several times, and finally reached Mr. Pierce, who is a Methodist minister, at his home in Shattuck, Oklahoma. The letter bore six addresses.

Jerry B. Newby, '12 arts-sc., resigned his position as vice-president of the Petroleum Reclamation Oil Co., Bradford, Pennsylvania, the first of the year, to enter business for himself. His headquarters are in Oklahoma City.

Dr. George D. Morgan, '17, geol, has recently resigned his position as vice-president of the Dixie Oil Co. in order to form his own royalty company in Fort Worth, Texas. Doctor Morgan, whose services for the Empire Oil Co. who employed him after his graduation from the University of Oklahoma resulted in his being sent to Columbia university under their auspices, published a book "The Geology of the Stonewall Quadrangle," written from the basis of his doctor's thesis, which is widely quoted and referred to by geologists.

1918

Tom Hill, ex-'18, who is a captain in the United States Marine Corps, and is now stationed in Pekin, China, returned to the United States in January. Hill accompanied Roy Chapman Andrews on his trip into the Gobi desert as a topographer.

The oldest chartered college in the United States has on its faculty a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, comparatively young as an institution of higher learning. O. K. Carretson, '18 arts-sc., is a professor of education at William and Mary's college.

Samuel N. Hall, '18 pharmac., is proprietor of the City Drug store at Wheeler, Texas.

Ralph S. Newcomb, '18 arts-sc., (M. A. '18), is dean of the faculty and head of the department of education at East Central Teachers' college, Ada, Oklahoma. Newcomb received his Ph. D. degree from Chicago university in June, 1928.

B. J. Hoar, '18 arts-sc., is superintendent of consolidated school number one, at Tipton, Oklahoma.

Herbert K. Hyde, ex-'18, is assistant United States attorney, and has been assigned to prosecute the violations of the prohibition law, in the office of the district attorney in Oklahoma City. In a recent article in the Daily Oklahoman he laments that "the big boy back of the gun seldom gets caught." In the bootlegging business, according to Hyde, it is always the underlings who pay and pay.

Miss Mariam N. Craddock, '18 arts-sc., is reference librarian at the Carnegie library, in Oklahoma City.

1919

Dr. Allison R. Hancock, '19 M. D., has changed his residence and the location of his practice from Tonkawa to Seminole, Oklahoma.

James L. Tatum, '19 arts-sc., is chief geologist for the Marland Oil Co. He is located at Laredo, Texas.

Charles B. Taylor, '19 arts-sc., is a farmer and citrus grower. His address is Edinburg, Texas, Route 1.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.
N. J. Fuqua, '19 arts-sc., is district manager of retail sales for the Wirt Franklin Petroleum Corp. at Dunlap, Oklahoma.

1920

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Hinshaw of Butler, Oklahoma, have entered the fourth estate. Dr. Hinshaw, '19 sc. (M. D. '21), purchased early in February the Foss Enterprise, Foss, Oklahoma. Mrs. Hinshaw, '20 arts-sc. (M. A. '21), is now editor of the paper.

Wallace C. Thompson, '20 sc., is a geologist with the Sun Oil Co., at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mrs. Victor C. Hornung, formerly Miss Marguerite Streeter, '20 arts-sc., resides at Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Hornung formerly taught English at Chickasha, Oklahoma.

O. P. Horne, '20 sc., is a chemist for the Marland Refining Co., Ponca City, Oklahoma.

Thomas W. White, '20 arts-sc., is cashier for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co., located in the Colcord building in Oklahoma City.

Miss Ruth Hogan, '20 arts-sc., of Pryor, Oklahoma, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Vinita hospital recently, has recovered and has returned to her work in the Pryor schools. Miss Hogan's brother, John, '22 arts-sc., and his wife, Nee Josephine Mitchell, '22 M. A., also underwent operations for appendicitis at the Vinita hospital while on a visit to their parent's home in Pryor. Mr. and Mrs. Hogan reside in Atlanta, Georgia.

