Here we have the new Oklahoma football coaches, John "Bo" Rowland on the left, assistant coach, shaking hands with Lewie Hardage of Vanderbilt, new head coach. Mr Hardage, a bachelor, has proved thoroughly acceptable to everyone and promises to be a solution to the troubled athletic problem of recent years. Both coaches are Vanderbilt men, Mr Hardage having been assistant Vanderbilt coach for ten years and Mr Rowland coming to Norman from Ouachita college, where he was head coach.

SOONERLAND hails a new football coach—Lewie Hardage of Vanderbilt university, and his assistant, John "Bo" Rowland, the Arkansas rapid-victory coach.

Weeks of suspense ended April 11 when the special committee appointed by Ben Owen, athletic director, to select a new coach after the voluntary resignations of Adrian Lindsey, head coach, and Dewey "Snorter" Luster, '21 arts-sc., assistant coach, came to a decision in naming Hardage as Lindsey's successor.

Sorting and eliminating masses of the applications received for the athletic jobs was no easy job for the secret committee. After nights of sleepless deliberation, members of the committee can sit back in their chairs and twaddle their thumbs, feeling satisfied that they have picked a good man in the "Southerner," who has a splendid record back of him. Mr Rowland, recommended by Mr Hardage, was selected April 14.

Mr Hardage began spring scrimmage the afternoon after his assistant was named and is plunging right into the difficult job of whipping the Sooner material into shape with one hand; and making friends with estranged alumni with the other.

The new coach, and his assistant settled right down to work Thursday, April 14, and began to do their stuff with forty-four Sooner football players who reported for spring practice.

All thoughts of Vanderbilt and Arkansas, old stomping grounds of the two new Sooner mentors, were left behind, as the coaches, quickly acclimated themselves and pooled expert resources into a new type of coaching which is designed to put the 1933 football season over with a bang.

It is believed that Mr Hardage will stress open play from the start. He will coach the backfield, while Mr Rowland will handle the line.

After the scramble for enough suits was finished Thursday, Coach Hardage put the boys through catching passes and reaching up for the ball with one hand. His instructions to the candidates to "learn to handle the ball with one hand" indicates that he will go in for forward and lateral passing in a big way. It is known that he likes medium-sized guards who can pull out and swing into the interference or drop back and block for the passer, indicative of an open style.

Coach Hardage announces that he will use a combination of the style of play employed by Wade and that used at Vanderbilt. "I hope to combine the best features of both styles of play, shaping up a team that can show well on the field without sacrificing effectiveness," he says.

The new coach is full of enthusiasm. He radiates optimism, and this spirit seems to be caught up by the boys. And he has a word for alumni:

"I hope to see many students and alumni out warming up the benches this spring and next fall. The boys on the field are as much their boys as mine. Nothing encourages us so much as to see alumni and students showing a real, personal interest in our work. We want support, cooperation, cheers, and prayers."

Soonerland has every appearance of being well pleased with Coach Hardage, who displays indications of being able to handle athletics with the same fire and strength that resulted in the sensational success of the Vanderbilt team during the ten years Mr. Hardage served there as assistant coach.

While in college, Mr. Hardage was put on the 1912 all-American team as halfback by Walter Camp, and Grantland Rice placed him in 1911 and 1912. Playing two years at Auburn and two at Vanderbilt, Hardage made the all-Southern conference team four years.

Mr. Rowland, who has won five Arkansas collegiate championships in the last five years, comes here after a year's stay at Ouachita college, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. He has coached two years at Henderson-Brown college and two at Henderson state college. He graduated from Vanderbilt in 1925, and is a former pupil of Coach Hardage.

Dan McGugin, director of athletics at Vanderbilt, gives Coach Hardage a big sendoff:

"From a standpoint of running, Hardage excelled any other back I have ever seen and he has the happy faculty of handing his knowledge of how to carry the ball down to his pupils."

The ability to teach his backs to "get up and go," has been attributed to Hardage, and is said to be one reason Vanderbilt has had remarkable success in football.

