MEMBERS of the University of Oklahoma faculty live up to the reputation Norman enjoys of being a literary center, through their writings for scholarly and popular publications, their books and their monographs. The American Association of University Professors has bi-annually published a list containing these publications. The record for the two-year period shows editorial positions held as well as articles and books written and edited. It follows:

Allen, John, "City Beginnings in Oklahoma Territory," Oklahoma University Review, vol. 7 (March); 35-43; (April); 51-54; (May); 68-74, 1935.

Amos, French E. editor, Oklahoma Municipal Review.

Baley, Frank A., 114 M.A., editor, Course of Study in English, Grades 7-12, Oklahoma City Schools, 1934; editor, Course of Study in Junior High School Social Studies, Oklahoma City, 1935.

Butler, H. W., see Thacker, I. M.

HELEN H., new English text of Carmen by Meilhac and Halévy, University of Oklahoma Press, Norman, 1935.

Send $3 Be a member

WILLIAMS, J. E., "206a, 209a, M. A., see BELCHER, J. E.

Directory Changes

Walter Howard Boatman, 311, 312, Talaga, William Carlyle Harsch, '32, 33, National Supply Company, Oklahoma City.

James B. Henderson, '32, 2260 Hemphil Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Nan Estelle Hunter Halfpenny, '33a, 402 Maridian, Boston, Massachusetts.

Anne Ethyl Marksley, '33, 120 South Okfuskee, Wewoka.

J. E. McCleary, Jr., '32, Office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas.

Leola Ruby McCormack, '33, 646 Hazelwood, Apartment 204, Detroit, Michigan.

Earle Boyd Pierce, 281, 357 U. S. Court House, Chicago, Illinois.

Evert Presley Rhea, '31, 2716 Northwest 20th, Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Johnny Richey Miller, 30, 1054 Ingraham Street, Los Angeles, California.

C. Vernon Rice, Jr., '31a, 1105 Carnegie Hall, 7th Avenue at 57th Street, New York City.

Henry A. Roach, 27, Hotel Paramount, 46th West of Broadway, New York City.

Mrs. Lottie Belle Shanks Winningham, 31, 314 Medical Arts Building, Oklahoma City.

Mary Simmons, 29, M. A., 509 Greenwood, Canyon City, Colorado.

Fred Sherman, 23, 1510 West Clinch, Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Blanche Ratliff Walker, '32, 416 West 11th, Oklahoma City.

Thomas W. White, 20, 320 South 7th, Chickasha.

Jessie Young Beatty, 31, 122 West 21st, Oklahoma City.

Births

Mrs. Dorothy Stevenson Halle, 22, a daughter, Eleanor French, February 15, Home, 30 First Street, Malone, New York.

Mrs. Miriam Austin Hunt, 27, and Cecil L. Hunt, 26, a son, David William, November 15, Home, 30 First Street, Malone, New York.

Mrs. Mary Noble Tolbert, '30a, and James R. Tolbert, 29, a son, James R. III, Home, Amarillo, Texas.

Mrs. Mary Hare Tolbert, '30, and Miles G. Tolbert, '23, a daughter, Lucy Jane, November 6, 1934, Home, Hobart.

Mrs. Clara Marie McCarral Soudah, 17, and Dr. A. E. Soudah, a son, Robert Carrel, June 11, Home, 17325 San Juan, Detroit, Michigan.

Deaths

Mr. Henry Thomas Asbury, '13b, died February 12 at Fayetteville, Arkansas. At the time of his death he was division manager for the Southwestern Gas and Electric Company.

Otto W. Walter, '20, 21, '23, a Phi Beta Kappa and Life Member of the Alumni association, was killed June 7 in an automobile accident near Hastings-on-the-Hudson, New York, where he lived.

Walter, formerly a member of the University engineering college faculty, has been teaching during the last few years at the College of the City of New York. He was acting head of the department during the past year.

Funeral services were held for him at his former home in Tonkawa. With Walter at the time of the accident were John Hewett, 31, formerly of Norman, now of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Walter and her sister, Elva Trueblood, 30, Tonkawa, Hewett and Miss Trueblood were also injured. The parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Walter are residents of Tonkawa.

Mack Cunningham, junior in the law school, died early in June at his home in Oklahoma City following an illness that kept him out of school this year.

Cunningham was an outstanding student and a member of the University debate team before he gained entrance into the law school. He was a member of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity.

Year by Year

1902

Praise for the writings of John Alley, '02 (Kingfisher), director of the University school of citizenship and public affairs, appeared in a recent issue of the Winnipeg Tribune, of Winnipeg, Canada.

"Alley has made several visits to Winnipeg and has written appreciatively of our civic administration for the benefit of American readers."

A. V. Thomas, municipal editor of the Canadian