Dr. Louis Leon Klostermeyer, '20 sc. (M. D. '22), is engaged in the practice of medicine in Warsaw, New York. He is located at the Community hospital.

Gerald M. Fisher, '20 sc., is supervisor of the chemical inspection laboratory of the General Petroleum Corp. of California. He is located at Los Angeles, and resides at Glendale.

Elmer L. Fraher, '20 arts-sc., is principal of the senior high school at Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Luther C. Gadberry, '20 arts-sc., is manager of the Investor's Building and Loan association of El Reno, Oklahoma.

1921

J. W. Wheat, '21 arts-sc., is superintendent of schools at Lenapah, Oklahoma.

La Verne D. Haffner, '21 pharmac., is a pharmacist in the Rexall Drug Store at Atwood, Kansas. He was formerly located at Wagoner, Oklahoma.

Errol E. Tucker, '21 pharm., is a pharmacist at Jet, Oklahoma. He is owner of the Jet Drug and Book store there.

Emmis M. Dewees, '21, journ., is editor and owner of the Southeast Oklahoman, of Hugo, Oklahoma.

Miss Lucile Cowles, '21 arts-sc., is assistant to the business manager of the News-Capital at McAlester, Oklahoma. Miss Cowles spent the past summer in California.

August W. Weigl, ex-'21, has been principal and superintendent of the schools at Ramona, Oklahoma for the past five years. He was a graduate student at the University of Missouri in the summer of 1927 and 1928.

S. D. Burton, '21 arts-sc., is physical director and athletic coach at West Texas State Teachers' college, Canyon, Texas. He is now in his eighth year in that position. Three times he has had a conference championship basketball team. His 1929 team is a strong contender for another championship.

Roland Horton, '21 eng., has left the academic side of engineering as an instructor at the University of Illinois, to become engaged in the profession practically. He is assistant chief designer for the Stoecker Engineering Co. at Webster Groves, Missouri.

Clarence Lee Furrow, '21 arts-sc. (M. A.), is a professor of biology at Knox college, Galesburg, Illinois. He was formerly an instructor in zoology at the University of Kansas.

1922

Dr. B. D. Thompson, '22 pharmac., '24 arts-sc., '24 med., (26 M. D.), is practicing medicine at Houston Texas.

John M. Thompson, '24 law, is a member of the law firm of Thompson and Thompson at Ardmore, Oklahoma.

Homer L. Hart, '22 law, is engaged in the practice of law at Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

William N. Haddad, '22 arts-sc., is practicing law in Chicago, Illinois, where he is located at 134 La Salle Street. Haddad was formerly a bank er at Beggs, Oklahoma.

Miss Blanche H. Holland, '22 arts-sc., is practicing history and psychology at Chasson high school, Oklahoma City.

Subert Turbyfill, '25 expr., '26 arts-sc., is a dramatic reader with the Independent Lyceum and is located at Ponca City and at Norman. He was formerly located at Webb City.

Miss Mary Gillette, '22 arts-sc., is head of the English department in the Hollis high school, Hollis, Oklahoma.

Mrs. M. W. Getchell, who was formerly Miss Louis Winn, '22 arts-sc., is now residing at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Getchell was formerly employed by the University of Illinois library. Mr. Getchell is employed in the congressional library.

Dr. Byron R. Gayman, '22 sc., M. D. '24, is engaged in the practice of medicine and surgery at Butler.

Dr. James Hoover, '23 sc., (M. D. '25), has in the course of three years after he received his M. D. degree, become assistant city physician of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Glenn Bell Hazel, '23 mus., is living in Oklahoma City.

Miss Nelle Haynes, '23 arts-sc., is teaching in Newkirk, Oklahoma.

Dr. Robert L. Hamilton, '23 med., (M. D. '25), practices medicine and surgery at Beggs, Oklahoma. Hamilton was formerly located at the Bethany Methodist hospital in Kansas City, Kansas.