The names of Ray Morrison, coach of the Southern Methodist university Mustangs, and Wallace Wade, former Alabama coach, now Duke university head, are linked with Hardage's.

Bennie Owen said in announcing the selection of Hardage:

"He and Wade have been running mates for years. For the last few weeks, Hardage has been at Duke university coaching Wade's backs and they have exchanged ideas for years. When Wade left Alabama to go to Duke, Wade recommended Hardage for the 'Bama position but McGugin and Vanderbilt were reluctant to let him go. Only by convincing McGugin of the excellent opportunities at Oklahoma, would the Vanderbilt director agree to release him."

Coach Hardage coached the play of the air force team at Barron Field, Texas, during the World war and won the southwest championship. During the ten years he has been assistant coach at Vanderbilt, teams of that university have never finished lower than fifth in a twenty-one team league. He is a bachelor and is forty years old.

Years of agitation over the athletic situation of the university came into the open this spring and resulted in the resignation of Mr. Lindsey, all Missouri Valley football player of the University of Kansas and former coach of Bethany college, Lindsborg, Kansas, as football coach of the university. Previously, Mr. Luster, captain of the undefeated Sooners of 1920, resigned as assistant coach.

Despite these resignations, the situation was not much clearer. They followed the insistent demands of certain state sport writers for a new coach. As soon as Mr. Lindsey resigned, certain capital city agitators made it known that they wanted favorite high school coaches appointed. An avalanche of applications descended on the athletic association, recommenda-
At first free or very cheap lands seemed to offer such an opportunity. Once they were gone it was a natural step to transfer his interest to cheap stocks. Here lie the roots of much of our economic distress.

The frontier spirit is a restless spirit. We own more automobiles than all the rest of the world. Moreover we drive them—and how! We are a nation on wheels. We drive three hours to reach a town exactly like any other town and then turn about and drive madly home again.

It might naturally be supposed that people living in small towns and cities of the Middle West with little opportunities to hear good music, attend grand opera or to visit great libraries and art galleries would feel a real hunger for such things. It would seem natural then when vacation time comes many of us would journey to the cultural centers of the East there to hear or see the work of great artists, to study in the great libraries, and to view the rich treasures of museums and art galleries. As a matter of fact we do nothing of the kind. We put a luggage carrier on the left running board of the family automobile, pile in blankets, army cot, pots, pans and other camp equipment and start west. We stay at tourist camps by night, or camp beside a stream and cook bacon and coffee over a camp fire. We pause at filling stations to swap mileage we get to the gallon and eventually reach Mesa Verde, Yellowstone, the Petrified Forest, or merely some remote canyon of the Rocky Mountains. There we camp some more, fish, live out of doors and at last return to tell tall tales of fish caught, or nearly caught, and of the wonderful vacation we have had.

Most of us have seen literally thousands of these people scattered along the highways or resting in the tourist camps that so plentifully sprinkle the Great West. Men in checked golf knickers, and hose of variegated hues, and corpulent women in khaki breeches with silk stockings, high heeled slippers and boudoir caps. "There goes a bunch of hypocrites around here.

Perhaps it is the western optimism inherited from many generations of pioneer ancestors which makes me feel that the elements of hope found in this spirit of the West far outweigh the elements of danger. Our problems are far different from those of our frontier forebears but their blood flows in our veins and their courage and hardihood still live on in the present generation. We have new wine for old bottles and new tasks for old enthusiasms. Let us trust that the Spirit of the West will enable us to triumph over difficulties; that the optimism, energy, and faith that conquered a continent may enable us to conquer the foes that endanger our nation and the modern society in which we live.

Perhaps it is the western optimism inherited from many generations of pioneer ancestors which makes me feel that the elements of hope found in this spirit of the West far outweigh the elements of danger. Our problems are far different from those of our frontier forebears but their blood flows in our veins and their courage and hardihood still live on in the present generation. We have new wine for old bottles and new tasks for old enthusiasms. Let us trust that the Spirit of the West will enable us to triumph over difficulties; that the optimism, energy, and faith that conquered a continent may enable us to conquer the foes that endanger our nation and the modern society in which we live.

