Class of 1912 Scores

THE CLASS OF 1912 was the first to score with a life membership in the new school year.

LOUIS ROARK, '12, whose address is 2652 South Trenton street, Tulsa, had a big day by taking a paid-up life membership, finishing payment of his 2-5-0 pledge, and enrolling his son Claude in the University on the same day.

THE LIFE MEMBERSHIP PLAN is a common sense step in personal finances. The additional cost over the amount of a regular membership, if paid quarterly until paid out, is not enough to be noticeable and it will provide something that will be a satisfaction for a lifetime.

NO LIFE MEMBERSHIPS were received in August. Alumni were too busy taking vacations and complaining about the heat and waiting for a rain to think much about serious matters. But more life memberships were expected to arrive in late September, as this plan has been increasingly popular in the last few years.

YOU WILL FIND on this page a long list of names of Sooners who changed to the life membership plan. The list includes many alumni who have been out of school only a few years.

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION maintains a number of services and has a number of activities that are important to the University of today and to its reputation of tomorrow. As well as publishing The Sooner Magazine, the Association maintains a Teachers Placement Bureau for graduates, assists the University when help from its graduates is needed, encourages the organization of O. U. alumni groups throughout the state and country, and is interested in a number of other important projects.