M. D. Kirk, '23 arts-sc., '25 law, has made use of both his degrees. Formerly a teacher of law in Tulsa university, he is now an attorney for the Phillips Petroleum Co.

Lawrence R. Hay, '23 arts-sc., is engaged in oil business. He is located both in Oklahoma City and Amarillo, Texas.

William M. Taylor, '23 law, is engaged in the practice of law at Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

B. F. Thompson, '23 eng., is employed as an engineer with the Public Service Co. of Oklahoma at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Chalmers W. Hutchinson, '23 arts-sc., has enrolled as a student in the Yale law school. He formerly taught in the junior high school at Fort Worth.
FOR APRIL, 1929

W. Fred Thompson, ’22 arts-sc., treasurer of the University of Oklahoma association, is assistant manager for M. F. Fischer & Son, Norman, Oklahoma.

Miss Etta Hikes, ’22 arts-sc., teaches Latin in the high school at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

William M. Cocke, ’23 arts-sc., formerly of Ponca City high school, has moved to 3808 South Fifth street, Baltimore, Maryland.

L. C. Featherston, ’23 arts-sc., is superintendent of the Dustin school, Dustin, Oklahoma.

Mrs. J. A. Hall, who was Miss Sibyl Tinkelpaugh, ’23 arts-sc., (M. A., ’27), is supervisor of the junior high school of the Northwestern State Teachers college at Alva, Oklahoma. Mrs. Hall is a member of Alpha Phi.

Miss Grace Dickey, ’23 arts-sc., is teaching English and Latin in the high school at Anadarko. This is Mrs. Dickey’s sixth year as a teacher in that school.

James W. Fullerton, ’23 arts-sc., is engaged in the work of newspaper correspondence and is located at Tonkawa, Oklahoma.

Miss Arda E. Frans, ’23 sc., instructs students of Lawton high school in forensics and debate.

Charles E. France, ’23 law, belongs to the firm of Burford, Miley, Hoffman, & Burford of Oklahoma City.

Five years out of the university, and Milam M. King, ’23 law, has already had a measurable degree of success in his profession. He is serving as county attorney for McIntosh county. King is located at Eufaula.

1924

Alvin Ross Jackson, ’24 arts-sc., has left Canyon, Texas, where he was assistant athletic coach at West Texas State college, to become a medical student of the University of Oklahoma, now located in Oklahoma City.

Ted Hofer, ’24 arts-sc., has left Cherokee and become advertising manager for the Fairfax Chief Publishing Co. at Fairfax, Oklahoma.

Miss Prenda Jackson, ’24 chem., is now teaching in Oklahoma City.

Miss Louise Wewerka, ’24 arts-sc., is engaged in the practice of law at Wewoka, Oklahoma.

Miss Grace Winn, ’24 arts-sc., is secretary for the American Investment Co. in Oklahoma City.

Miss Nettie Louise West, ’24 arts-sc., is teaching in the high school at Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

G. M. Hohl, ’24 bus., formerly of Sand Springs, is now employed as bookkeeper for the Amarillo Building and Loan association, at Amarillo, Texas.

John W. Hybarger, '24, arts-sc., has maintained connections with the university that awarded him his sheepskin. He holds the office of assistant professor of secretarial work of the University of Oklahoma.

Miss Era Gandy, '24 arts-sc., is a teacher in the Pawhuska high school, Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

Dr. W. F. Renfrow, '24 arts-sc., and med. (26 M. D.), has recently changed the location of his practice from New Orleans, Louisiana to Houston, Texas.

Mark T. Tatum, '24 arts-sc., is employed as a printer with the Tulsa World, Tulsa, Oklahoma. Tatum went to Tulsa from Stigler, Oklahoma.

George E. Spraberry, '24 sc. (M. S. '27), superintendent of schools at Ochelata, Oklahoma, for 5 years, has just been made superintendent at Dewey.