The Sooner Magazine

May

HAIL AND FAREWELL!

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 265)

Sooner to accomplish the nearly impossible and win all games blamed young Prof. Lindsey.

Ever since the team returned triumphant from a successful though foolish jinket to Hawaii the wolves have sounded their merciless and bigoted chorus, which must have been sweet music to one Alfalfa, and that fourth player who has let an indifferent world know that he doesn't go much for "those football matches."

Gallant old Benny Owen fought for his youthful coach, but in vain. The wolf pack continued their game to be played on the championship stand-ard demanded at O. U.

It's gonna be plenty silly, tho, to keep firing coaches for not winning games and to keep turning down 200-pound fullbacks so we can bribe our simon pure "sports for sports sake" attitude.

It might make strangers think we've got a bunch of hypocrites around here.

Gal Wood of The Tulsa Tribune writes that the resignation of Lindsey should wipe the slate clean:

The resignations of Adrian Lindsey as head coach should bring about a tremendous revival in football interest at the University of Oklahoma. That can be said with all due respect to Ad and in full recognition of the fine record he has established in five years of coaching at the Norman institution.

It's gonna be plenty silly, tho, to keep firing coaches for not winning games and to keep turning down 200-pound fullbacks so we can bribe our simon pure "sports for sports sake" attitude.

It might make strangers think we've got a bunch of hypocrites around here.

Gal Wood of The Tulsa Tribune writes that the resignation of Lindsey should wipe the slate clean:

The resignation of Adrian Lindsey as head coach should bring about a tremendous revival in football interest at the University of Oklahoma. That can be said with all due respect to Ad and in full recognition of the fine record he has established in five years of coaching at the Norman institution.

Sorry as we are to see the passing of Lindsey, we are happy for O. U.

The action in stepping gracefully from the picture may remove a most unfortunate situation which has existed in the Oklahoma football department for the last two years.

In the first place it may bring in new coaching blood that will completely dominate the Oklahoma football picture. This domination—for reasons not widely known—has been sadly lacking in the last two years. The present grid student and the alumni may revel enough in their victorious effort to oust Lindsey that they will welcome a new coach and the removal of all inducements.

Complete domination of the football department by the head coach, departmental harmony and the moral support of the entire school and its alumni is absolutely necessary if the grid game is to be played on the championship standard demanded at O. U.

If all of this is accomplished, Lindsey, by stepping out, will have done more for the school than he possibly could have done in two or three years of football coaching. For some reason or other Ad wasn't popular with the students and certain fraternities in the coaching staff made him lose strength with players on his football squad and members of the "O" club. School spirit was at its lowest ebb last fall, and as Lindsey seemed to win a championship the natural reaction was the student-alumni campaign to "get Lindsey." And they 'got' him.

Follows a complimentary sendoff from C. E. McBride of The Kansas City Star:

Oklahoma hardly will be able to obtain a better football coach than Lindsey, who recently resigned the chair of Pigskinology at Norman. Oklahoma may obtain a coach who will fit into the scheme of the football program better than did Lindsey, but in the knowledge of football and the business of teaching it chances are the new coach, whoever he may be, will have nothing on Ad Lindsey.
I know little about conditions at Oklahoma. I do not know that Lindsey did not do well with the conditions he had to meet. Maybe he did. But I do know that Ad Lindsey is a coaching genius. Several times have we met Lindsey's team in his Big Six coaching period known the value of Lindsey as a coach.

In the time Ad Lindsey was at Oklahoma the football teams started the Big Six conference with the exception of Nebraska, the Nor- man institution was the only conference school. With the single exception of Nebraska, the Norman institution was the only conference school able to meddle with Sooner athletic successes.

Responsibility for the campaign against Lind- sey, admittedly a high type man and capable coach, belongs in the main on the shoulders of unreasoning alumni, but part of it, I suggest, may be traced to the door of Oklahoma's department of ballyhoo.

The Sooner of 1931 won their opening game with Rice Institute, after which the Lindsey team was over-touted by Norman publicity agents as a sure shot holder for the Six Six championship. As a matter of fact, the Oklahoma squad lacked the physical material, also the numbers, to go to the pace, yet Lindsey, the coach, is the one who pays the price.

It seems that some of the student laddies at the University of Oklahoma have been caught firing at half-cock. Taking their cue from certain alumni who made matters un- pleasant for the university administration, Coach Lindsey solved the problem by stepping aside.

Statistics, compiled recently at Norman, dis- closed that Lindsey's Sooner teams ranked sec- ond in the country in conference competition in planting games in the victory column. With the single exception of Nebraska, the Nor- man institution was the only conference school able to meddle with Sooner athletic successes.

The Sooner's of 1931 won their opening game with Rice Institute, after which the Lindsey team was over-touted by Norman publicity agents as a sure shot holder for the Six Six championship. As a matter of fact, the Oklahoma squad lacked the physical material, also the numbers, to go to the pace, yet Lindsey, the coach, is the one who pays the price.

It seems that some of the student laddies at the University of Oklahoma have been caught firing at half-cock. Taking their cue from certain alumni who made matters un- pleasant for the university administration, Coach Lindsey solved the problem by stepping aside.

Statistics, compiled recently at Norman, dis- closed that Lindsey's Sooner teams ranked sec- ond in the country in conference competition in planting games in the victory column. With the single exception of Nebraska, the Nor- man institution was the only conference school able to meddle with Sooner athletic successes.

The Sooner's of 1931 won their opening game with Rice Institute, after which the Lindsey team was over-touted by Norman publicity agents as a sure shot holder for the Six Six championship. As a matter of fact, the Oklahoma squad lacked the physical material, also the numbers, to go to the pace, yet Lindsey, the coach, is the one who pays the price.

It seems that some of the student laddies at the University of Oklahoma have been caught firing at half-cock. Taking their cue from certain alumni who made matters un- pleasant for the university administration, Coach Lindsey solved the problem by stepping aside.

Statistics, compiled recently at Norman, dis- closed that Lindsey's Sooner teams ranked sec- ond in the country in conference competition in planting games in the victory column. With the single exception of Nebraska, the Nor- man institution was the only conference school able to meddle with Sooner athletic successes.
Mr Lindsey's first game as coach of a Sooner team was against the University of Chicago at Chicago in 1927, Oklahoma pulling the game out of the fire by scoring two touchdowns in the last five minutes and winning, 13 to 7. During his four seasons of Big Six conference coaching Mr Lindsey has ranked second among the coaches of his loop as the following table will show:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>W</th>
<th>L</th>
<th>T</th>
<th>PCT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Nebraska (Berg, Bible)</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Oklahoma (Lindsey)</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Missouri (Henry)</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Kansas State (McMillin)</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Kansas (Hargiss)</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Iowa State (Workman, Veenker)</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Oklahoma teams coached by Mr Lindsey have given mighty Nebraska its toughest football jolts in the Big Six. During their four years of Big Six competition the Cornhuskers have lost but two games and been tied three times. Kansas State inflicted one loss by a 10-to-9 score in 1929. Missouri earned two ties, while Lindsey's Sooners played the Huskers to a 13-13 draw at Lincoln in 1929 and defeated them 20 to 7 at Norman in 1930, the worst licking Nebraska had suffered in its own conference for two decades.

Lindsey's Sooner teams have also fared well against other conference schools. He won three games to Kansas' two, three to Kansas State's two, broke even with Iowa State. Only Missouri with three victories and a tie in five starts, can claim complete ascendancy over him.

Since Mr Lindsey has been head coach his Oklahoma teams have played terrifically hard schedules with no "breathers" sandwiched in among the important games. In his four years he was forced to send a sophomore team on consecutive road trips against Nebraska, Kansas and Kansas State and played a total of twelve games, all against strong foes. Also, with the University of Oklahoma pledged not to make an extensive drive for high school athletes, Mr Lindsey has had to watch the cream of this talent flock to other state institutions whose conferences do not have as strict legislation against proselytism as does the Big Six.