Fred A. Holman, '24 arts-sc., is a banker at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Miss Anna Mae Dearden, '24 arts-sc., is employed as assistant registrar of the University of Oklahoma.

Wesley Robertson, '24 arts-sc., sang a group of legends and stories of the Choctaw tribe, at the meeting of the Oklahoma Hospitality club, February 15, held in Oklahoma City at the Huckins hotel. Mr. Robertson sang in Indian costume.

Mrs. Bertha Ragland Widney, '24 arts-sc., resides at Shawnee, Oklahoma. Mrs. Widney formerly taught in Shawnee.

Miss Zexie Griffith, '24 home ec., teaches home economics in the State Agricultural college at Warner, Oklahoma.

Joseph V. Fitts, ex-'24, holds the office of regional attorney for the United States Veterans’ bureau. He is located in Oklahoma City.

Kearns B. Cornell, '24 educ., is an instructor at Southwestern Teachers' college at Weatherford, Oklahoma. Cornell has been located at that school since 1924. He is head of the department of commerce.

Miss Katherine Fleming, '24 murs., is supervisor of the crippled children's hospital, a part of the University hospital in Oklahoma City.

William A. Franklin, '24 educ., is assistant professor of education at Panhandle A. & M. college at Goodwell, Oklahoma. He is also director of extension in the co-operative plan formulated for that college with the University of Oklahoma.

Miss Manone Golfeltfer, M. A., '24, teaches English in the high school at Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

C. E. Herring, M. A., '24, holds the office of assistant principal of Classen high school, Oklahoma City.

1925

Ralph G. Thompson, '25 arts-sc., '27 law, does not run true to the proverbial type of pecunious young lawyers struggling against big odds for a start in the profession. Assistant attorney general of the state of Oklahoma is the rank to which he has attained since he received his law degree in 1927.

Ralph E. Hardy, '25 law, is engaged in the practice of law at Blackwell, Oklahoma.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Hill, '25 arts-sc., teaches the fourth grade of Gatewood school in Oklahoma City.

Robert L. Hadwiger, '25, law, is an attorney at law with the firm Hadwiger and Hadwiger at Alva, Oklahoma.

William B. Morrison, M. A. '25, is a teacher of history at Southeastern State Teachers' normal at Durant. He has been connected with that school since he received his degree from Oklahoma.

Mrs. Grace Leach Whistler is residing on a ranch near Boynton, Oklahoma.

Holmes C. Wheeler, '25 geol., is employed at Colorado, Texas. He was formerly located at Enid, Oklahoma.

Miss Margaret Hodnett, '25 arts-sc., is teaching English and Spanish in the high school at Marlow, Oklahoma.

F. Mabry Hoover, '25 geol., is a geologist for the Empire O. and R. Co., Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Edward Hoopes III, '25 eng., is employed by Byrnes, Stubbins & Parsons, attorneys, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

C. S. Whitney, '25 arts-sc., is an instructor in mathematics at Northeastern Oklahoma junior college.

Graydon H. Laughhaun, '25 arts-sc., is district geologist for the Sinclair Oil and Gas Co., Seminole, Oklahoma.

E. M. Gentry, '25 bus., became a part of the official force of the First National bank of Norman February 18. Gentry was formerly associated with the Security National bank, and is credit manager of the credit department of the McGinley stores.

Miss Besse Clement, '25 arts-sc., is an instructor in Romance languages at the University of Oklahoma.

Gus M. Hollander, '25 eng., is an electrical engineer, and is employed with Commonwealth Edison, Chicago, Illinois.

Robert J. Given, '25 geol., is a member of the engineering department of the Roxana Petroleum Corp., at Earlsboro, Oklahoma.

Miss Edith Gillespie, ex-'25, is employed as assistant secretary of the Peine-Wiles Investment Co., of Blackwell, Oklahoma.

Miss Marian King, '25 home ec., has left Shreveport, Louisiana, and the serious business of teaching to take up academic pursuits as a student in the graduate school of Columbia university, New York City.