Although this factor was discounted by persons and cliques seeking his ouster, Oklahoma teams coached by Mr Lindsey fought cleanly and gamely and were coached to take their defeats with fine decorum and sportsmanship, all of which should give the resigned Sooner coach a great deal of personal satisfaction when he takes permanent leave of the Oklahoma campus next July. His attitude throughout the controversy proved Mr Lindsey a gentleman to the core.

Coach Hardage has been smiling his crankily-eyed smile nearly all the time since he arrived in Norman, cowhide bags, sport paraphernalia and southern drawl. He became a Sooner that day. And the only thing he has to send back for will be his hunting dogs. Ostensibly, he is a bachelor, just turning the corner of forty years, not looking it a bit. But with leap year, 2,500 co-eds, the fact there are only fourteen unappropiated bachelors upon the university payroll against twenty-nine young women instructors (recent survey), it looks as though the coach will have opportunity for diversion when football work is over. Ad Lindsey was a charming young bachelor when he first came to the university but he is now head of a family of three.

The new coach and his assistant, Coach Rowland made their initial bow to the student body at the Ruf Nek-Jazz Hound dance, April 15, given in their honor. Honoring the newly elected mentor, a football banquet was given in the Union April 13. All football lettermen, all candidates for the varsity squad, members of the athletic council and newspaper sportswriters, were invited guests.

For those Sooners interested in the all-time football record of the university and of the coaches of those teams, The Sooner Magazine publishes the following list. The name of the coach is set in Kabel black face letters, and his record follows. The record is as complete as it is possible to make it.

John W. Harts, 1895

- Sooners 0, Oklahoma City 34 1936
- Sooners 16, Norman H. S. 0 1896
- Sooners 16, Norman H. S. 0 1895

Vernon L. Patterson, 1897-1900

- Sooners 16, Oklahoma City 0 1897
- Sooners 17, Kingfisher 8 1898
- Sooners 5, Arkansas City 0 1900
- Sooners 24, Ft. Worth Christian 0 1899
- Sooners 39, Kingfisher 6 1899
- Sooners 11, University of Arkansas 5 1900
- Sooners 11, Arkansas City 17 1898
- Sooners 2, Texas 28 1899
- Sooners 27, Chillocco 0 1899
- Sooners 79, Ft. Reno 0 1900
- Sooners 5, Kingfisher 0 1900
- Sooners 10, Arkansas City 0 1898

Fred Roberts, 1901

- Sooners 6, Texas 12 1901
- Sooners 7, Oklahoma City 0 1901
- Sooners 42, Fairmount 0 1901
- Sooners 28, Kingfisher 6 1901
- Sooners 0, Texas 11 1901

Mark McMahan, 1902 and 1903

- Sooners 62, Guthrie 0 1902
- Sooners 6, Texas 22 1903
- Sooners 12, Oklahoma City 0 1902
- Sooners 28, Arkansas City 0 1903
- Sooners 30, Oklahoma City 0 1903
- Sooners 15, Kingfisher 0 1903
- Sooners 5, Missouri 0 1903
- Sooners 6, Emporia 5 1903
- Sooners 17, Kingfisher 0 1903
- Sooners 11, Fairmount 5 1903
- Sooners 6, Emporia 6 1903
- Sooners 5, Kansas 17 1903
- Sooners 5, Texas 11 1903
Sooners 0, Arkansas City
Sooners 12, Chillicothe
Sooners 10, Bethany
Sooners 27, Lawton
Sooners 38, Chillicothe
Sooners 0, Kingfisher
Sooners 6, Texas
Sooners 6, Texas Aggies

Dr Fred Ewing, 1904

1904
Sooners 0, Kingfisher
Sooners 33, Pauls Valley
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 6, Lawton
Sooners 31, Tipton
Sooners 9, Bethany
Sooners 75, Oklahoma Aggies