Gwayne B. Hill, '25 eng., is employed as a draftsman by the state highway department. He is located in Oklahoma City.

Frank D. Hess, '25 educ., is serving as principal of the high school at Drumright, Oklahoma. Hess has held this position for two years.

Phillip H. Green, '25 arts-sc., is employed as bank clerk for the National Bank of Commerce at Tulsa. Green was formerly located at Muskogee.

1926

Emmett Thompson, '26 arts-sc., is practicing law at El Reno, Oklahoma.

"Theft of three suit cases and two coats, comprising the traveling effects of Tulsa newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams, jr., just as their brief honeymoon ended, was revealed Tuesday by Tulsa police.

"Miss Clara A. Kramer, (ex-'26), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kram er of 321 East Nineteenth street, and Williams, ('26 law), of Chickasha, were married last Thursday night in Tulsa. They left shortly by motor for a short honeymoon trip in Texas.

"On their return Sunday night they parked their car near Boston avenue and Third street and entered a cafe, about 9:15 p.m. The suitcases, containing the bride's trousseau and other clothing and the overcoats were left in the car.

"When the two returned to the car 15 minutes later, they found the grips had been stolen. They reported to police but no estimate was placed on value of the stolen articles."—Tulsa World, February 27.
Miss Myrtle V. Wetmore, '26 expr., teaches in the high school at Coweta, Oklahoma.

Miss Louise Gibson, '26 fine arts., teaches in the junior high school at Claremore, Oklahoma.

William S. Horton, '26, is a member of the law firm Horton and Gill at McAlester, Oklahoma.

Miss Jonnie Mae Thompson, '26 home-ec., teaches home economics at the Buchanan junior high school at Amarillo, Texas. Miss Thompson taught formerly at Norman.

Milts Lydia Haag, '26 arts-sc., is teaching at Henryetta, Oklahoma.

Dick Hogan, '26 arts-sc., left the university two years ago, but continues an educational career in acting as superintendent of schools at Dale, Oklahoma.

H. W. Hooper, '26 zoo., is head of the science department in the high school at Wewoka, Oklahoma. Hooper formerly taught at Bristow.

Miss Belle Gough, '26 arts-sc., is head of the English department, and debate coach in the senior high school at Morris, Oklahoma.

Soonerland has a representative over WKY, the Oklahoma Publishing Co.'s broadcasting station in Oklahoma City. James Brill, '26 fine arts, tenor, sings with the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman quartette.

William H. Thompson, '26 law, is practicing law at Tulsa, Oklahoma. His office is located in the Central Bank building.

Charles R. Barrick, M. A. '26, occupies the presidency of Montezuma College, Montezuma, New Mexico. He was formerly professor of philosophy and psychology here.

Richard Pendleton, '26 law, was elected to serve a second term as president of the Norman unit of the Oklahoma League of Young Democrats at a meeting held February 15. The Norman unit has a membership of about 150.

Miss Mercedes Thorp, '26 art, is a teacher of art in Oklahoma City.

I. L. Cook, '26, arts-sc., is editor of the Bristow Citizen at Bristow, Oklahoma.

Clyde E. Flemings, '26 zoo., is a science instructor in the high school at Altus, Oklahoma. He formerly taught science in the Holdenville high school.

Miss Helen A. Fitzgerald, '26 educ., is teaching in Watonga, Oklahoma.

Miss Tina Mary Gaylord, '26 fine arts, now holds the position of Girl Reserve secretary at Hot Springs, National Park, Arkansas. Miss Gaylord formerly taught at Mangum, Oklahoma.

Netus L. Gard, '26 arts-sc., is a teacher of Spanish in the Clinton high school, Clinton, Oklahoma.

Miss Henrietta von Tungeln, '26 arts-sc., is teaching her third year in the Anadarko high school. She teaches in the department of Spanish and science.