Bennie Owen, 1905-1927

1905
Sooners 28, Edmond
Sooners 18, Haskell
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 33, K. C. Medics
Sooners 6, Washburn
Sooners 2, Texas
Sooners 11, Texas Aggies
Sooners 58, Edmond
Sooners 29, Bethany

1906
Sooners 12, Central
Sooners 11, Kingfisher
Sooners 23, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 4, Kansas
Sooners 0, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 17, Central
Sooners 48, Sulphur
Sooners 0, Washburn
Sooners 0, Pawhuska

1907
Sooners 32, Kingfisher
Sooners 43, Chillicothe
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 0, Epworth
Sooners 67, Oklahoma A. & M.
Sooners 0, Texas A. & M.
Sooners 0, Texas A. & M.
Sooners 10, Texas
Sooners 0, Washburn

1908
Sooners 51, Edmond
Sooners 51, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 51, Kingfisher
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 33, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 14, Arkansas
Sooners 24, Epworth
Sooners 50, Texas
Sooners 12, Fairmount
Sooners 6, Washburn

1909
Sooners 55, Central
Sooners 46, Kingfisher
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 23, Alva
Sooners 5, Arkansas
Sooners 2, Texas
Sooners 11, St. Louis Uni.
Sooners 8, Texas A. & M.
Sooners 0, Texas
Sooners 0, Epworth

1910
Sooners 66, Kingfisher
Sooners 79, Edmond
Sooners 12, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 0, Missouri
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 3, Texas

1911
Sooners 104, Kingfisher
Sooners 12, Bible Christian
Sooners 22, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 12, Alva
Sooners 37, Washburn
Sooners 6, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 3, Kansas

1912
Sooners 40, Kingfisher
Sooners 87, Edmond
Sooners 21, Dallas
Sooners 21, Kansas
Sooners 6, Kansas
Sooners 6, Texas

1913
Sooners 77, Kingfisher
Sooners 96, East Central
Sooners 13, Missouri
Sooners 7, Texas
Sooners 16, Kansas
Sooners 28, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 32, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 14, Colorado

1914
Sooners 67, Central
Sooners 67, Kingfisher
Sooners 96, East Central
Sooners 13, Missouri
Sooners 7, Texas
Sooners 16, Kansas
Sooners 28, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 32, Oklahoma Aggies

1915
Sooners 67, Kingfisher
Sooners 102, Northwestern
Sooners 29, Missouri
Sooners 14, Texas
Sooners 23, Kansas
Sooners 14, Kendall College
Sooners 23, Arkansas
Sooners 21, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 26, Oklahoma Aggies

1916
Sooners 23, Central
Sooners 107, Shawnee Catholics
Sooners 140, Southwestern
Sooners 0, Henry Kendall
Sooners 7, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 13, Kansas
Sooners 96, Kingfisher
Sooners 13, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 41, Oklahoma Aggies

1917
Sooners 99, Central
Sooners 58, Port Field Fd. Sill
Sooners 53, Kingfisher
Sooners 52, Phillips
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 14, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 0, Arkansas
Sooners 6, Kansas
Sooners 80, Kendall
Sooners 0, Oklahoma Aggies

1918
Sooners 44, Central
Sooners 58, Port Field Fd. Sill
Sooners 53, Kingfisher
Sooners 52, Phillips
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 14, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 0, Arkansas
Sooners 6, Kansas
Sooners 44, Central

1919
Sooners 44, Central
Sooners 58, Port Field Fd. Sill
Sooners 53, Kingfisher
Sooners 52, Phillips
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 14, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 0, Arkansas
Sooners 6, Kansas
Sooners 44, Central

1920
Sooners 44, Central
Sooners 58, Port Field Fd. Sill
Sooners 53, Kingfisher
Sooners 52, Phillips
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 14, Texas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 0, Arkansas
Sooners 6, Kansas
Sooners 44, Central

1921
Sooners 35, Boomers
Sooners 21, Central
Sooners 6, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 24, Washington
Sooners 0, Nebraska
Sooners 24, Kansas
Sooners 14, Missouri
Sooners 14, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 27, Rice

1922
Sooners 7, Boomers
Sooners 19, Central
Sooners 6, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 7, Nebraska
Sooners 3, Kansas
Sooners 7, Missouri
Sooners 7, Texas
Sooners 0, Washington

1923
Sooners 0, Nebraska
Sooners 14, Central
Sooners 12, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 3, Kansas
Sooners 7, Missouri
Sooners 7, Kansas Aggies

1924
Sooners 0, Central
Sooners 12, Nebraska
Sooners 0, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 0, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 0, Missouri
Sooners 0, Kansas

1925
Sooners 0, Nebraska
Sooners 9, Kansas
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 21, Washington
Sooners 47, St. Louis
Sooners 14, Oklahoma Aggies

1926
Sooners 14, Arkansas
Sooners 11, Drake
Sooners 12, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 9, Kansas
Sooners 0, Illinois
Sooners 21, Washington
Sooners 47, St. Louis
Sooners 14, Oklahoma Aggies

1927
Sooners 13, Chicago
Sooners 27, Boomers
Sooners 13, Creighton
Sooners 14, Kansas Aggies
Sooners 28, Washington
Sooners 7, Missouri

1928
Sooners 7, Indiana
Sooners 34, Boomers
Sooners 7, Creighton
Sooners 12, Kansas State
Sooners 0, Iowa State
Sooners 6, Nebraska
Sooners 14, Kansas
Sooners 46, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 14, Missouri

1929
Sooners 11, Illinois
Sooners 34, Boomers
Sooners 7, Creighton
Sooners 0, Texas
Sooners 14, Kansas State
Sooners 0, Iowa State
Sooners 0, Kansas
Sooners 13, Nebraska
Sooners 7, Oklahoma Aggies
Sooners 0, Missouri
1930
Sooners 47, New Mexico .................................. 0
Sooners 20, Nebraska ..................................... 7
Sooners 7, Texas ............................................. 7
Sooners 7, Kansas State .................................... 0
Sooners 9, Iowa State ...................................... 13
Sooners 6, Kansas Aggies .................................. 13
Sooners 0, Oklahoma Aggies .............................. 7
Sooners 0, Missouri .......................................... 0
1931
Sooners 19, Rice .......................................... 6
Sooners 0, Nebraska ........................................ 13
Sooners 0, Texas ............................................. 3
Sooners 0, Kansas Aggies .................................. 14
Sooners 12, Iowa State ...................................... 13
Sooners 10, Kansas .......................................... 0
Sooners 0, Missouri .......................................... 7
Sooners 0, Oklahoma Aggies .............................. 6
Sooners 20, Tulsa Uni. ...................................... 6
Sooners 20, Honolulu ...................................... 59
Sooners 7, Uni. of Hawaii .................................. 0

GRADUATES IN EMBRYO

(continued from page 259)

system every Sunday afternoon. At present, Doctor Puling is touring every state capital in the United States. He flies to New York City to conduct his radio hour every Sunday afternoon.

Phi Beta Kappa

Phi Beta Kappa elected for membership this spring six juniors, twenty-four seniors and five alumni. The alumni named are:

James E. Belcher, B. A. '22, assistant professor of chemistry in the university.

George B. Parker, B. A. '07, New York University, editor-in-chief of Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Ralph Records, B. A. '22, assistant professor of history in the university.

Mrs May Frank Rhoads, B. A. '22, instructor in journalism in the university and literary editor of the Oklahoman.

Guy Horace Taylor, B. A. '22, assistant professor of economics in Columbia university.

The juniors, in order of scholastic rank, are as follows:

Seymour Ingerson, Chickasha, David St. Clair, Norman, Evelyn Anderson, Norman, Olive Havves, Norman, Edwin Humphrey, Chickasha, Malinda Brown, Muskogee.