John R. Cotteral, '26 med., is serving as intern in the State University Hospital at Oklahoma City. He will complete his senior year in June.

Byron Fullerton, '26 educ., (M. S. '26), began his third year as superintendent of Gotebo schools this year.

Ireland S. Andrew, M. S. '27, is an instructor at the University of Oklahoma.

Sandy W. Gregory, M. A. '27, heads the government department at Southern Teachers' college, Durant, Oklahoma.

Miss Lucille Farmer, '27 arts-sc., teaches in the city schools at McAlester, Oklahoma.

Elbert Hinds, '27 law, is engaged in the practice of law. He is located at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Duane Landon, '27 eng., is junior engineer for the Public Service Co., of Denver, Colorado.

Miss Hazel O. Fowler, '27 arts-sc., is an instructor in English and journalism at the Chickasha high school. Miss Fowler also supervises the student publication.
Alfred Greenwald, '27 sc., is chemical engineer for the Mechanical Rubber Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Lelia McClintic Holmes, M. S., '27, teaches in the Roosevelt junior high school in Oklahoma City.

Charles William Holloway, '27 arts-sc., landed in Detroit Michigan, after his college days, as a designer for General Motors.

F. Hayward Wright, '27 arts-sc., who is in the employment of the Humreno Milling Co., El Reno, Oklahoma, has recently been promoted to assistant sales manager.

Miss Dorothy Fitzgerald, '27 arts-sc., teaches in the public schools at Fort Worth, Texas.

T. Harold Gilbert, '27 arts-sc., is employed in the geological department of the Valley Osage Oil Co., Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Miss Mary Cole Hollingsworth, '27 dram. art, teaches dramatic art in the Centennial high school, Pueblo, Colorado.

Miss Edna Hoffman, '27 arts-sc., is now teaching school at Newkirk, Oklahoma.

Miss Erskine Hogue, '27 arts-sc., teaches English in the high school at Chelsea, Oklahoma.

Bula Kendall, '27 home ec., is home demonstration agent for Dewey county and Oklahoma A. & M. college. She is located at Taloga, Oklahoma.

Miss Mildred Louise Kern, '27 home ec., is an instructor in domestic art in the El Reno high school, El Reno, Oklahoma.

Miss Mildred Ledford, '27 educ., heads the art department in the College of Agriculture at Athens, Georgia.

Miss Robbie Lawrence, '27 phys. ed., directs the girls’ athletic club at Duncan, Oklahoma.

Harrell Bailey, '27 pharm., is a druggist at Hobart, Oklahoma. He was formerly located at Shamrock.

Miss Zella Morton, '27 arts-sc., is head of the English department at the Wagoner high school, at Wagoner, Oklahoma. She also trains the girls’ glee club and recently coached the musical comedy, “The Gypsy Rover.”

Miss Ruth Thelma Winn, '27 arts-sc., recently accepted a position with the United States department of agriculture at Washington, D. C. While on a vacation trip to Washington, Miss Winn requested a transfer from the United States veterans’ bureau in Oklahoma City, where she had been employed since graduation. Miss Winn’s home is in Norman.

Virgil S. Browne, jr., '27 bus., is enrolled as a student in the school of business at Harvard university.

Mrs. Laura Jean Jarret Brooks, M. A., '28, is assistant professor of Eng-

Where Football Crowds Were Seated This Season

The football crowd of the University of Oklahoma found Owen Field ready to seat them comfortably at every home game. The East Wing was ready for use in time for the first Norman game. The Stadium has a seating capacity of 32,000. Adequate dressing rooms have been provided for the teams. The WNAD, the Sooner broadcasting station, has facilities at the stadium.
lish at Oklahoma City university.

Miss Louise Beard, '27 arts-sc., is seeking fame and fortune in the fourth estate. She is school editor and feature writer for the Oklahoma News, Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Ernest R. Fain, who was formerly Miss Katherine Adams, '27 arts-sc., writes that she saw many former university students on her recent trip to Europe. Among the Sooners Mrs. Fain encountered were Miss Katherine Fullerton, ex-'28, and Miss Norman Gates, ex-'27.