The senior list, arranged in alphabetical order, is as follows:

Debate victory

Upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved: That congress should enact legislation providing for the government control of industry," the Sooner debating team composed of Charles Christiansen, Lawton, and Max Cummingham, Oklahoma City, defeated the team from Colorado college, Colorado Springs, March 19.

Students in race

Two lawyers are making plans not to starve when they leave school in June. No bright shining shingles for them, if they can help it. They have thrown their hats in the volon race. Herben Palmer, graduate student from El Reno, and at present a member of the legislature will be in the Canadian county race for the state legislature. Kenneth Reed, junior lawyer from Heavener will seek the democratic nomination in LeFlore county. Reed is so set on winning his race that he spent his Easter vacation opening his campaign in LeFlore county.

Women scholars

Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary fraternity for women has announced pledging of the following students:

Ernestine Cortazar, Norman; Eloise Longtin and Anne Stinnett, both of Oklahoma City; straight-A students.

Suzanne Arnot, Delia Franklin, Mary Tappan, Bessie Knieseley, Nona Boyett, Betty Schmidt and Maude Bly, all of Norman; Rhea Byers, Lois Nicholson, Mary Frances Blalack, Dorian Mathews and Mildred Futuransky, all of Oklahoma City. Dorothy Woodruff, Perry; Betty Adams and Winifred Ketchum, Tulsa; Thelma Sherry, Holdenville; Anna Belle Fries, Bristow; Katheryn Crews, Mounds; Opal Murray, Denver, Colo.; Violet Hope Poinsett, Enid; Louise Payne, Moore; and Mary Looney, Muskogee.

First orator

Junius M. Austin, '33 ed., won first place and $60 in the state peace oratorical contest, sponsored by the Intercollegiate Peace association, which was held at the university in March. "World Peace by Conscription of Property" was Austin's subject. Second place went to Charlotte Sears, Oklahoma City university; and third place was won by Horace Goss, representative of Central State Teachers college.

Jobs for druggists

The depression does not seem to have hit the drug store business. Perhaps with the approach of summer days druggists are anticipating a heavy increase in sale of soft drinks, since three university graduates in pharmacy of last semester have secured jobs. Each received a position as pharmacist immediately upon passing the examinations given by the state board of pharmacy. They are Virgil Ridgeway of Jet, who has a position at Poteau; Willis Brindle, Norman, who went to Marlow; and Otis Lee, Delhi, who secured a position in Oklahoma City.

Sooner editor, manager

Jack High, '34 arts-sc., Oklahoma City and Earl Sneed, '34 arts-sc., Tulsa, (son of Earl Sneed '13) have been selected editor and business manager, respectively, of the 1933 Sooner, it has been announced by the publication board. Work on next year's annual will commence during the last weeks in May.

Eyes that listen

Many students who have a difficult time hearing what the professors say, could well admire the habits of Mary Elizabeth Scott, Norman, freshman, who is obtaining her college education by reading lips.

Deprived of her hearing as a result of scarlet fever at the age of three and a half years, Miss Scott soon learned lip reading, maintaining a good scholastic average in high school. She is preparing to be a librarian, preferably in a law library.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Athletic finances

Erstwhile telegrams bearing the cheery little greetings that Stadium-Union fees are due may cause a moment's worry to recipients, but the necessity that provoked sending them is a real one to the athletic association. Ben G. Owen, director of athletics, is in arrears for the athletic association and there remains more than $350,000 in unpaid subscriptions, or promises to pay for the Stadium-Union.

On April 1, the bonds payment of $279,825.50, which includes principal and interest, was to be paid. The athletic council, which is standing and liable for the Stadium-Union payment, has only $17,455 available. Mr Owen announced that a plan whereby the 1933 gate receipts in all Sooner sports would be offered as collateral for an extension of the bonds to a fifteen-year basis, from the present ten-year basis. This plan would eliminate necessity of borrowing more than $10,000 this year to pay indebtedness. The athletic fund deficit was due largely to the drop in gate receipts on football and the sale of only $16,000 in student tickets. The 1931 ticket sale to students was $25,000 and the 1930 sale, $34,600. The football receipts must support the sports program.