Miss Mary Merlin Edwards, '27 fine arts, taught high school music last year at Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii. She was promoted this year to head the music department of the high school at Honolulu. Miss Edwards says that the schools of Hawaii are modern and up-to-date in every respect, and that school spirit and enthusiasm are high.

Miss Bonnie Lucille Crabb, '28 arts-sc., is teaching high school English and coaching debate in the high school at Tecumseh, Oklahoma.

Miss Frances M. Murphy, '27 arts-sc., is juvenile librarian at the Carnegie library in El Reno, Oklahoma.

Ray Long, '24 pharm, '27 med., is also serving his first year as intern in Oklahoma City. He is located at St. Anthony's hospital.

1928

Linne F. Holmberg, '28 sc., is a geologist for the New York, Boston Syndicate. He resides in Norman.

Hub Isaacks, med, '28, having received one degree, is working toward another. He is a medical student in the School of Medicine of the university, which was moved this year to Oklahoma City.

Troy J. Hicks, '28 educ., sells life insurance, and is located at Vinita, Oklahoma.

Miss Charlotte Hill, '28 arts-sc., teaches in the public schools of Oklahoma City.

J. F. Hinton, '28 bus, is now teaching at Beggs, Oklahoma.

Dan O. Howard, '28 geol., is a geologist for the Prairie Oil and Gas Co., Oklahoma City.

Miss Olinka Hrdy, '28 art, who will long be remembered for her mural paintings at the Copper Kettle, the university's somewhat bohemian center, is now a mural decorator for an architectural firm in Tulsa.

Lorenz Huff, M. S. '28, is a graduate assistant at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, California.

Clarence Huffman, '28 arts-sc., is a teacher and athletic coach at Jefferson, Oklahoma.

Robert T. Hughes, '28 arts-sc., is a theological student at Seminary Hill, Texas. His address is Box 465.

Miss Helen Hugos, '28 educ., is teaching at McLean, Texas.

Lynn Foster Green, '28 arts-sc., is mathematics instructor in the junior high school at McAlester, Oklahoma. Green also coaches football, basketball, and tennis.

Jake Hoover, '28 educ., teaches in the Tonkawa high school at Tonkawa, Oklahoma.

Miss Lillian Garrett, '28 educ., teaches English at the Mounds high school, Mounds, Oklahoma.

Miss Kay L. Lytle, '28 law, is a member of the law firm Lytle and Lytle, Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

Harold J. Fisher, '28 law, is assistant county attorney for Atoka county, and is located at Atoka, Oklahoma.

Miss Mary Comstock, '28 home ec., is an instructor of home economics at Morris, Oklahoma.

Miss Juliet Smith, ex-'28, is teaching in the modern language department in the high school at Morris, Oklahoma.

Tom Stevens, '28 law, has been made assistant county attorney of Pottawatomie county. He is residing at Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Homer Hill, ex-'28 of Perry, appeared on the program of the Oklahoma Christian ministers meeting in Shawnee, January 22. Mrs. Hill has studied voice at the University of Oklahoma for about three years. Most of her work was done under Williams G. Schmidt, head of the voice department.

Miss Marian Elizabeth Garrett, '28 home ec., is a student dietitian at the state university hospital in Oklahoma City.

Almer A. Barnes, '28-bus., business manager of the Oklahoma Daily, resigned early in January to accept a position with the Buick company in Oklahoma City. Ray Kimball, who was serving his second semester as advertising assistant on the Daily was elected to succeed Barnes. Kimball, whose home is in Beaver is a junior in the college of arts and sciences. Barnes was a graduate student at the time of his resignation.

Miss Dorothy Grace Taft, '28 arts-sc., is a teacher of mathematics in the Longfellow junior high school at Enid, Oklahoma.